Thompson Claims 3 Assassinated JFK

ASSASSINATION PROBER. Dr. Josiah (Tink) Thompson, former East Liverpool resident, sits at his desk at Haverford, Pa., with notes and pictures used in writing his book, "Six Seconds In Dallas," which seeks to prove three men were involved in the slaying of President John Kennedy instead of just one as the Warren Commission reported. (UPI Telephoto)

Details of an investigation of the assassination of President John Kennedy by a former East Liverpool man, indicating he was hit by a bullet from the front by another assassin, are revealed in a magazine article to be published Tuesday.

The study by Dr. Josiah Thompson, Haverford College professor and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Thompson of Park Blvd., is in the Dec. 2 Saturday Evening Post issue.

A microscopic investigation of the films of the Dallas slaying shows two separate bullets hit the President in the head—one from the rear, the other from the front—Dr. Thompson writes.

The report says three assassins fired four bullets from three locations, and none of them missed—one bullet struck Mr. Kennedy in the back.

IN A PERSONAL statement and in an editorial, William Emerson Jr., Post editor, urges a new probe of the killing. He writes, "I think we remain dishonored until we solve the murder of our President."

Dr. Thompson, 32, known as "Tink" to friends here, attended East Liverpool High School, later did preparatory work at Andover Academy and earned his master's and doctor of philosophy degree at Yale University.

In his report, Dr. Thompson says his microscopic examinations of the assassination films and precise measurements of Kennedy's head movements show "A virtually simultaneous double impact on the President's head."

Dr. Thompson says his examination of brighter, clearer copies of the films than the FBI or Warren Commission had, also reveals "indisputable photographic evidence" that Texas Gov. John Connally could not have been wounded by the same bullet which struck President Kennedy. This new evidence, according to Dr. Thompson, "shatters both the 'single bullet' theory and its offspring the 'delayed reaction' theory used in an attempt to explain Governor Connally's wounds."

The study, which climaxes a two - year investigation, concludes:

THE FIRST SHOT, which struck President Kennedy in the back, was fired from the Texas School Book Depository Building;

The second shot, which wounded Governor Connally ¾ to 1½ seconds later, was fired from the east side of Dealey Plaza, probably from the rooftop of the Dallas County Records Building, diagonally across the corner (of Houston and Elm streets) from the Depository.

The third shot, fired about four seconds after the Connally shot, also came from the Depository building and struck the President in the rear of the head.

The fourth and final shot, which struck Mr. Kennedy in the right front of the head an eighteenth of a second after the third bullet, "was fired from near the corner of the stockade fence" atop the grassy knoll of the north of Elm street, at a range of about 40 yards and probably from a long-barreled pistol.

Prof. Thompson's study backs up his film examination discoveries with medical reports, mathematical calculations of bullet trajectories and angles, eyewitness, ear witness and even nose - witness testimony, plus physical evidence including an analysis of the dispersion of the President's brain tissue.

IN ADDITION to his film analysis and review of medical evidence showing the front shot to President Kennedy's head, Dr. Thompson says a survey of testimony of witnesses showed at least seven persons saw a puff of smoke from the stockade fence atop the grassy knoll.

Dozens of persons raced there, including a policeman who smelled gunsmoke. A Dallas patrolman said a woman told

U.S. Planes Hit Targets In Haiphong

Boat Construction And Repair Yard Bombed First Time

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Navy planes bombed a boat construction and repair yard close to the center of Haiphong and only 1.7 miles from the international docks today for the first time in the Vietnam war.

A U.S. spokesman said A4 Skyhawks from the carrier Coral Sea struck at noon at the "Haiphong Shipyard No 2," only one mile west of the geographical center of the city.

Three similar boatyards farther away from the city's center were hit in raids last month.

Left untouched were Haiphong's vital unloading piers and docks where an attack on a Soviet ship might bring Soviet-American relations to a crisis point.

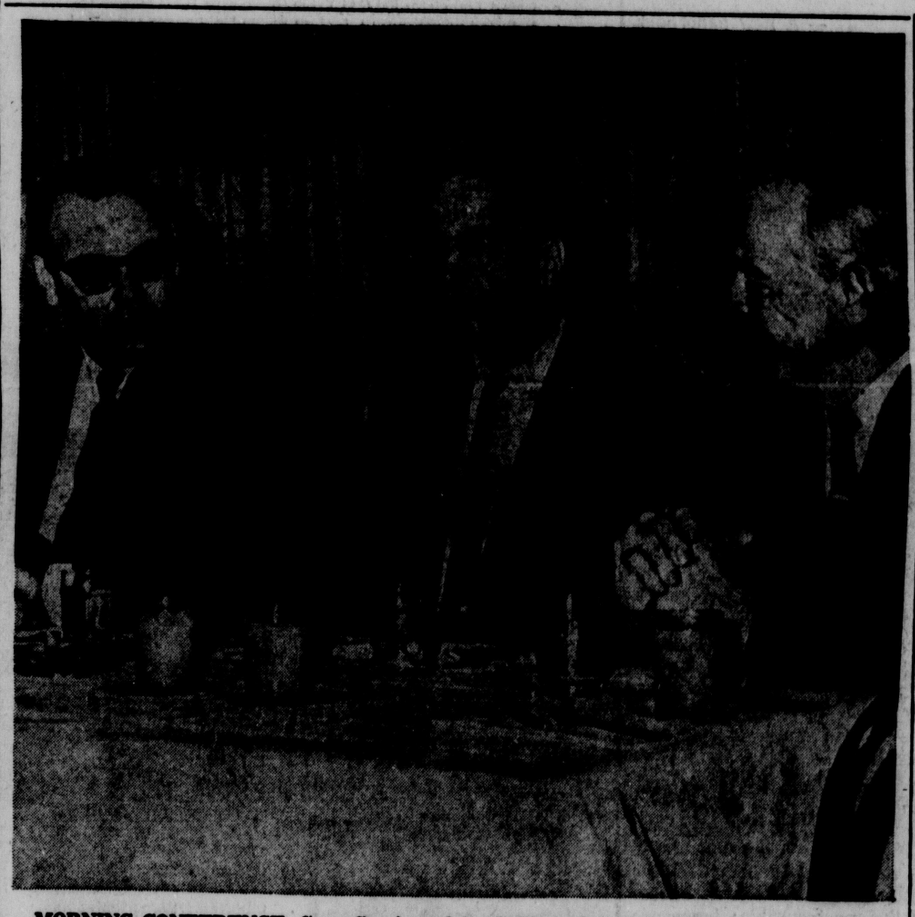

The U.S. spokesman said the boatyard hit today was on a small river called the Tram Bac. The yard previously had been on the Pentagon's list of off-limits targets.

There was no immediate word on the extent of damage.

In the ground war in South Vietnam, Communist forces generally avoided a close combat but made three mortar and gunfire attacks which killed 26 Americans and wounded 53.

Red mortars also hit the forward base camp at Dak To for the fifth time in 24 hours, caus-

LBJ Talks To General On Vietnam

Earlier Deployment Of Forces Seen But No Hike In Number

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland reportedly will press for earlier deployment of troops already authorized but won't ask for a bigger U.S. troop commitment in South Vietnam, sources say.

These same sources predicted Westmoreland's request will be agreed to today when the U.S. commander in South Vietnam meets with President Johnson at the White House.

Westmoreland's talks with Johnson continue high-level Vietnam conferences begun Wednesday when the President met with Ellsworth Bunker, U.S. ambassador to South Vietnam.

Joining the President and Bunker at luncheon were Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, Chairman Earle G. Wheeler of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, director Richard Helms of the Central Intelligence Agency and special presidential assistant Walt W. Rostow.

After talking with Westmoreland today, Johnson is to meet with Robert Komer, chief of the U.S. pacification effort in South Vietnam.

Bunker reportedly gave Johnson a cautiously optimistic report on American progress in Vietnam and Westmoreland, on his arrival by plane Wednesday from Saigon, told newsmen: "It

Copestick Electrocution Set At Columbus Dec. 15

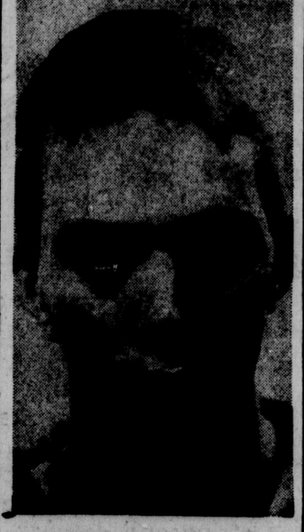

The Ohio Supreme Court at Columbus ordered today that Charles Copestick, 26, formerly of 871 Valley Ave., must die in the electric chair at Ohio Penitentiary Friday, Dec. 15, for the pistol slaying of his pregnant wife, Rebecca May, on June 19, 1966, near East Liverpool.

Copestick has been in "'Death Row" at the penitentiary since November 1966, when a Common Pleas Court jury at Lisbon convicted him of first degree murder without a recommendation of mercy.

Rebecca was shot five times in the head with a .22 caliber target pistol as the couple sat in a parked car near Copestick's family home, the prosecution charged.

The case was argued repeatedly before the Seventh District Court of Appeals and the Ohio Supreme Court after the jury returned its verdict on Nov. 8, 1966. Donald D. Shay and G. William Brokaw, both of East Liverpool, were court-appointed counsel for Copestick.

The district court once set Copestick's execution for Aug. 1, but the date was set aside after defense counsel obtained an order from the Supreme Court to stay execution.

CHARLES COPESTICK
To Die In Wife's Slaying.

The stay was in effect until final determination of the appeal before the Supreme Court.

The execution originally was set for April 12 by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of Common Pleas Court. Then the Court of Appeals ordered a delay in the death of the former pottery wareboy pending its action on an appeal.

Copestick's counsel appealed to the Supreme Court after the district court last May affirmed the judgment of the trial jury.

Copestcik's wife was the former Rebecca May Palfrey of Midland. Testimony showed the couple had been estranged prior to the slaying. The jury was told Copestick took his wife and her young brother to Rock Springs Park at Chester on a Sunday afternoon, then stopped at the St. Clair Shopping Plaza near Calcutta while she made a purchase. The prosecution alleged the slaying took place in Copestick's car, parked on a lonely road in the Valley Ave. vicinity.

Fall Dinner Draws 170

Chamber Speaker Airs Development Procedure

A concentrated, coordinated method of fitting East Liverpool into the growth explosion pattern of the latter part of the 20th Cenury was outlined at the annual fall dinner meeting of the Area Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night.

Some 170 community, business and industrial leaders attended the event at the country club at which Gene Garrison of Columbus, district manager for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, spoke.

Garrison used the theme, "The Businessman's Role in Total Community Development," to describe a proposed broad planning and improvement program for all facets of the city.

He quoted a projection of U.S. expansion which indicated there would be more homes and businesses built and established from now to 1999 than there were in the nation since the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock.

"You should be asking yourselves 'Where does East Liverpool fit in all this?' " he said. "Or, where do you want it to fit in?"

GARRISON described six bases of power in any community. They are people, money, knowledge, organization capacity, communications and prestige. The process of accomplishment with these sources includes initiating action, considering the courses available, deciding which is best and implementing it.

"You will not be able to count on much outside help; you will have to depend upon the local leadership, the local people," he declared," for the work, for the motivation, ideas and capital."

"A community is viewed through many eyes," he went on. "A doctor sees the community differently than a banker, a teacher differently than a laborer, an industrial leader differently than a union official, and so on."

Garrison said in order for a city to establish a cooperative procedure of improvement, ev-

Pilot Plunges 50 Miles To Death In X15 Plane

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — "I'm in a spin.. ..I'm in a spin."

Those words from the calm-voiced pilot of an X15 rocket plane that plunged into the desert from an altitude of more than 50 miles Wednesday left investigators with a mystery.

Air Force Maj. Michael J. Adams went down to his death with the plane. Adams reported control troubles, but officials say that alone wasn't enough to cause the crash.

A National Aeronautics and Space Administration spokesman said Adams may have delayed pulling his ejection mechanism in a last-ditch effort to gain control. That delay may have cost him his life.

Adams may have tried to eject from the craft and been unable to, but the spokesman said there is no indication this happened.

"There was apparently some kind of control malfunction as the pilot attempted to pull out of his descent," a NASA spokesman said.

"Pull it up.. .get some G on it, Mike," ground controllers told Adams seconds before he crashed. "Mike, do you read? Pull it up!"

Adams had reported control problems with the plane's dampers—devices to reduce oscillation as the craft is controlled. Then radar trackers showed he

Rain And Snow Slated With Rise In Mercury

Occasional mixed rain and snow are due tonight in the district on the heels of a rise in the mercury, the weatherman said.

Occasional mixed rain and snow will begin late this afternoon and continue into the night, changing to intermittent rain Friday, the forecaster said. The low tonight will be in the 30's, apparently precluding the possibility the rain will turn to ice.

The mercury took one of its sharpest dips of the season Wednesday night. It hit 10 in the suburbs, with a reading of 19 in the downtown area.

Burglars obtained $1,000 in currency and change and $1,600 in checks Wednesday night or early today when they forced open the safe at the new Davis IGA Foodliner on Carolina Ave., Chester, which opened for business yesterday.

The entry was timed between 11 last night and 7:30 this morning.

Store employes termed the theft a "professional job" as money, stocks and bonds, checks and insurance policies were removed from a safe, which is

Rhodes Decision Due On 'Favorite Son'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes said today he would make a "favorite son" decision about mid-December.

Rhodes, who headed the Ohio delegation to the 1964 Republican National Convention in that role, indicated he would accept it again.

"We will give it serious consideration," Rhodes told a news conference attended by members of his cabinet and top aides.

Rig Hurts Boy At Wellsville

Condition Of Child Termed 'Guarded'

A 6-year-old Wellsville boy who apparently walked in front of a tractor-trailer rig Wednesday was in "'guarded" condition today at City Hospital.

Mike Beadnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Beadnell of 1600 Commerce St., suffered a cerebral concussion and a possible fractured pelvis or hip and is responding slowly, the hospital said. The accident occurred on 17th St. about 11:40 a. m.

Wellsville police said a witness reported the youngster stepped off the curb into the path of the truck. The driver, Olen Burkey, 46, of Bellefonte, Pa., told police his rig was moving approximately 10 miles an hour.

The driver said he heard a thumping noise and believed at first that a tarpaulin had blown off his truck. He said he checked in the rear-view mirrors of the rig, stopping in about 30 feet.

Police said the bumper of the truck is about 30 inches above ground level. They theorized the boy walked into the bumper.

GOP Cuts Measure By $460 Million

$1.6 Billion Antipoverty Bill Approved By House

WASHINGTON (AP) — An antipoverty bill cut by $460 million has cleared the House and both the budget-cutters and administration supporters claim a victory.

Republicans succeeded in cutting the money total well below President Johnson's request but the pared-down version—with all its controversial programs intact—then sailed through 283 to 129, the biggest margin in its three-year history.

As it passed the House Wednesday night after a long, frequently raucous session, the bill would extend the Office of Economic Opportunity's programs for one year at an authorized spending level of $1.6 billion.

That's the amount the OEO had last year. Johnson had asked for $2.06 billion to expand the antipoverty program this year.

The Senate has already authorized $2.25 billion and a compromise agreement will now have to be worked out.

After three frustrating days in which they were defeated on every major attempt to cut funds and revise the program, the Republicans scored on their final thrust just before passage.

Their motion to cut back to $1.6 billion was approved 221 to 190, with 148 Republicans and 73

Shotgun Blast Hurts Hunter

Alliance Area Man Hit In Both Legs

LISBON — A shotgun discharged accidentally Wednesday afternoon — first day of hunting season — and wounded a Knox Township hunter in both legs. It was the only hunting accident reported in Columbiana County.

Wilfred (Bud) Beaver, 38, of Alliance RD 5, is in "fair" condition at Alliance City Hospital after undergoing surgery last night. Hospital personnel said more surgery will be necessary.

Sheriff's Deputy Robert Wellington, who investigated, said the blast hit Beaver in the calves of both legs from a distance of three or four feet.

The deputy said Jerry Eckman, 18, of Beloit RD 2, Beaver's hunting companion, told him his gun went off accident-

Icy Pavement Blamed After 2-Way Crash

At least one of four accidents reported in the city Wednesday and early today was blamed on slippery streets resulting from Tuesday night's snowfall.

Police said two cars collided on Hill Blvd. near Harding Ave. last night at 6:58.

Willard Boley, 37, of Bloomfield Rd. turned from Harding Ave. east onto Hill Blvd., lost control when the auto skided on ice and struck a second vehicle operated by Dewayne R. Glasure, 28, of Macrum St.

A report filed at police headquarters this morning told of an accident on Pennsylvania Ave. involving a parked auto and another car whose owner was not identified immediately.

William L. Thornton of 416 Johnson Pl., told police he parked his car on Pennsylvania Ave. about 10:10 p.m. Wednesday and discovered it had been struck by another vehicle when he returned to it about 7 a.m. today. Thornton said it may have been hit by an auto which was parked nearby this morning.

Two tractor-trailer rigs were damaged slightly Wednesday afternoon when they collided on the River Rd. at the State St. underpass.

Joseph B. Schneider, 49, a driver for Matlack Co. of Lansdowne, Pa., told authorities he was watching the rear-view mirror of his cab to ensure his trailer would clear the underpass when the left front of his tractor struck another trailer, part of a rig driven by John F. Jack, 53, of 559 Campground Rd., operating for the Ohio Power Co. here.

The fourth accident occurred Wednesday at Oakwood Ave. and Dorothy St.

Police reported Ruth Leona Drum, 42, of 617 Northside Ave. was headed north on Oakwood. When she saw a city bus proceeding in the opposite direction, she reportedly speeded up to get out of the way. At the same time, an auto operated by Ella Mae Mitchell, 50, of Lisbon RD 1, was headed south and had to swing left to avoid hitting a telephone pole.

The Mitchell woman said she saw the Drum auto but was unable to hit her brakes hard for fear of sliding on the pavement.

Book Details Cancer Facts

LISBON — A new paperback book, "The Truth About Cancer," is "the best possible guide anyone can have in protecting himself from dying of cancer," according to Dr. William Kolozsi of Salem, medical adviser of the American Cancer Society's Columbiana County Unit.

He said the book is reasonably priced and the public will be able to buy it at book stores, news stands and transportation terminals.

The county unit donated copies to all high schools in the county, the County Health Department office and the county school office.

Dr. Charles S. Cameron, the author, is president of Hahnemann Medical College in Philadelphia. He prepared the material 12 years ago when he was medical and scientific director of the American Cancer Society.

Dr. Kolozsi said the book is the "definitive work in the diagnosis and treatment of cancer from the layman's point of view." He said it presents many life - saving facts often overlooked by the public:

Cancer is the only major disease in which the individual alone influences the outcome to so great a degree; of all the leading causes of death, cancer is the most curable; ignorance of cancer is more deadly than cancer itself.

King Solomon's copper mines at the southern tip of Israel were reopened in 1959, after nearly 3,000 years of inactivity.

him: "They're shooting at the President from the bushes." A patrolman found a man there who flashed a Secret Service badge but later investigation disclosed no Secret Service man was actually in the area.

Dr. Thompson's article also points out that the persons closest to the Presidential limousine that day gave implicit and explicit support to the film findings that a bullet struck Mr. Kennedy from the right front. One, Motorcycle Officer Bobby Hargis, was so certain the head shot came from the right front he led the chase up the grassy knoll in search of the killer.

Another witness, S. M. Holland, who viewed the shooting from the railroad viaduct over the triple underpass ahead of the motorcade, told Dr. Thompson:

"The third and fourth bullets hit the President. . .in the head."

DR. THOMPSON says that additional evidence casts doubt on whether Lee Harvey Oswald was the one who fired his rifle that day from the Depository Building. He says there are indications two men were together on the sixth floor of the depository at the time the shots were fired. "The question of Oswald's guilt," Mr. Thompson states, "must remain—four years after the event—still unanswered."

In a signed statement in the magazine, Post Editor Emerson says: "With painstaking care and formidable logic, Thompson demolishes the Warren Report. It is not easy to get back into this horrible business, but we must do it."

The Post editorial notes that almost a year ago the magazine urged official re-opening of the investigation. The full-page editorial also recalls that other magazines and any number of independent observers have come to the same conclusion. But, the editorial says, "the results have been virtually nil. It is astonishing, really, that charges of such gravity should produce so little effect."

"One returns inevitably," the magazine says, "to those clinical details, those bits of evidence that seem to have been systematically misread or misinterpreted. For as Thompson analyzes and arrays them, they cry out for the truth to be told and the murderers to be punished."

Thompson said his "new evidence does not prove that the assassination was a conspiracy. Nor does it prove Oswald's innocence. It shows that the question of Oswald's guilt must remain—four years after the event—still unanswered."

Commenting on the Thompson thesis Wednesday, Gov. Connally disputed the fourth shot theory. "I still contend there were three shots fired. I don't believe there was more than one assassin," he said.

In part, Thompson based his conclusions on a study of an amateur movie filmed during the assassination by Abraham Zapruder, a spectator. The film was also central to the Warren Commission findings.

Thompson draws his theory of three assassins from interpretation of the facts of timing of the frames of the Zapruder film, but he does not speculate on who the gunmen were.

ally as he hit the barrel with his hand to dislodge some snow in the end of it.

The accident happened in a field within sight of the home of Mrs. Kay Sonagere on Georgetown - Damascus Rd. about three miles southwest of Damascus.

She said she heard a shot, then shouting, and looked out to see a young man running toward the house. Young Eckman asked her to call a doctor but they were unable to locate one. A physician's wife recommended that the injured man be taken to the hospital.

The eight - party line was busy when Eckman tried to call his home so he ran across the fields — about a mile — to get his father, Wayne. They returned in a pickup truck and took Beaver to the emergency room at the hospital.

Wellington said Beaver is a self - employed carpenter and has a wife and several children.

Red Cross Project

'Voices From Home' Set To Aid Military Families

The "Voices from Home" program will be sponsored again this Christmas season by the Area Red Cross Chapter in cooperation with Don Eckert's Camera Mart, radio station WOHI and the Camera Club of East Liverpool, according to Charles B. Lang, chairman of the local Red Cross chapter.

Lang said letters have been sent to industries and business concerns asking that their employees be informed about the program. Announcements have also been sent to individuals known to have servicemen overseas.

Lang explained that this is an annual program of the chapter which enables families of servicemen who will not be able to get home for Christmas, to make tape recordings so that they can send a "talking" greeting to their men in the military. The Camera club has agreed to take the family's picture to be enclosed in the envelope with the tape for the serviceman.

Thirty - five families took advantage of this program last year Lang stated, and it is hoped that more families will send taped greetings to their servicemen this year. Appointments for the recordings can only be made through the Red Cross chapter, and anyone wishing to send such a greeting should call the chapter office, 386-4144. Recordings can be made between Nov. 27 and Dec. 13.

had regained control—but only for a very few seconds.

The NASA spokesman said there could be "any number of reasons" why Adams failed to eject after he lost control of the X15 the second time. "He could have blacked out.. .maybe the Gs (the powerful force, several times that of gravity, caused by change in speed or direction) got to him."

The problem with the dampers could have recurred, he said, "but that alone wouldn't have been enough to cause the crash. There had to be something else, perhaps a major malfunction, perhaps not."

After flights investigating maneuverability in space X15s descend from high altitude on a glide path about 30 degrees below horizontal. The stubby ships come down pancake style as they enter denser atmosphere, where the pilot switches from automatic to manual control.

Adams' ship, one of three, crashed in the Mojave Desert north of Edwards AFB near the mining town of Johannesburg.

Adams, who lived at the base with his wife and three children, was on his 11th flight. The craft was dropped from the belly of a B52 at 10:30 a.m. and shot to about 265,000 feet on a routine research flight.

The X15 burns its 10 tons of fuel in about 85 seconds as it accelerates. Then the ship noses over and begins the long dive to earth.

As it enters denser atmosphere the pilot begins to pull the craft out of its dive and begins a glide to a landing. This is where Adams ran into trouble.

A NASA-Air Force board has been appointed to investigate the crash.

Democrats, mostly from the South, supporting it. Opposing the slash were 162 Democrats and 28 Republicans.

On final passage, 186 Democrats and 97 Republicans voted for the bill and 50 Democrats and 79 Republicans against it. The entire top leadership of the Republican party either voted or was paired against the bill.

The bill's supporters shrugged off the cut in funds as a small price to pay for keeping alive a program that at one time appeared doomed.

The coaltion of Republicans and Southern Democrats that rewrote major administration education and crime control bills earlier in the year had made a complete revision of the antipoverty program its main goal.

When the summer's riots soured many former supporters of the program the House leadership laid the bill aside and even considered dropping it for this year to keep it from beng chewed up.

Entrance was gained through a rear door. The theft was discovered this morning at 7:30 by James Nicholson, manager of the meat department.

Police Chief Audley Campbell investigated with assistance from the Hancock County Sheriff's office.

He said $40 in rare money and a $120 camera also were stolen.

ing little damage, but U.S. officers reported the earlier shelling at the battleground in the central highlands Wednesday destroyed 1,100 tons of ammunition, 60,000 gallons of aircraft fuel and $5 million worth of planes.

The U.S. Command in its weekly summary of casualties announced that the number of Americans killed or wounded last week was almost the same as the week before, the number of enemy killed dropped more than 500, and South Vietnamese losses increased sharply.

The command said 177 Americans were killed, 761 wounded and 28 were missing or captured, compared with 178 killed, 793 wounded and no missing reported the week before. Enemy dead dropped from 2,354 to 1,802, while reported South Vietnamese losses were 279 killed, 810 wounded and 91 missing, compared with 160 killed, 533 wounded and 60 missing the week before.

The U.S. Command also announced that the number of American troops in Vietnam reached 470,000 by last Saturday, only 2,800 less than the peak U.S. strength in the Korean War in 1953. Arrivals since Saturday may have brought the total to the Korean War maximum or greater.

U.S. officials have announced that American troops strength will be increased to 525,000 by early next year, and reports from Washington indicate that arrivals may be speeded up in the next few weeks.

U.S. pilots flew 110 missions against North Vietnam Wednesday and used radar controls for night raids on two airfields—at Hoa Lac, 20 miles west of Hanoi, and at Kep, 38 miles northwest of the Red capital.

Both fields had been raided repeatedly before, but the attacks Wednesday by U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs were the first in more than two weeks. Pilots were unable to report the damage because of the darkness.

Troops of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division were hardest hit in the Red ground attacks Wednesday.

The enemy opened up with small arms and automatic weapons on two companies that had just landed near Saigon from helicopters, killing 14 Americans and wounding 13. U.S. headquarters said six Communists were killed.

More than 100 mortar and recoilless rifle rounds landed on the division's headquarters camp 18 miles northeast of Saigon and a nearby South Vietnamese military training center. Five Americans were reported killed and 27 wounded.

The Army said that Viet Cong firing positions were spotted from the southeast corner of the base camp, and heavy mortar fire was returned.

Dak To in the central highlands area, scene of the heaviest fighting in the last two weeks, was relatively quiet. One U.S. battalion operating near a strategic hill ran into heavy sniper fire late this afternoon, pulled back and called in fighter-bombers to pound the Communist positions.

Maj. Gen. William R. Peers of Stuart, Iowa, commander of the 4th Infantry Division forward base camp at Dak To, told AP correspondent Peter Arnett it appeared the enemy was withdrawing, but "there could be more major contact because some of the enemy units are near our firebases."

U.S. intelligence indicates there are up to four North Vietnamese infantry regiments—perhaps 6,000 to 8,000 men—in the jungled peaks around Dak To, which is only 20 miles away from key infiltration and withdrawal routes through Cambodia and Laos.

is very, very encouraging. I have never been more encouraged in my four years in Vietnam."

Military progress by U.S. and South Vietnamese forces was reportedly behind Westmoreland's request that authorized troop levels be reached more quickly than now scheduled.

There now are about 468,000 American fighting men in Vietnam and Johnson earlier this year authorized boosting the total by 57,000 troops to 525,000 by next July 1.

But Westmoreland is said to feel that the extra troops should be deployed faster to allow him to keep maximum military pressure on the enemy, in the belief both the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong are reeling from recent defeats.

Pentagon officials are said to be in agreement with Westmoreland and tacit White House approval also is reported in advance of his meeting with Johnson.

Although a speedup in the authorized troop buildup is likely, sources said, they emphasized Westmoreland is not expected to seek additional troops above the 525,000-man level.

Both Bunker and Westmoreland spoke out against any prolonged pause in U.S. bombing of North Vietnam.

Bunker told newsmen, after meeting privately for two hours with a House Foreign Affairs subcommittee, that he felt it would be "very unfortunate" to suspend the bombing for very long. In line with a long standing administration position, he said a longer pause might be considered if the North Vietnamese indicate interest in peace talks.

Westmoreland told newsmen, "We can live with" short bombing halts, but "I'm not very happy about the prospect."

President Nguyen Van Thieu of South Vietam has said he wants a bombing halt during the year-end holiday period.

Thompson Claims 3 Assassinated JFK

ASSASSINATION PROBER. Dr. Josiah (Tink) Thompson, former East Liverpool resident, sits at his desk at Haverford, Pa., with notes and pictures used in writing his book, "Six Seconds In Dallas," which seeks to prove three men were involved in the slaying of President John Kennedy instead of just one as the Warren Commission reported. (UPI Telephoto)

★ ★ ★ Study Results Revealed ★ ★ ★

Details of an investigation of the assassination of President John Kennedy by a former East Liverpool man, indicating he was hit by a bullet from the front by another assassin, are revealed in a magazine article to be published Tuesday.

The study by Dr. Josiah Thompson, Haverford College professor and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Thompson of Park Blvd., is in the Dec. 2 Saturday Evening Post issue.

A microscopic investigation of the films of the Dallas slaying shows two separate bullets hit the President in the head—one from the rear, the other from the front—Dr. Thompson writes.

The report says three assassins fired four bullets from three locations, and none of them missed—one bullet struck Mr. Kennedy in the back.

IN A PERSONAL statement and in an editorial, William Emerson Jr., Post editor, urges a new probe of the killing. He writes, "I think we remain dishonored until we solve the murder of our President."

Dr. Thompson, 32, known as "Tink" to friends here, attended East Liverpool High School, later did preparatory work at Andover Academy and earned his master's and doctor of philosophy degree at Yale University.

In his report, Dr. Thompson says his microscopic examinations of the assassination films and precise measurements of Kennedy's head movements show "A virtually simultaneous double impact on the President's head."

Dr. Thompson says his examination of brighter, clearer copies of the films than the FBI or Warren Commission had, also reveals "indisputable photographic evidence" that Texas Gov. John Connally could not have been wounded by the same bullet which struck President Kennedy. This new evidence, according to Dr. Thompson, "shatters both the 'single bullet' theory and its offspring the 'delayed reaction' theory used in an attempt to explain Governor Connally's wounds."

The study, which climaxes a two - year investigation, concludes:

THE FIRST SHOT, which struck President Kennedy in the back, was fired from the Texas School Book Depository Building;

The second shot, which wounded Governor Connally ¾ to 1½ seconds later, was fired from the east side of Dealey Plaza, probably from the rooftop of the Dallas County Records Building, diagonally across the corner (of Houston and Elm streets) from the Depository.

The third shot, fired about four seconds after the Connally shot, also came from the Depository building and struck the President in the rear of the head.

The fourth and final shot, which struck Mr. Kennedy in the right front of the head an eighteenth of a second after the third bullet, "was fired from near the corner of the stockade fence" atop the grassy knoll of the north of Elm street, at a range of about 40 yards and probably from a long-barrelled pistol.

Prof. Thompson's study backs up his film examination discoveries with medical reports, mathematical calculations of bullet trajectories and angles, eyewitness, ear witness and even nose - witness testimony, plus physical evidence including an analysis of the dispersion of the President's brain tissue.

IN ADDITION to his film analysis and review of medical evidence showing the front shot to President Kennedy's head, Dr. Thompson says a survey of testimony of witnesses showed at least seven persons saw a puff of smoke from the stockade fence atop the grassy knoll.

Dozens of persons raced there, including a policeman who smelled gunsmoke. A Dallas patrolman said a woman told

U.S. Planes Hit Targets In Haiphong

Boat Construction And Repair Yard Bombed First Time

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Navy planes bombed a boat construction and repair yard close to the center of Haiphong and only 1.7 miles from the international docks today for the first time in the Vietnam war.

A U.S. spokesman said A4 Skyhawks from the carrier Coral Sea struck at noon at the "Haiphong Shipyard No 2," only one mile west of the geographical center of the city.

Three similar boatyards farther away from the city's center were hit in raids last month.

Left untouched were Haiphong's vital unloading piers and docks where an attack on a Soviet ship might bring Soviet-American relations to a crisis point.

The U.S. spokesman said the boatyard hit today was on a small river called the Tram Bac. The yard previously had been on the Pentagon's list of off-limits targets.

There was no immediate word on the extent of damage.

In the ground war in South Vietnam, Communist forces generally avoided a close combat but made three mortar and gunfire attacks which killed 26 Americans and wounded 53.

Red mortars also hit the forward base camp at Dak To for the fifth time in 24 hours, caus-

Earlier Deployment Of Forces Seen But No Hike In Number

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland reportedly will press for earlier deployment of troops already authorized but won't ask for a bigger U.S. troop commitment in South Vietnam, sources say.

These same sources predicted Westmoreland's request will be agreed to today when the U.S. commander in South Vietnam meets with President Johnson at the White House.

Westmoreland's talks with Johnson continue high-level Vietnam conferences begun Wednesday when the President met with Ellsworth Bunker, U.S. ambassador to South Vietnam.

Joining the President and Bunker at luncheon were Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, Chairman Earle G. Wheeler of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, director Richard Helms of the Central Intelligence Agency and special presidential assistant Walt W. Rostow.

After talking with Westmoreland today, Johnson is to meet with Robert Komer, chief of the U.S. pacification effort in South Vietnam.

Bunker reportedly gave Johnson a cautiously optimistic report on American progress in Vietnam and Westmoreland, on his arrival by plane Wednesday from Saigon, told newsmen: "It

Copestick Electrocution Set At Columbus Dec. 15

The Ohio Supreme Court at Columbus ordered today that Charles Copestick, 26, formerly of 871 Valley Ave., must die in the electric chair at Ohio Penitentiary Friday, Dec. 15, for the pistol slaying of his pregnant wife, Rebecca May, on June 19, 1966, near East Liverpool.

Copestick has been in "'Death Row" at the penitentiary since November 1966, when a Common Pleas Court jury at Lisbon convicted him of first degree murder without a recommendation of mercy.

Rebecca was shot five times in the head with a .22 caliber target pistol as the couple sat in a parked car near Copestick's family home, the prosecution charged.

The case was argued repeatedly before the Seventh District Court of Appeals and the Ohio Supreme Court after the jury returned its verdict on Nov. 8, 1966. Donald D. Shay and G. William Brokaw, both of East Liverpool, were court-appointed counsel for Copestick.

The district court once set Copestick's execution for Aug. 1, but the date was set aside after defense counsel obtained an order from the Supreme Court to stay execution.

CHARLES COPESTICK
To Die In Wife's Slaying.

The stay was in effect until final determination of the appeal before the Supreme Court.

The execution originally was set for April 12 by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of Common Pleas Court. Then the Court of Appeals ordered a delay in the death of the former pottery wareboy pending its action on an appeal.

Copestick's counsel appealed to the Supreme Court after the district court last May affirmed the judgment of the trial jury.

Copestcik's wife was the former Rebecca May Palfrey of Midland. Testimony showed the couple had been estranged prior to the slaying. The jury was told Copestick took his wife and her young brother to Rock Springs Park at Chester on a Sunday afternoon, then stopped at the St. Clair Shopping Plaza near Calcutta while she made a purchase. The prosecution alleged the slaying took place in Copestick's car, parked on a lonely road in the Valley Ave. vicinity.

Fall Dinner Draws 170

Chamber Speaker Airs Development Procedure

A concentrated, coordinated method of fitting East Liverpool into the growth explosion pattern of the latter part of the 20th Cenury was outlined at the annual fall dinner meeting of the Area Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night.

Some 170 community, business and industrial leaders attended the event at the country club at which Gene Garrison of Columbus, district manager for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, spoke.

Garrison used the theme, "The Businessman's Role in Total Community Development," to describe a proposed broad planning and improvement program for all facets of the city.

He quoted a projection of U.S. expansion which indicated there would be more homes and businesses built and established from now to 1999 than there were in the nation since the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock.

"You should be asking yourselves 'Where does East Liverpool fit in all this?' " he said. "Or, where do you want it to fit in?"

GARRISON described six bases of power in any community. They are people, money, knowledge, organization capacity, communications and prestige. The process of accomplishment with these sources includes initiating action, considering the courses available, deciding which is best and implementing it.

"You will not be able to count on much outside help; you will have to depend upon the local leadership, the local people," he declared," for the work, for the motivation, ideas and capital."

"A community is viewed through many eyes," he went on. "A doctor sees the community differently than a banker, a teacher differently than a laborer, an industrial leader differently than a union official, and so on."

Garrison said in order for a city to establish a cooperative procedure of improvement, ev-

Pilot Plunges 50 Miles To Death In X15 Plane

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — "I'm in a spin.. ..I'm in a spin."

Those words from the calm-voiced pilot of an X15 rocket plane that plunged into the desert from an altitude of more than 50 miles Wednesday left investigators with a mystery.

Air Force Maj. Michael J. Adams went down to his death with the plane. Adams reported control troubles, but officials say that alone wasn't enough to cause the crash.

A National Aeronautics and Space Administration spokesman said Adams may have delayed pulling his ejection mechanism in a last-ditch effort to gain control. That delay may have cost him his life.

Adams may have tried to eject from the craft and been unable to, but the spokesman said there is no indication this happened.

"There was apparently some kind of control malfunction as the pilot attempted to pull out of his descent," a NASA spokesman said.

"Pull it up.. .get some G on it, Mike," ground controllers told Adams seconds before he crashed. "Mike, do you read? Pull it up!"

Adams had reported control problems with the plane's dampers—devices to reduce oscillation as the craft is controlled. Then radar trackers showed he

Rain And Snow Slated With Rise In Mercury

Occasional mixed rain and snow are due tonight in the district on the heels of a rise in the mercury, the weatherman said.

Occasional mixed rain and snow will begin late this afternoon and continue into the night, changing to intermittent rain Friday, the forecaster said. The low tonight will be in the 30's, apparently precluding the possibility the rain will turn to ice.

The mercury took one of its sharpest dips of the season Wednesday night. It hit 10 in the suburbs, with a reading of 19 in the downtown area.

Rhodes Decision Due On 'Favorite Son'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes said today he would make a "favorite son" decision about mid-December.

Rhodes, who headed the Ohio delegation to the 1964 Republican National Convention in that role, indicated he would accept it again.

"We will give it serious consideration," Rhodes told a news conference attended by members of his cabinet and top aides.

Condition Of Child Termed 'Guarded'

A 6-year-old Wellsville boy who apparently walked in front of a tractor-trailer rig Wednesday was in "'guarded" condition today at City Hospital.

Mike Beadnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Beadnell of 1600 Commerce St., suffered a cerebral concussion and a possible fractured pelvis or hip and is responding slowly, the hospital said. The accident occurred on 17th St. about 11:40 a. m.

Wellsville police said a witness reported the youngster stepped off the curb into the path of the truck. The driver, Olen Burkey, 46, of Bellefonte, Pa., told police his rig was moving approximately 10 miles an hour.

The driver said he heard a thumping noise and believed at first that a tarpaulin had blown off his truck. He said he checked in the rear-view mirrors of the rig, stopping in about 30 feet.

Police said the bumper of the truck is about 30 inches above ground level. They theorized the boy walked into the bumper.

GOP Cuts Measure By $460 Million

$1.6 Billion Antipoverty Bill Approved By House

WASHINGTON (AP) — An antipoverty bill cut by $460 million has cleared the House and both the budget-cutters and administration supporters claim a victory.

Republicans succeeded in cutting the money total well below President Johnson's request but the pared-down version—with all its controversial programs intact—then sailed through 283 to 129, the biggest margin in its three-year history.

As it passed the House Wednesday night after a long, frequently raucous session, the bill would extend the Office of Economic Opportunity's programs for one year at an authorized spending level of $1.6 billion.

That's the amount the OEO had last year. Johnson had asked for $2.06 billion to expand the antipoverty program this year.

The Senate has already authorized $2.25 billion and a compromise agreement will now have to be worked out.

After three frustrating days in which they were defeated on every major attempt to cut funds and revise the program, the Republicans scored on their final thrust just before passage.

Their motion to cut back to $1.6 billion was approved 221 to 190, with 148 Republicans and 73

Shotgun Blast Hurts Hunter

Alliance Area Man Hit In Both Legs

LISBON — A shotgun discharged accidentally Wednesday afternoon — first day of hunting season — and wounded a Knox Township hunter in both legs. It was the only hunting accident reported in Columbiana County.

Wilfred (Bud) Beaver, 38, of Alliance RD 5, is in "fair" condition at Alliance City Hospital after undergoing surgery last night. Hospital personnel said more surgery will be necessary.

Sheriff's Deputy Robert Wellington, who investigated, said the blast hit Beaver in the calves of both legs from a distance of three or four feet.

The deputy said Jerry Eckman, 18, of Beloit RD 2, Beaver's hunting companion, told him his gun went off accident-

A Workable Solution

It is difficult for many of us to realize the spectacular growth of this nation in the past 20 years, despite the facts and figures which are shunted our way daily.

It is even harder to anticipate the accelerating expansion which is expected in the next two decades alone, and to relate it to the East Liverpool area which has shown no little development itself in recent years.

But it is not difficult to understand some of the problems which have restricted the growth rate here compared to other parts of the United States. And it was at some of these problems attention was directed by Gene Garrison, Chamber of Commerce official, at Wednesday night's dinner meeting of the Area Chamber of Commerce.

Organizing leadership, involving all the people, setting priorities and acting on assigned projects was his basic proposal for any community interested in fitting itself into the pattern of national progress.

This is not a new procedure proposal, and some of the planning and priority aspects of his thinking have already been undertaken in the master plan and by the city planning commission which also involved a great deal of people throughout the community.

But there is a continuing need for greater unity of leadership, greater coordination of effort, broader involvement with neighborhoods and individual citizens.

Using the master plan as a base, city officials, the Chamber, service and civic groups, professional organizations, women's clubs, lodges and social groups could embark on a really energetic "Operation Bootstrap" which could put the city and townships into economic and cultural high gear.

Mr. Garrison is one of many who have shown us the potential and a means of fulfilling it with the emphasis on the responsibility at the local levels. He has offered a workable solution, and from the interest shown, it could well be the time to put it to work.

The Lesson At Lisbon

The manslaughter trial which ended at Lisbon Tuesday with the conviction of an 18-year-old city youth provided some provoking thoughts for everyone in our community.

Only the jury in the trial of the youth, in whose car Jerry Canne, 17, of East Liverpool was killed following a senior class party near Grimms Bridge last spring, could properly render a verdict on the legal charge.

But the trial indicates the degree of tolerance for the beer drinking, irresponsible behaviour, carelessness, rowdyism and foolishness for this annual class blowout over the years.

Students themselves should be aware of the dangers involved, physical and moral hazards to which young people suddenly become exposed in an atmosphere of gay and uninhibited release from school and parents.

This has been an organized rite of spring for which many girls and boys are not yet prepared, and it behooves the whole community, the schools, law enforcement officers, churches and especially especially the seniors themselves to recognize their responsibility in this matter, so that there are no more such "parties" to result in death, further sorrow, continued scars in the years to come.

There were many mothers, fathers, policemen, teachers, ministers and students themselves unaware of this tradition; others knew of it but had no real understanding of what went on. Too many realized what it was and what it could lead to.

Now, everyone knows — too late to erase the sad tale told at Lisbon these past two weeks, but not too late to do something about it for the future.

Searching For The Truth

A pulpit allegation by Rev. Cotesworth Pinckney Lewis of Williamsburg, Va., last Sunday that the administration of President Johnson, who was in the congregation, was ducking the truth about Vietnam should be followed up by all of us in our thoughts.

This is one of those rare moments for discovering how difficult it is to reach the truth, when the truth is defined by more than one truth-seeker.

There is the truth about Vietnam as defined by militarists on the scene. They say the United States is doing fine and will defeat the enemy.

The truth as defined by skeptics, on the other hand, includes the fact military victory is not what it is in doubt in Vietnam. Skeptics think military victory would be won at such a fearful cost in life and property that the net result would be defeat — a Pyrrhic victory.

The truth as seen by historians is colored by their conviction that the United States has aped the French, Dutch, Germans, Belgians and British by trying to force its will on Asiatics who regard Americans as just one more doctrinaire preachments. They ascribe U.S. in bunch of foreign devils.

Ideologists see the truth through a filter of tervention in Southeast Asia to insistence by the late John Foster Dulles on "containing" Communism wherever it appears. As they see the truth, the United States is carrying on a worldwide crusade against an evil not regarded as evil by its proponents and, as in Vietnam, by local patriots.

There is the truth about Vietnam as geo-politicians see it, as many retired militarists see it, as draft-age militarists see it, as 150 per cent patriots see it, as foreign chancellories see it — as Rev. Cotesworth Pinckney Lewis sees it, as President Lyndon Baines Johnson sees it. Each person, each faction, each nation must be credited with looking for the truth and finding the truth each was looking for.

The one truth not being found because so far only a handful of truth-seekers have tried to find it concerns a matter of opinion.

Was the United States well-advised committing itself to a land war on terrain as tough as South Vietnam?

On this single point, the truth must be admitted by all. If the United States had to make the same decision again, knowing what it knows now, it would not choose South Vietnam as a battlefield in its crusade against Communism. Aside from that, truth-seeking is open

TRUMAN TWILL

Purely Personal Observations

If I lived in Cleveland, it would be a privilege to help the newly elected mayor up there try to do what his predecessor had quit trying to do; namely, make tens of thousands of people discover a reason for being enthusiastic about the municipal leadership in Cleveland.

When I see the elaborate trappings for election coverage by TV, I recall when newspapers were the primary source of post-election information and had to do the same thing, except no one cared what newspaper trappings looked like because no one then could see what was backstage.

If we can remain patient long enough, oh distraught fellow citizens, it no longer will be news when people parade with placards and sit down to protest something they don't like. News is something unusual. Picketing and rioting have turned into the usual.

I will give 10-1 that many voters now living will still be around when all voting is done electronically, with official results available a few minutes after the polls close. It figures to be that way in an electronic era.

The hardest thing I have had to do routinely in years of newspapering is explain to people why their "poems" are not going to be published. The truth is, sir or madam as the case may be, too unpleasant to be discussed.

To improve on a classic saying, I will defend to the death your right to say it and my right to gag when you do.

If it's a good idea to think twice and keep your mouth shut, it's a better idea to listen twice and keep your mind open when brainwashers are at work.

The Anti-Pornographers

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Newsweek magazine has just done a cover story on the "Permissive Society." The article, illustrated with a nude Jane Fonda, deals with the great strides that have been made in the last few years with respect to sex in films, songs, fashions and, of course, books.

Art Buchwald

Since you can't shock Americans any more with sex, a new school of writing is now in the making and I interviewed its leader, Malcolm McMoral. He is the author of the first antipornographic novel, "A Kiss on the Cheek."

"Malcolm, I have read your book from cover to cover and didn't find one obscene word. Did you have a reason for eliminating all the dirty words or were you just trying to shock your readers?"

"Some reviewers have accused me of the latter, but the truth of the matter is my characters had no reason to curse and, therefore, I had no reason to put obscene words in their mouths."

"Malcolm, in your book the title 'A Kiss on the Cheek' is apparently taken from a scene on page 157 where the mother kisses her 8-year-old son on the cheek. This is the only kiss in the book. Why?"

"EVERY WRITER has to deal with life, and that kiss was necessary for the development of the story. I didn't just throw it in for the heck of it."

"I'm not criticizing you for putting the kiss in. I'm criticizing you because there is absolutely no sex in the book at all. Do you think it's fair for people to pay $5.95 and not have at least one really hot love scene somewhere in your novel?"

"All I can do is refer you to the Supreme Court decision of 1943 which says that you can publish a book without a love scene in it, providing it has some social value."

"So you justify your lack of love scenes in the book on the grounds that it has social value?"

"Yes. Some dirty-minded people have accused me of writing a clean book for money. Well, I say, who is to judge whether a book is clean or not? Sure, there are clean passages in it, but you have to have those if you're going to deal with reality."

"IN YOUR BOOK the husband doesn't even commit adultery. Don't you think that's going a bit far?"

"Not in the context of the story. If you take it out of context, certainly it might sound that way. But the husband happens to be in love with his wife and that's why people have said it's a clean book. There are a lot of cleaner books in drugstores now, so I don't know why my book should have been singled out."

"Yet your novel seems to be some sort of a breakthrough, and there is fear that other writers might start copying you, particularly if you prove there's money to be made in writing a clean book."

"That's not my problem. If I didn't do it, somebody else would have. Society is changing all the time. It's true that the clean novel is considered avant-garde at the moment, but that doesn't mean it's wrong. Someday there will be so many clean books on the market that no one will be shocked any more.

'These Are Ugly People'

By Bruce Boissat

Many young Ameicans scorn their elders, on the ground that much of their behavior is immoral and base.

They believe the selves to be idealistic and highly moral in their outlook and conduct.

Among the more militant anti-adult, anti-establishment young people, evidence for this is hard to come by.

Mostly in antiwar and other protest movements, but also in more average pursuits, their behavior is self-degrading and contemptuous of others.

The harsh but true thing to say about many of them is that they are ugly people.

They are ugly in their profane speech, in their tendency to personal filth, in their rediness to lie, cheat and steal, in their disdain for moral precepts in interpersonal behavior.

If they do not fall into these patterns, they are nevertheless ugly in their arrogant assertion that violent assault upon or resistance to the law is "dissent," and that any attempt to answer dissent is an effort to suppress it.

The young who fit this description are not "democrats" in a free society but low-grade autocrats with a totalitarian insistence upon their own narrow, disjoined vision of life, to the exclusion of all other views.

There is in all this a complete rejection of human decency and dignity.

It can hardly be argued successfully that the route to idealistic goals and strong moral imperatives is this twisting low road. Men, young or old, do not improve society by imitating the errors they complain of.

In the present instance, the performance of misguided young militants goes beyond imitation to gross exaggerations of their elders' sins.

Much of this degrading behavior has nothing to do with pursuit of high ideals and morals. The young "dropouts from decency" simply are using adult shortcomings as excuse for misbehavior they would rationalize in some other way if they had to.

This does not mean there is no genuine cause for disillusionment at the performance of modern adult society. Any civilization which finds itself stumbling into war again and again, which looks upon the extermination of millions of Jews, which offers only thin hope to millions suffering poverty and discrimination is bound to shake popular confidence profoundly.

The self-confidence of adults today is rudely shattered. If so many did not themselves have to much self-doubt, they would not be so hesitant about applying stricter standards to the misguided young.

Adult tolerance of youthful self-degradation has nothing in it that is modern, progressive or partaking of "new freedom." What it has to do with is the adults' own confusion., their own disillusionment, their failure to find a new upward path.

Society has always relied upon its young people for fresh infusions of idealism. This country and all nations never needed it more.

But it will not be provided in sufficient flood so long as aggressive young militants dissipate their energy in orgies of self-hate.

Men who respect nothing, not even themselves, will not be listened to when they attack the failings of others.

This 'N That

The question as to which is the speedier mode of travel, roller skates or ice skates, depends mainly on the distance traveled. For fairly short distances, up to one mile, ice skates are faster. For longer distances, such as two miles or five miles, roller skates are faster because they require less stamina to maintain speed.

Malta, the island lying between Europe and Africa in the central channel linking the eastern and western Mediterranean, has the principal importance of being a strategic location as a naval base. It was heavily attacked duri World War II by German and Italian aircraft, but was never invaded by the Axis.

La Paz' seat of the national government of Bolivia and believed to be the world's highest city, lies at an elevation of 12,001 feet above sea level near Lake Titicaca, world's highest large lake.

More than $4 billion is bet annually on horse races in the United States through parimutuel devices. Estimates of how much more than this is bet through bookmakers varies from two to four times this amount, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Right To Dissent

Much has been heard lately about the "right of dissent," but it becomes apparent that everything depends on whose ox is gored.

There are no "demonstrators" or "civil liberties" organizations rising up to support five members of a labor union in the broadcasting business who crossed picket lines of another union and have been fined $46,300.

Likewise, in the automobile industry, officers and members of a local labor union have been threatened with punishment because they refused to recognize the contract made with Chrysler Corp. by the national union.

Nobody argues or demonstrates in behalf of these individuals that they have a constitutional right to dissent and to work or not to work whenever they please.

THE SACRED "right to strike" has often been defended, but apparently when it is exercised by a local union in defiance of the orders of a national union, the right to strike is tabooed, along with the right to dissent.

There are "wildcat" strikes from time to time, and these, too, it could be contended, are covered by the "right of dissent."

This may be carrying such a doctrine too far, because the damage done can be so extensive the companies that are the victims have sued unions in the courts when strikes are alleged to have been instigated in violation of a contract.

It isn't clear, therefore, where the "right of dissent" begins or ends.

Certainly, labor unions have always insisted that workers had to belong to unions in a shop where the majority chose the union as its bargaining agent. The minority is usually put at a disadvantage because, again and again, employers agree to this demand.

Except in states which have "right to work" laws, the federal statute allows unions to obtain contracts that require workers to join a union within 30 days or else lose their jobs. In such instances, too express the "right of dissent" means unemployment.

Labor unions have always held the theory that in a way they are analogous to a governmental organization and should be permitted to exercise disciplinary authority over members.

This is the reason when one union goes on strike in a plant members of other unions have to respect picket lines. Though they may have no grievance, they stop work as a formal act of sympathy ordered by the officers of their own union.

This is approved as coming under the right to strike, though no actual strike by other unions in the same plant may have been ordered.

Labor unions insist that, because they represent the majority in a plant, they have the right to demand that all employes pay dues, and, in some instances, such payments are collected even though a worker may not be a member of the union or subject to its jurisdiction.

IF, HOWEVER, such a person refuses to heed a strike call and does cross a picket line, the union's power may indirectly be exerted to force him out of his job.

Congress has been reluctant to review existing statutes to protect individual rights. The AFL-CIO has been endeavoring to get the National Labor Relations Act amended so hereafter no state can grant workers the right to refrain from joining a union.

Many a labor-union leader utilizes constantly the "right of dissent" on public questions, and the unions themselves issue protests on various pieces of legislation which they believe to be undesirable.

But they feel that as far as their individual members are concerned the "right of dissent" should be limited.

One would have to search far nowadays to find any college organization which would start "marches" or "demonstrations" to protect the "right of dissent" for a working man subject to drastic punishment by a labor union if he doesn't conform to a majority view.

"Minority rights" are nonexistent in the labor-union world when it comes ot crossing picket lines or engaging in local strikes disapproved by a national union.

Icy Pavement Blamed After 2-Way Crash

At least one of four accidents reported in the city Wednesday and early today was blamed on slippery streets resulting from Tuesday night's snowfall.

Police said two cars collided on Hill Blvd. near Harding Ave. last night at 6:58.

Willard Boley, 37, of Bloomfield Rd. turned from Harding Ave. east onto Hill Blvd., lost control when the auto skided on ice and struck a second vehicle operated by Dewayne R. Glasure, 28, of Macrum St.

A report filed at police headquarters this morning told of an accident on Pennsylvania Ave. involving a parked auto and another car whose owner was not identified immediately.

William L. Thornton of 416 Johnson Pl., told police he parked his car on Pennsylvania Ave. about 10:10 p.m. Wednesday and discovered it had been struck by another vehicle when he returned to it about 7 a.m. today. Thornton said it may have been hit by an auto which was parked nearby this morning.

Two tractor-trailer rigs were damaged slightly Wednesday afternoon when they collided on the River Rd. at the State St. underpass.

Joseph B. Schneider, 49, a driver for Matlack Co. of Lansdowne, Pa., told authorities he was watching the rear-view mirror of his cab to ensure his trailer would clear the underpass when the left front of his tractor struck another trailer, part of a rig driven by John F. Jack, 53, of 559 Campground Rd., operating for the Ohio Power Co. here.

The fourth accident occurred Wednesday at Oakwood Ave. and Dorothy St.

Police reported Ruth Leona Drum, 42, of 617 Northside Ave. was headed north on Oakwood. When she saw a city bus proceeding in the opposite direction, she reportedly speeded up to get out of the way. At the same time, an auto operated by Ella Mae Mitchell, 50, of Lisbon RD 1, was headed south and had to swing left to avoid hitting a telephone pole.

The Mitchell woman said she saw the Drum auto but was unable to hit her brakes hard for fear of sliding on the pavement.

Book Details Cancer Facts

LISBON — A new paperback book, "The Truth About Cancer," is "the best possible guide anyone can have in protecting himself from dying of cancer," according to Dr. William Kolozsi of Salem, medical adviser of the American Cancer Society's Columbiana County Unit.

He said the book is reasonably priced and the public will be able to buy it at book stores, news stands and transportation terminals.

The county unit donated copies to all high schools in the county, the County Health Department office and the county school office.

Dr. Charles S. Cameron, the author, is president of Hahnemann Medical College in Philadelphia. He prepared the material 12 years ago when he was medical and scientific director of the American Cancer Society.

Dr. Kolozsi said the book is the "definitive work in the diagnosis and treatment of cancer from the layman's point of view." He said it presents many life - saving facts often overlooked by the public:

Cancer is the only major disease in which the individual alone influences the outcome to so great a degree; of all the leading causes of death, cancer is the most curable; ignorance of cancer is more deadly than cancer itself.

King Solomon's copper mines at the southern tip of Israel were reopened in 1959, after nearly 3,000 years of inactivity.

him: "They're shooting at the President from the bushes." A patrolman found a man there who flashed a Secret Service badge but later investigation disclosed no Secret Service man was actually in the area.

Dr. Thompson's article also points out that the persons closest to the Presidential limousine that day gave implicit and explicit support to the film findings that a bullet struck Mr. Kennedy from the right front. One, Motorcycle Officer Bobby Hargis, was so certain the head shot came from the right front he led the chase up the grassy knoll in search of the killer.

Another witness, S. M. Holland, who viewed the shooting from the railroad viaduct over the triple underpass ahead of the motorcade, told Dr. Thompson:

"The third and fourth bullets hit the President. . .in the head."

DR. THOMPSON says that additional evidence casts doubt on whether Lee Harvey Oswald was the one who fired his rifle that day from the Depository Building. He says there are indications two men were together on the sixth floor of the depository at the time the shots were fired. "The question of Oswald's guilt," Mr. Thompson states, "must remain—four years after the event—still unanswered."

In a signed statement in the magazine, Post Editor Emerson says: "With painstaking care and formidable logic, Thompson demolishes the Warren Report. It is not easy to get back into this horrible business, but we must do it."

The Post editorial notes that almost a year ago the magazine urged official re-opening of the investigation. The full-page editorial also recalls that other magazines and any number of independent observers have come to the same conclusion. But, the editorial says, "the results have been virtually nil. It is astonishing, really, that charges of such gravity should produce so little effect."

"One returns inevitably," the magazine says, "to those clinical details, those bits of evidence that seem to have been systematically misread or misinterpreted. For as Thompson analyzes and arrays them, they cry out for the truth to be told and the murderers to be punished."

Thompson said his "new evidence does not prove that the assassination was a conspiracy. Nor does it prove Oswald's innocence. It shows that the question of Oswald's guilt must remain—four years after the event—still unanswered."

Commenting on the Thompson thesis Wednesday, Gov. Connally disputed the fourth shot theory. "I still contend there were three shots fired. I don't believe there was more than one assassin," he said.

In part, Thompson based his conclusions on a study of an amateur movie filmed during the assassination by Abraham Zapruder, a spectator. The film was also central to the Warren Commission findings.

Thompson draws his theory of three assassins from interpretation of the facts of timing of the frames of the Zapruder film, but he does not speculate on who the gunmen were.

ally as he hit the barrel with his hand to dislodge some snow in the end of it.

The accident happened in a field within sight of the home of Mrs. Kay Sonagere on Georgetown - Damascus Rd. about three miles southwest of Damascus.

She said she heard a shot, then shouting, and looked out to see a young man running toward the house. Young Eckman asked her to call a doctor but they were unable to locate one. A physician's wife recommended that the injured man be taken to the hospital.

The eight - party line was busy when Eckman tried to call his home so he ran across the fields — about a mile — to get his father, Wayne. They returned in a pickup truck and took Beaver to the emergency room at the hospital.

Wellington said Beaver is a self - employed carpenter and has a wife and several children.

Nutritionist Dies

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Dr. Elmer Verner McCollum, 88, the nutritionist credited with the discovery of vitamins A, B, and D, died Wednesday night. McCollum retired from Johns Hopkins University's School of Hygiene and Public Health in 1946. His earliest vitamin discoveries were made while he was with the University of Wisconsin before World War I.

Red Cross Project

'Voices From Home' Set To Aid Military Families

The "Voices from Home" program will be sponsored again this Christmas season by the Area Red Cross Chapter in cooperation with Don Eckert's Camera Mart, radio station WOHI and the Camera Club of East Liverpool, according to Charles B. Lang, chairman of the local Red Cross chapter.

Lang said letters have been sent to industries and business concerns asking that their employees be informed about the program. Announcements have also been sent to individuals known to have servicemen overseas.

Lang explained that this is an annual program of the chapter which enables families of servicemen who will not be able to get home for Christmas, to make tape recordings so that they can send a "talking" greeting to their men in the military. The Camera club has agreed to take the family's picture to be enclosed in the envelope with the tape for the serviceman.

Thirty - five families took advantage of this program last year Lang stated, and it is hoped that more families will send taped greetings to their servicemen this year. Appointments for the recordings can only be made through the Red Cross chapter, and anyone wishing to send such a greeting should call the chapter office, 386-4144. Recordings can be made between Nov. 27 and Dec. 13.

Pilot

had regained control—but only for a very few seconds.

The NASA spokesman said there could be "any number of reasons" why Adams failed to eject after he lost control of the X15 the second time. "He could have blacked out.. .maybe the Gs (the powerful force, several times that of gravity, caused by change in speed or direction) got to him."

The problem with the dampers could have recurred, he said, "but that alone wouldn't have been enough to cause the crash. There had to be something else, perhaps a major malfunction, perhaps not."

After flights investigating maneuverability in space X15s descend from high altitude on a glide path about 30 degrees below horizontal. The stubby ships come down pancake style as they enter denser atmosphere, where the pilot switches from automatic to manual control.

Adams' ship, one of three, crashed in the Mojave Desert north of Edwards AFB near the mining town of Johannesburg.

Adams, who lived at the base with his wife and three children, was on his 11th flight. The craft was dropped from the belly of a B52 at 10:30 a.m. and shot to about 265,000 feet on a routine research flight.

The X15 burns its 10 tons of fuel in about 85 seconds as it accelerates. Then the ship noses over and begins the long dive to earth.

As it enters denser atmosphere the pilot begins to pull the craft out of its dive and begins a glide to a landing. This is where Adams ran into trouble.

A NASA-Air Force board has been appointed to investigate the crash.

Democrats, mostly from the South, supporting it. Opposing the slash were 162 Democrats and 28 Republicans.

On final passage, 186 Democrats and 97 Republicans voted for the bill and 50 Democrats and 79 Republicans against it. The entire top leadership of the Republican party either voted or was paired against the bill.

The bill's supporters shrugged off the cut in funds as a small price to pay for keeping alive a program that at one time appeared doomed.

The coaltion of Republicans and Southern Democrats that rewrote major administration education and crime control bills earlier in the year had made a complete revision of the antipoverty program its main goal.

When the summer's riots soured many former supporters of the program the House leadership laid the bill aside and even considered dropping it for this year to keep it from beng chewed up.

located in the front of the store.

A chisel, meat cleavers and a crowbar were used to break open the safe.

Buss Davis, manager, said he had made a night deposit after closing Wednesday night and that the thieves did not obtain all of yesterday's opening day receipts. About half of the money was covered by insurance Davis said.

Entrance was gained through a rear door. The theft was discovered this morning at 7:30 by James Nicholson, manager of the meat department.

Police Chief Audley Campbell investigated with assistance from the Hancock County Sheriff's office.

He said $40 in rare money and a $120 camera also were stolen.

Vietnam

ing little damage, but U.S. officers reported the earlier shelling at the battleground in the central highlands Wednesday destroyed 1,100 tons of ammunition, 60,000 gallons of aircraft fuel and $5 million worth of planes.

The U.S. Command in its weekly summary of casualties announced that the number of Americans killed or wounded last week was almost the same as the week before, the number of enemy killed dropped more than 500, and South Vietnamese losses increased sharply.

The command said 177 Americans were killed, 761 wounded and 28 were missing or captured, compared with 178 killed, 793 wounded and no missing reported the week before. Enemy dead dropped from 2,354 to 1,802, while reported South Vietnamese losses were 279 killed, 810 wounded and 91 missing, compared with 160 killed, 533 wounded and 60 missing the week before.

The U.S. Command also announced that the number of American troops in Vietnam reached 470,000 by last Saturday, only 2,800 less than the peak U.S. strength in the Korean War in 1953. Arrivals since Saturday may have brought the total to the Korean War maximum or greater.

U.S. officials have announced that American troops strength will be increased to 525,000 by early next year, and reports from Washington indicate that arrivals may be speeded up in the next few weeks.

U.S. pilots flew 110 missions against North Vietnam Wednesday and used radar controls for night raids on two airfields—at Hoa Lac, 20 miles west of Hanoi, and at Kep, 38 miles northwest of the Red capital.

Both fields had been raided repeatedly before, but the attacks Wednesday by U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs were the first in more than two weeks. Pilots were unable to report the damage because of the darkness.

Troops of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division were hardest hit in the Red ground attacks Wednesday.

The enemy opened up with small arms and automatic weapons on two companies that had just landed near Saigon from helicopters, killing 14 Americans and wounding 13. U.S. headquarters said six Communists were killed.

More than 100 mortar and recoilless rifle rounds landed on the division's headquarters camp 18 miles northeast of Saigon and a nearby South Vietnamese military training center. Five Americans were reported killed and 27 wounded.

The Army said that Viet Cong firing positions were spotted from the southeast corner of the base camp, and heavy mortar fire was returned.

Dak To in the central highlands area, scene of the heaviest fighting in the last two weeks, was relatively quiet. One U.S. battalion operating near a strategic hill ran into heavy sniper fire late this afternoon, pulled back and called in fighter-bombers to pound the Communist positions.

Maj. Gen. William R. Peers of Stuart, Iowa, commander of the 4th Infantry Division forward base camp at Dak To, told AP correspondent Peter Arnett it appeared the enemy was withdrawing, but "there could be more major contact because some of the enemy units are near our firebases."

U.S. intelligence indicates there are up to four North Vietnamese infantry regiments—perhaps 6,000 to 8,000 men—in the jungled peaks around Dak To, which is only 20 miles away from key infiltration and withdrawal routes through Cambodia and Laos.

is very, very encouraging. I have never been more encouraged in my four years in Vietnam."

Military progress by U.S. and South Vietnamese forces was reportedly behind Westmoreland's request that authorized troop levels be reached more quickly than now scheduled.

There now are about 468,000 American fighting men in Vietnam and Johnson earlier this year authorized boosting the total by 57,000 troops to 525,000 by next July 1.

But Westmoreland is said to feel that the extra troops should be deployed faster to allow him to keep maximum military pressure on the enemy, in the belief both the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong are reeling from recent defeats.

Pentagon officials are said to be in agreement with Westmoreland and tacit White House approval also is reported in advance of his meeting with Johnson.

Although a speedup in the authorized troop buildup is likely, sources said, they emphasized Westmoreland is not expected to seek additional troops above the 525,000-man level.

Both Bunker and Westmoreland spoke out against any prolonged pause in U.S. bombing of North Vietnam.

Bunker told newsmen, after meeting privately for two hours with a House Foreign Affairs subcommittee, that he felt it would be "very unfortunate" to suspend the bombing for very long. In line with a long standing administration position, he said a longer pause might be considered if the North Vietnamese indicate interest in peace talks.

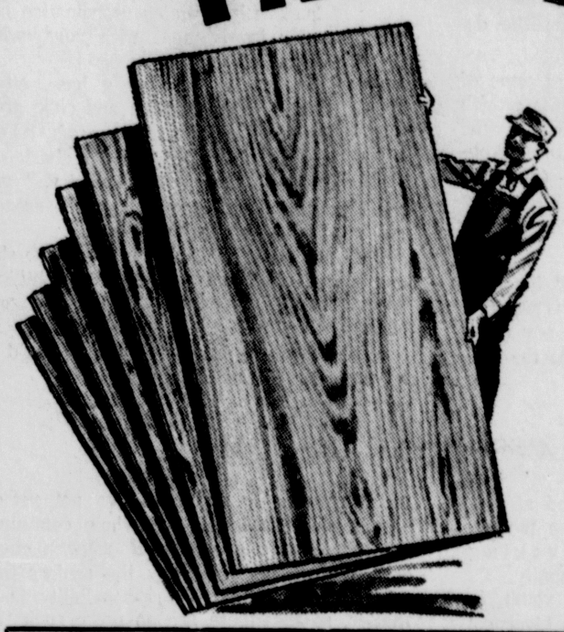

Westmoreland told newsmen, "We can live with" short bombing halts, but "I'm not very happy about the prospect."

President Nguyen Van Thieu of South Vietam has said he wants a bombing halt during the year-end holiday period.

A Workable Solution

It is difficult for many of us to realize the spectacular growth of this nation in the past 20 years, despite the facts and figures which are shunted our way daily.

It is even harder to anticipate the accelerating expansion which is expected in the next two decades alone, and to relate it to the East Liverpool area which has shown no little development itself in recent years.

But it is not difficult to understand some of the problems which have restricted the growth rate here compared to other parts of the United States. And it was at some of these problems attention was directed by Gene Garrison, Chamber of Commerce official, at Wednesday night's dinner meeting of the Area Chamber of Commerce.

Organizing leadership, involving all the people, setting priorities and acting on assigned projects was his basic proposal for any community interested in fitting itself into the pattern of national progress.

This is not a new procedure proposal, and some of the planning and priority aspects of his thinking have already been undertaken in the master plan and by the city planning commission which also involved a great deal of people throughout the community.

But there is a continuing need for greater unity of leadership, greater coordination of effort, broader involvement with neighborhoods and individual citizens.

Using the master plan as a base, city officials, the Chamber, service and civic groups, professional organizations, women's clubs, lodges and social groups could embark on a really energetic "Operation Bootstrap" which could put the city and townships into economic and cultural high gear.

Mr. Garrison is one of many who have shown us the potential and a means of fulfilling it with the emphasis on the responsibility at the local levels. He has offered a workable solution, and from the interest shown, it could well be the time to put it to work.

The Lesson At Lisbon

The manslaughter trial which ended at Lisbon Tuesday with the conviction of an 18-year-old city youth provided some provoking thoughts for everyone in our community.

Only the jury in the trial of the youth, in whose car Jerry Canne, 17, of East Liverpool was killed following a senior class party near Grimms Bridge last spring, could properly render a verdict on the legal charge.

But the trial indicates the degree of tolerance for the beer drinking, irresponsible behaviour, carelessness, rowdyism and foolishness for this annual class blowout over the years.

Students themselves should be aware of the dangers involved, physical and moral hazards to which young people suddenly become exposed in an atmosphere of gay and uninhibited release from school and parents.

This has been an organized rite of spring for which many girls and boys are not yet prepared, and it behooves the whole community, the schools, law enforcement officers, churches and especially especially the seniors themselves to recognize their responsibility in this matter, so that there are no more such "parties" to result in death, further sorrow, continued scars in the years to come.

There were many mothers, fathers, policemen, teachers, ministers and students themselves unaware of this tradition; others knew of it but had no real understanding of what went on. Too many realized what it was and what it could lead to.

Now, everyone knows — too late to erase the sad tale told at Lisbon these past two weeks, but not too late to do something about it for the future.

Searching For The Truth

A pulpit allegation by Rev. Cotesworth Pinckney Lewis of Williamsburg, Va., last Sunday that the administration of President Johnson, who was in the congregation, was ducking the truth about Vietnam should be followed up by all of us in our thoughts.

This is one of those rare moments for discovering how difficult it is to reach the truth, when the truth is defined by more than one truth-seeker.

There is the truth about Vietnam as defined by militarists on the scene. They say the United States is doing fine and will defeat the enemy.

The truth as defined by skeptics, on the other hand, includes the fact military victory is not what it is in doubt in Vietnam. Skeptics think military victory would be won at such a fearful cost in life and property that the net result would be defeat — a Pyrrhic victory.

The truth as seen by historians is colored by their conviction that the United States has aped the French, Dutch, Germans, Belgians and British by trying to force its will on Asiatics who regard Americans as just one more doctrinaire preachments. They ascribe U.S. intervention in Southeast Asia to insistence by the late John Foster Dulles on "containing" Communism wherever it appears. As they see the truth, the United States is carrying on a worldwide crusade against an evil not regarded as evil by its proponents and, as in Vietnam, by local patriots.

There is the truth about Vietnam as geo-politicians see it, as many retired militarists see it, as draft-age militarists see it, as 150 per cent patriots see it, as foreign chancellories see it — as Rev. Cotesworth Pinckney Lewis sees it, as President Lyndon Baines Johnson sees it. Each person, each faction, each nation must be credited with looking for the truth and finding the truth each was looking for.

The one truth not being found because so far only a handful of truth-seekers have tried to find it concerns a matter of opinion.

Was the United States well-advised committing itself to a land war on terrain as tough as South Vietnam?

On this single point, the truth must be admitted by all. If the United States had to make the same decision again, knowing what it knows now, it would not choose South Vietnam as a battlefield in its crusade against Communism. Aside from that, truth-seeking is open

Purely Personal Observations

If I lived in Cleveland, it would be a privilege to help the newly elected mayor up there try to do what his predecessor had quit trying to do; namely, make tens of thousands of people discover a reason for being enthusiastic about the municipal leadership in Cleveland.

When I see the elaborate trappings for election coverage by TV, I recall when newspapers were the primary source of post-election information and had to do the same thing, except no one cared what newspaper trappings looked like because no one then could see what was backstage.

If we can remain patient long enough, oh distraught fellow citizens, it no longer will be news when people parade with placards and sit down to protest something they don't like. News is something unusual. Picketing and rioting have turned into the usual.

I will give 10-1 that many voters now living will still be around when all voting is done electronically, with official results available a few minutes after the polls close. It figures to be that way in an electronic era.

The hardest thing I have had to do routinely in years of newspapering is explain to people why their "poems" are not going to be published. The truth is, sir or madam as the case may be, too unpleasant to be discussed.

To improve on a classic saying, I will defend to the death your right to say it and my right to gag when you do.

If it's a good idea to think twice and keep your mouth shut, it's a better idea to listen twice and keep your mind open when brainwashers are at work.

The Anti-Pornographers

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Newsweek magazine has just done a cover story on the "Permissive Society." The article, illustrated with a nude Jane Fonda, deals with the great strides that have been made in the last few years with respect to sex in films, songs, fashions and, of course, books.

Art Buchwald

Since you can't shock Americans any more with sex, a new school of writing is now in the making and I interviewed its leader, Malcolm McMoral. He is the author of the first antipornographic novel, "A Kiss on the Cheek."

"Malcolm, I have read your book from cover to cover and didn't find one obscene word. Did you have a reason for eliminating all the dirty words or were you just trying to shock your readers?"

"Some reviewers have accused me of the latter, but the truth of the matter is my characters had no reason to curse and, therefore, I had no reason to put obscene words in their mouths."

"Malcolm, in your book the title 'A Kiss on the Cheek' is apparently taken from a scene on page 157 where the mother kisses her 8-year-old son on the cheek. This is the only kiss in the book. Why?"

"EVERY WRITER has to deal with life, and that kiss was necessary for the development of the story. I didn't just throw it in for the heck of it."

"I'm not criticizing you for putting the kiss in. I'm criticizing you because there is absolutely no sex in the book at all. Do you think it's fair for people to pay $5.95 and not have at least one really hot love scene somewhere in your novel?"

"All I can do is refer you to the Supreme Court decision of 1943 which says that you can publish a book without a love scene in it, providing it has some social value."

"So you justify your lack of love scenes in the book on the grounds that it has social value?"

"Yes. Some dirty-minded people have accused me of writing a clean book for money. Well, I say, who is to judge whether a book is clean or not? Sure, there are clean passages in it, but you have to have those if you're going to deal with reality."

"IN YOUR BOOK the husband doesn't even commit adultery. Don't you think that's going a bit far?"

"Not in the context of the story. If you take it out of context, certainly it might sound that way. But the husband happens to be in love with his wife and that's why people have said it's a clean book. There are a lot of cleaner books in drugstores now, so I don't know why my book should have been singled out."

"Yet your novel seems to be some sort of a breakthrough, and there is fear that other writers might start copying you, particularly if you prove there's money to be made in writing a clean book."

"That's not my problem. If I didn't do it, somebody else would have. Society is changing all the time. It's true that the clean novel is considered avant-garde at the moment, but that doesn't mean it's wrong. Someday there will be so many clean books on the market that no one will be shocked any more.

'These Are Ugly People'

By Bruce Boissat

Many young Ameicans scorn their elders, on the ground that much of their behavior is immoral and base.

They believe the selves to be idealistic and highly moral in their outlook and conduct.

Among the more militant anti-adult, anti-establishment young people, evidence for this is hard to come by.

Mostly in antiwar and other protest movements, but also in more average pursuits, their behavior is self-degrading and contemptuous of others.

The harsh but true thing to say about many of them is that they are ugly people.

They are ugly in their profane speech, in their tendency to personal filth, in their rediness to lie, cheat and steal, in their disdain for moral precepts in interpersonal behavior.

If they do not fall into these patterns, they are nevertheless ugly in their arrogant assertion that violent assault upon or resistance to the law is "dissent," and that any attempt to answer dissent is an effort to suppress it.

The young who fit this description are not "democrats" in a free society but low-grade autocrats with a totalitarian insistence upon their own narrow, disjoined vision of life, to the exclusion of all other views.

There is in all this a complete rejection of human decency and dignity.

It can hardly be argued successfully that the route to idealistic goals and strong moral imperatives is this twisting low road. Men, young or old, do not improve society by imitating the errors they complain of.

In the present instance, the performance of misguided young militants goes beyond imitation to gross exaggerations of their elders' sins.

Much of this degrading behavior has nothing to do with pursuit of high ideals and morals. The young "dropouts from decency" simply are using adult shortcomings as excuse for misbehavior they would rationalize in some other way if they had to.

This does not mean there is no genuine cause for disillusionment at the performance of modern adult society. Any civilization which finds itself stumbling into war again and again, which looks upon the extermination of millions of Jews, which offers only thin hope to millions suffering poverty and discrimination is bound to shake popular confidence profoundly.

The self-confidence of adults today is rudely shattered. If so many did not themselves have to much self-doubt, they would not be so hesitant about applying stricter standards to the misguided young.

Adult tolerance of youthful self-degradation has nothing in it that is modern, progressive or partaking of "new freedom." What it has to do with is the adults' own confusion., their own disillusionment, their failure to find a new upward path.

Society has always relied upon its young people for fresh infusions of idealism. This country and all nations never needed it more.

But it will not be provided in sufficient flood so long as aggressive young militants dissipate their energy in orgies of self-hate.

Men who respect nothing, not even themselves, will not be listened to when they attack the failings of others.

This 'N That

The question as to which is the speedier mode of travel, roller skates or ice skates, depends mainly on the distance traveled. For fairly short distances, up to one mile, ice skates are faster. For longer distances, such as two miles or five miles, roller skates are faster because they require less stamina to maintain speed.

Malta, the island lying between Europe and Africa in the central channel linking the eastern and western Mediterranean, has the principal importance of being a strategic location as a naval base. It was heavily attacked duri World War II by German and Italian aircraft, but was never invaded by the Axis.

La Paz' seat of the national government of Bolivia and believed to be the world's highest city, lies at an elevation of 12,001 feet above sea level near Lake Titicaca, world's highest large lake.

More than $4 billion is bet annually on horse races in the United States through parimutuel devices. Estimates of how much more than this is bet through bookmakers varies from two to four times this amount, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Right To Dissent

Much has been heard lately about the "right of dissent," but it becomes apparent that everything depends on whose ox is gored.

There are no "demonstrators" or "civil liberties" organizations rising up to support five members of a labor union in the broadcasting business who crossed picket lines of another union and have been fined $46,300.

Likewise, in the automobile industry, officers and members of a local labor union have been threatened with punishment because they refused to recognize the contract made with Chrysler Corp. by the national union.

Nobody argues or demonstrates in behalf of these individuals that they have a constitutional right to dissent and to work or not to work whenever they please.

THE SACRED "right to strike" has often been defended, but apparently when it is exercised by a local union in defiance of the orders of a national union, the right to strike is tabooed, along with the right to dissent.

There are "wildcat" strikes from time to time, and these, too, it could be contended, are covered by the "right of dissent."

This may be carrying such a doctrine too far, because the damage done can be so extensive the companies that are the victims have sued unions in the courts when strikes are alleged to have been instigated in violation of a contract.

It isn't clear, therefore, where the "right of dissent" begins or ends.

Certainly, labor unions have always insisted that workers had to belong to unions in a shop where the majority chose the union as its bargaining agent. The minority is usually put at a disadvantage because, again and again, employers agree to this demand.

Except in states which have "right to work" laws, the federal statute allows unions to obtain contracts that require workers to join a union within 30 days or else lose their jobs. In such instances, too express the "right of dissent" means unemployment.

Labor unions have always held the theory that in a way they are analogous to a governmental organization and should be permitted to exercise disciplinary authority over members.

This is the reason when one union goes on strike in a plant members of other unions have to respect picket lines. Though they may have no grievance, they stop work as a formal act of sympathy ordered by the officers of their own union.

This is approved as coming under the right to strike, though no actual strike by other unions in the same plant may have been ordered.

Labor unions insist that, because they represent the majority in a plant, they have the right to demand that all employes pay dues, and, in some instances, such payments are collected even though a worker may not be a member of the union or subject to its jurisdiction.

IF, HOWEVER, such a person refuses to heed a strike call and does cross a picket line, the union's power may indirectly be exerted to force him out of his job.

Congress has been reluctant to review existing statutes to protect individual rights. The AFL-CIO has been endeavoring to get the National Labor Relations Act amended so hereafter no state can grant workers the right to refrain from joining a union.

Many a labor-union leader utilizes constantly the "right of dissent" on public questions, and the unions themselves issue protests on various pieces of legislation which they believe to be undesirable.

But they feel that as far as their individual members are concerned the "right of dissent" should be limited.

One would have to search far nowadays to find any college organization which would start "marches" or "demonstrations" to protect the "right of dissent" for a working man subject to drastic punishment by a labor union if he doesn't conform to a majority view.

"Minority rights" are nonexistent in the labor-union world when it comes ot crossing picket lines or engaging in local strikes disapproved by a national union.

Equal Educational Opportunities

NAACP Has New School Desegregation Campaign

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has announced the start of a new school desegregation campaign aimed at the district lines that prevent children of poor families from attending well financed and well equipped city and suburban public schools.

Officials of the NAACP said Wednesday it had begun the first of a series of cases, primarily in the North, seeking to make equal educational opportunities for all children the responsibility of states.

NAACP General Counsel Robert L. Carter said he is concerned with the amount of money a school district can afford to spend on each pupil, as well as the degree of integration. He said a poor district cannot make education "a viable tool for Negro kids."

Carter said at a news conference that it will be up to the states to decide how to provide equal educational opportunity, and he added:

"Whether this be by abolishing district lines, merging of districts, drastic revision of the state formula governing aid to education, or a combination of all these methods, the methods are available. They must be utilized."

The first direct move in the NAACP campaign was a request to the Wyandanch school district on Long Island, whose school enrollment is 80 per cent Negro, to disband and divide its pupils among five neighboring wealthier districts. The Negro school enrollments in the five districts range from zero to 8 9 per cent, according to statistics of the civil rights group.

Carter said court action will be taken against the Wyandanch district, if necessary. Other cases will be filed without waiting for a final decision on the first, he added.

Population To Hit 200 Million Monday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Census Bureau says the United States will hit the 200 million population mark next Monday. But the private Population Reference Bureau says the nation has already topped that total.

Although bureau officials are sticking to plans to celebrate the occasion at 11 a.m. Monday, when the big census clock in the Commerce Department turns over 200 million, some concede their private counterpart might be right.

The mild controversy was spurred by the Population Reference Bureau's contention that the 1960 census overlooked some 5.7 million Americans, mostly Negro male residents of big-city slums.

Equal Educational Opportunities

NAACP Has New School Desegregation Campaign

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has announced the start of a new school desegregation campaign aimed at the district lines that prevent children of poor families from attending well financed and well equipped city and suburban public schools.

Officials of the NAACP said Wednesday it had begun the first of a series of cases, primarily in the North, seeking to make equal educational opportunities for all children the responsibility of states.

NAACP General Counsel Robert L. Carter said he is concerned with the amount of money a school district can afford to spend on each pupil, as well as the degree of integration. He said a poor district cannot make education "a viable tool for Negro kids."

Carter said at a news conference that it will be up to the states to decide how to provide equal educational opportunity, and he added:

"Whether this be by abolishing district lines, merging of districts, drastic revision of the state formula governing aid to education, or a combination of all these methods, the methods are available. They must be utilized."

The first direct move in the NAACP campaign was a request to the Wyandanch school district on Long Island, whose school enrollment is 80 per cent Negro, to disband and divide its pupils among five neighboring wealthier districts. The Negro school enrollments in the five districts range from zero to 8 9 per cent, according to statistics of the civil rights group.

Carter said court action will be taken against the Wyandanch district, if necessary. Other cases will be filed without waiting for a final decision on the first, he added.

Population To Hit 200 Million Monday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Census Bureau says the United States will hit the 200 million population mark next Monday. But the private Population Reference Bureau says the nation has already topped that total.

Although bureau officials are sticking to plans to celebrate the occasion at 11 a.m. Monday, when the big census clock in the Commerce Department turns over 200 million, some concede their private counterpart might be right.

The mild controversy was spurred by the Population Reference Bureau's contention that the 1960 census overlooked some 5.7 million Americans, mostly Negro male residents of big-city slums.

Chamber

eryone should be able to view the city as a whole, to be able to define the problems and set common goals.

He listed the procedure for undertaking such a community-wide effort — organization of the leadership, involving the people, measuring the general thinking against the facts, setting priorities, obtaining community endorsement, and taking specific action.

"UNITY OF leadership is important to determining what is good and best," the speaker stated. "You have to find out if the real leaders — the men with the power to say 'yes' or 'no' on important decisions— are active in the community guidance.

He said a real working alliance has to be established, with a cross section of all parts of the community represented, each group sharing in the tasks. "The Chamber of Commerce can fill the role of finding out what the city wants and applying resources on priority programs."

"The people must take part. This can be done by asking their advice, getting them involved, seeking their support," he said.

The action phase will result in the municipal government undertaking those projects in its realm, the Chamber in other areas, service clubs and other groups working on their programs in the total pattern.

Each group must have the responsibility of doing its job in its own way; a time limit should be set in order to be sure that the task is met, otherwise they can be on their own, he explained.

"This is not a grab bag of tricks; it can work with real labor, honesty, sincere effort— it can be done," he said. "The Chamber can organize and coordinate, not dominate."

"It is in the power of the men in this room to accomplish it," he concluded. "You must ask yourselves, if you don't do it, who will?"

—:—

Test Registration Started For Students At Lincoln High

Lincoln High School students who expect to complete their secondary school requirements and enter college in 1969 can register now to participate in the 1968-69 National Merit Scholarship Program, Henry J. Kuzma, principal, announced today.

The first step for all students who wish to enter the nationwide competition is to take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test which will be given at the school Feb. 24 at 9 a.m. When scores are reported, each participating student will receive a handbook to help him evaluate his scores, compare his performance with that of other high school students across the country, and give him information on choosing a college and financing his education. The handbook and other interpretive materials are furnished as a part of reporting the test results.

The highest - scoring students in each state will be named semi - finalists and will be eligible for merit scholarship consideration. In addition to the National Merit Scholarships financed by NMSC, more than 350 business corporations, foundations, colleges, professional associations, unions, trusts, other organizations, and individuals offer scholarshps through the program.

About 15,800 studes have won scholarships in the 12 merit programs to date. Some 2,450 were awarded in 1967.

In a recent assembly students were advised of state loans and the scholarship program for technical, nursing and business schools and the deadline for this program; general scholarships and loans; changes in the draft law and how it affects the student; proper school attitude; importance of good grades and report card; high school credits, and deadlines for college and nursing applications.

On Oct. 28 three senior members of the National Honor Society attended the regional conference of the society at Carnegie Mellon University at Pittsburgh. Barney Newman, Norman Orr and Carolyn Wuchina were accompanied by Miss Marie Milanovich, the sponsor. The 13 seminars on the program included a current discussion forum on "Criticism of Contemporary American Society: Left, Right and Center."

Fifteen scholarships, each worth more than $10,000, are being offered by the Lockheed Leadership Fund to qualified high school seniors planning to start college next fall, Kuzma said.

The scholarships provide free tuition and basic expenses at leading colleges and universities for four years and $500 a year for personal expenses. Ten are in the fields of engineering and science, while five are in business - related fields. The purpose of the scholarships is to help prepare students for scientific and business careers in the aerospace industry.

Students eligible to start college next fall may apply. Applicants will be judged on their leadership qualities, reflected by school grades and participation in school and community activities. Because of an early filing deadline, Kuzma said students are urged to contact their guidance director or science teacher to apply for the Lockheed scholarships.

In Face Of Return To Tight Money

Federal Reserve Board Sticks To Credit Policy

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the face of a growing number of predictions from government officials that a return to tight money is inevitable without higher taxes, the Federal Reserve Board has so far avoided any public moves in that direction.

And some government officials believe the board members—the nation's money managers—will continue their policy of easier credit for at least the immediate future.

The Federal Reserve shies away from any public discussion of its current money policy but government officials at least don't look for any dramatic action by the board—such as a higher discount rate—in the near future.

Speculation of a possible change in policy arose Tuesday as the Federal Reserve System's Open Market Committee held its regular meeting in Washington.

Credit policy is drafted at these meetings by the seven members of the board plus 5 of the 12 presidents of Federal Reserve banks scattered across the country.

Summaries of policy decisions are made public 90 days after each meeting but bankers and economists will be watching money movements closely over the next several weeks seeking a hint to any policy changes.

It's been almost two years since the Federal Reserve on Dec. 6, 1965, raised its discount rate from 4 to 4½ per cent, touching off a round of tight money which ended last April when the rate was returned to 4 per cent.

This is the rate the Federal Reserve charges commercial banks for short-term loans and other interest rates are pegged upward from it. The system also shifted bank reserve requirements, imposed newly authorized interest-rate ceilings on savings and urged voluntary restraint on business loans by banks in its attempts last year to stem inflation.

Conditions this year are markedly different and pose a unique dilemma for the board.

The heavy pressure last year was on banks because of heavy borrowing by corporations. This year corporations have switched to sales of bonds to raise money and bond market interest rates have soared to between 6 and 7 per cent.

Tight money breeds high interest rates but some interest rates are already higher now than they were last year. Many officials fear tight money could send the housing industry into another tailspin.

A shortage of mortgage funds last year resulted in a virtual recession in housing.

The Federal Reserve has strongly endorsed President Johnson's plea for a 10 per cent surcharge on corporate and individual income taxes to avoid a return to tight money.

But it's uncertain what the board will do should Congress adjourn this year without adopting the surcharge, as now seems probable.

Administration officials, from the President on down, have cited the possibility of tight money as a recurring argument in their fight for the surcharge.

New Concept For Fighting Crime

FBI, Justice Department Differ On 'Strike Force'

By STEPHEN M. AUG
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI and its parent agency, the Justice Department, are at odds over the department's new "strike force" concept for fighting organized crime.

As a result, the FBI has refused to join fully the new anti-crime force—practically the only civilian federal investigative agency to decline full participation.

Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark made public the new concept earlier this week in a New York speech when he announced the department will set up several "strike forces" to probe organized crime in selected areas.

The decision was based on a highly successful operation during the past year in Buffalo, N.Y., which resulted in 14 indictments affecting 31 defendants.

Under the strike force concept, seven federal investigative agencies work together on an intensive drive against organized crime in a selected area for a year or two.

Although Justice Department officials refused to discuss the disagreement, it is known they feel their job would be much easier if the FBI participated fully in the new technique.

FBI participation so far has been passive. It has not assigned agents to work on the strike forces but has made available its vast intelligence sources.

Technically, at least, the attorney general could order FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover to assign agents to the strike force, but Clark is said to be reluctant to do so. Although the FBI is part of the Justice Department it operates practically as an autonomous agency.

Insiders familiar with FBI operations say the bureau's opposition to participating fully in the plan is based on three premises:

—The FBI traditionally likes to work alone and take the credit—or the blame—alone.

—The FBI over the years has sought to keep separate the investigating and prosecuting functions of the Justice Department. The bureau does the investigating; the department does the prosecuting.

—The bureau is not convinced that the intensive work of the strike forces—spread possibly over an 18-month or two-year period—would be lasting. It feels that once a drive is completed the target area may slip back under control of the local crime syndicate branch. Department officials are known to feel, however, that the key to a successful fight against organized crime is continual surveillance.

Guard Pulls Out At Central State And All's Quiet

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (AP) —The Ohio National Guard has pulled out of Central State University and all was quiet on the campus today, three days after a student riot.

Most of the students at the predominantly Negro school left here after officials ordered the school closed Tuesday. A few, some who had transportation problems and several foreign students, remained however.

Dr. Warren C. Nelson, dean of Central State's College of Education, said a few graduate classes were being held at buildings in nearby Xenia and Springfield.

The more than 90 arrested in Monday night's bottle-throwing disturbance all appeared in Xenia Municipal Court Wednesday for arraignment on various charges stemming from violation of the state's riot act.

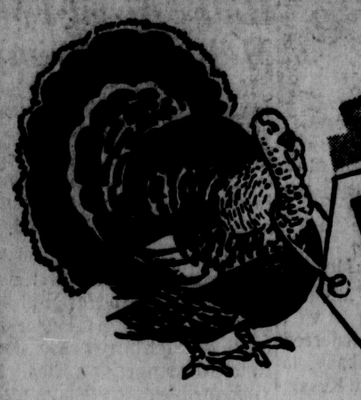

None arraigned entered pleas and their cases were continued.

All classes are expected to resume after the Thanksgiving holidays.

Cleveland Firm Cited On Fair Labor Act

CLEVELAND (AP) — Fisher Foods, Inc., operator of Fisher-Fazio-Costa Supermarkets, is accused of violating the deferal Fair Labor Standards Act in a civil action filed by the U.S. Department of Labor.

The action, filed in U.S. District Court Wednesday, alleges failure to pay minimum wages and proper overtime pay and failure to keep proper employe records for the past three years.

Chamber

eryone should be able to view the city as a whole, to be able to define the problems and set common goals.

He listed the procedure for undertaking such a community-wide effort — organization of the leadership, involving the people, measuring the general thinking against the facts, setting priorities, obtaining communty endorsement, and taking specific action.

"UNITY OF leadership is important to determining what is good and best," the speaker stated. "You have to find out if the real leaders — the men with the power to say 'yes' or 'no' on important decisions— are active in the community guidance.

He said a real working alliance has to be established, with a cross section of all parts of the community represented, each group sharing in the tasks. "The Chamber of Commerce can fill the role of finding out what the city wants and applying resources on priority programs."

"The people must take part. This can be done by asking their advice, getting them involved, seeking their support," he said.

The action phase will result in the municipal government undertaking those projects in its realm, the Chamber in other areas, service clubs and other groups working on their programs in the total pattern.

Each group must have the responsibility of doing its job in its own way; a time limit should be set in order to be sure that the task is met, otherwise they can be on their own, he explained.

"This is not a grab bag of tricks; it can work with real labor, honesty, sincere effort— it can be done," he said. "The Chamber can organize and coordinate, not dominate."

"It is in the power of the men in this room to accomplish it," he concluded. "You must ask yourselves, if you don't do it, who will?"

—:—

GARRISON was introduced by George A. Shaw, president of the Chamber, who explained the local group had already explored some aspects of total development before some members heard Garrison speak at Youngstown recently.

Garrison met this morning at the Travelers Hotel with Chamber officers and committee chairmen.

Out - of - town guests included Emerson V. (Tip) Wood, executive manager of the Steubenville Chamber of Commerce, and Richard Mayers, chairman of the Steubenville Retail Merchants Bureau; J. Smith, Jr., president, and Robert Balint, Midland Chamber of Commerce; and George Ford Jr., new superintendent of community relations at Crucible Steel Co. Midland Division.

Test Registration Started For Students At Lincoln High

Lincoln High School students who expect to complete their secondary school requirements and enter college in 1969 can register now to participate in the 1968-69 National Merit Scholarship Program, Henry J. Kuzma, principal, announced today.

The first step for all students who wish to enter the nationwide competition is to take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test which will be given at the school Feb. 24 at 9 a.m. When scores are reported, each participating student will receive a handbook to help him evaluate his scores, compare his performance with that of other high school students across the country, and give him information on choosing a college and financing his education. The handbook and other interpretive materials are furnished as a part of reporting the test results.

The highest - scoring students in each state will be named semi - finalists and will be eligible for merit scholarship consideration. In addition to the National Merit Scholarships financed by NMSC, more than 350 business corporations, foundations, colleges, professional associations, unions, trusts, other organizations, and individuals offer scholarshps through the program.

About 15,800 studes have won scholarships in the 12 merit programs to date. Some 2,450 were awarded in 1967.

In a recent assembly students were advised of state loans and the scholarship program for technical, nursing and business schools and the deadline for this program; general scholarships and loans; changes in the draft law and how it affects the student; proper school attitude; importance of good grades and report card; high school credits, and deadlines for college and nursing applications.

On Oct. 28 three senior members of the National Honor Society attended the regional conference of the society at Carnegie Mellon University at Pittsburgh. Barney Newman, Norman Orr and Carolyn Wuchina were accompanied by Miss Marie Milanovich, the sponsor. The 13 seminars on the program included a current discussion forum on "Criticism of Contemporary American Society: Left, Right and Center."

Fifteen scholarships, each worth more than $10,000, are being offered by the Lockheed Leadership Fund to qualified high school seniors planning to start college next fall, Kuzma said.

The scholarships provide free tuition and basic expenses at leading colleges and universities for four years and $500 a year for personal expenses. Ten are in the fields of engineering and science, while five are in business - related fields. The purpose of the scholarships is to help prepare students for scientific and business careers in the aerospace industry.

Students eligible to start college next fall may apply. Applicants will be judged on their leadership qualities, reflected by school grades and participation in school and community activities. Because of an early filing deadline, Kuzma said students are urged to contact their guidance director or science teacher to apply for the Lockheed scholarships.

Britain Prods Council On Mideast Issue

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Britain plans a determined effort to prod the U.N. Security Council into unanimous action toward a settlement to the Middle East stalemate, declaring that the "time to decide has come."

The United States urged the council Wednesday to reach an accord calling for Israeli withdrawal from captured Arab lands but also suppprting Israel's insistence on "secure and recognized" boundaries.

"Only the parties themselves can make peace," added U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg.

The council did reach a decision on Portugal, condemning the Lisbon government for permitting foreign mercenaries to use Portuguese Angola for an abortive invasion of the Congo.

Portugal has denied any knowledge of mercenary operations from Angola and its U.N. delegate, Francisco Bonifacio de Miranda, called the condemnation "gratuitous and baseless." But Soviet representative Platon Morozov, said the resolution did not go far enough because it did not call on Portugal's fellow members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to respect U.N. charter provisions barring interference in the internal affairs of another state.

In the Middle East debate, Britain's Lord Caradon complained that the Security Council has been bogged down for weeks by "dreadful and damaging delays and persistent and frustrating disagreements."

The council may consider as many as four separate Arab-Israeli peace plans. A U.S. plan and an India-Mali-Nigeria proposal are formally before the council, Argentina and Brazil are ready to introduce another and Britain is reported working on a separate draft.

Warren Schools Head Warns On Defeat Of Levy

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Superintendent of Schools David L. Moberly says Warren city schools will have to close if a 19.5-mill operating levy is not approved by voters at a special election Dec. 12.

"This is not meant as a threat, but the hard, cold facts," Dr. Moberly said Wednesday.

The levy is a combination of 16.5 mills in renewal and three additional mills just to keep the schools open, the superintendent said. The additional money is needed, he added, to meet salary schedules for 1,000 staff members and an increase in operating costs.

The Board of Education also has voted to present at the special election a 1.3-mill levy to provide funds for 10 special services, including kindergarten.

The levies would run for five years.

Voters rejected a 20.8 mill levy by a 400-vote margin at the Nov. 7 election, when a majority was needed for passage. In the special election the two issues will require a 55 per cent affirmative vote.

State foundation funds also would be cut off if the millage is not approved, Moberly said.

Group To Aid Indian School

LISBON — The Columbiana County Extension Homemakers Council will help furnish kitchens in a homemakers school at Udipar, India. The school is sponsored by Ohio State University.

The women voted to give $25 to the project following a combined meeting with the Mahoning County Council at the Home Savings & Loan Co. in Salem. Mrs. Janice Eells of Elkton, president of the Colmbiana group, and Mrs. Vada Reel of the Mahoning unit, presided for the combined session. The groups met separately after lunch.

Ann Riedel, Columbiana extension agent for home economics, said a committee will visit high schools to promote the Minnie Price Scholarships offered by the Ohio Extension Homemakers Council to girls interested in studying home economics at OSU.

Edna Akers, extension clothing specialist from OSU, will speak for the Columbiana County Achievement Day program in late April on "Selection of Men's Clothing."

Mrs. Myron McCamon of Elkton and Mrs. Kenneth Reash of Columbiana were elected representatives to the county extension advisory committee.

Expense Report Filed By 4 More Aspirants

Four men who sought office in East Liverpool at the Nov. 7 general election have filed campaign expense statements with the County Election Board.

Ernest Lowe, incumbent Republican council president who was unsuccessful in a bid for re-election, reported a total of $86.60 spent on his campaign.

Victor Lee Smith, Republican, who failed in a bid for a council-at-large position, said he spent $106.11.

Frank Duffy, Democrat, who was returned to his Council-at-large post, listed $80.80 expenses.

U.S. Steel Boosts Price On Some Items

PITTSBURGH (AP) — U.S. Steel Corp. has ordered price increases of "less than 3 per cent" on some wire extras and various materials sold to the railroads.

Similar wire boosts were announced recently by other producers.

Price revisions on rail accessories and wrought steel wheels also were announced along with minor increases in certain special forged steel axles.

The increases, announced Wednesday, are effective Nov. 27.

When a repair man opened it for her, there was $76 in currency inside. Mrs. Burgess' overall profit was $3—she had to pay $45 to have the register put in working condition.

Marcos Hold On Philippine Senate Seen

MANILA (AP) — President Ferdinand E. Marcos appeared assured today of the control of the Philippine Senate needed to provide firm ground for his 1969 re-election campaign.

With more than half the votes in Tuesday's off-year elections counted, Marcos' Nacionalista party was ahead in six of the eight Senate races. The president needed that many more seats in the 24-member Senate to assure passage of the economic programs on which he expects to campaign.

Ex-Gov. Benigno Aquino, an outspoken Liberal party critic of Marcos, led all senatorial vote-getters, however.

Mrs. Magnolia Antonio, an independent riding a wave of sympathy, also seemed certain of election. She substituted for her husband who died in a helicopter crash less than 24 hours before balloting started.

Nacionalistas also ran up substantial leads in provincial and municipal elections. In 65 governorship races, they were ahead in 41. Liberals led in 13 and independents in three.

Manila gave the Liberals their only other major victory. Mayor Antonio Villegas, a critic of Marcos with anti-American leanings, trounced the president's handpicked candidate, Pablo Ocampo, by 50,000 votes.

The traditional violence that surrounds Philippine politics brought death to 60 persons since the start of campaigning early this year, the national police reported. Despite nine election-day killings, the police called the balloting "generally peaceful." The Philippine News Service reported 107 political killings for the year and said more than 30 persons were slain on election day.

Meteor Shower To Begin Tonight In District Skies

If you see a falling star tonight, it won't necessarily be Shirley Temple — shot down in her California bid for a congressional seat.

It will be the real thing—a shower of Leonid meteors — according to the Buhl Planetarium at Pittsburgh. The shower of "shooting stars"" is expected to hit its peak about 1 a. m. Friday.

A few of the meteors may be seen as soon as the sky darkens tonight, if clouds do not interfere. The Leonids, so-called because they appear to radiate from the constellation of Leo the Lion, are bluish green in color and often leave vivid trains.

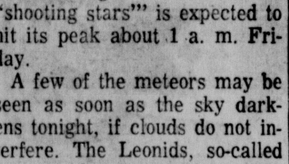

At the maximum of the shower, sky - watchers may see 25 meteors an hour. Smaller numbers should be visible Friday night. Probably the most spectacular meteor shower in history was provided by the Leonids in 1833, when many thousands an hour were observed.

YOUR DOCTOR HAS HIS CHOICE
DYNAMIC DISCOUNT DRUGS
GENERICS or BRAND NAMES

It has been the policy of Discount Drugs to price prescriptions as low as possible consistant with the highest quality standards. Now, we offer your doctor a CHOICE at Dynamic Discount Drugs.

The choice of prescribing by brand name, or Generic name, is entirely up to your physician. Generic production has expanded, and Dynamic Discount Drugs HAS RESEARCHED THE MANUFACTURERS in order to offer the finest in specially made Generic drugs.

The BRAND NAME under which a pharmaceutical company manufactures and sells a certain drug usually is patented and when a Dynamic Discount Drugs pharmacist receives a prescription for a brand name, he legally is required to provide the exact product specified by your doctor. He must also price the prescription according to his cost on the Brand Name drug, which, due to promotional and distribution expense, is somewhat higher than comparable generic drugs.

The GENERIC NAME, by contrast, is the official common name of a drug. For example, certain so-called blood pressure reducing drugs known under familiar brand names also are described by the GENERIC name of "Reserpine." Generally, a Generic drug prescription will be a lot less than the price of a prescription of a brand name because of the economics of distribution and advertising.

Your doctor knows this, but he also knows when a certain illness will best be cured by the makeup of a particular brand name drug. IF HE DOES PRESCRIBE A GENERIC DRUG rely on Dynamic Drugs to fill your prescription. The highest quality generic drugs available are in stock at Dynamic Discount. This is another of the many reasons it always pays to shop and save at Dynamic Discount. In Face Of Return To Tight Money

Federal Reserve Board Sticks To Credit Policy

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the face of a growing number of predictions from government officials that a return to tight money is inevitable without higher taxes, the Federal Reserve Board has so far avoided any public moves in that direction.

And some government officials believe the board members—the nation's money managers—will continue their policy of easier credit for at least the immediate future.

The Federal Reserve shies away from any public discussion of its current money policy but government officials at least don't look for any dramatic action by the board—such as a higher discount rate—in the near future.

Speculation of a possible change in policy arose Tuesday as the Federal Reserve System's Open Market Committee held its regular meeting in Washington.

Credit policy is drafted at these meetings by the seven members of the board plus 5 of the 12 presidents of Federal Reserve banks scattered across the country.

Summaries of policy decisions are made public 90 days after each meeting but bankers and economists will be watching money movements closely over the next several weeks seeking a hint to any policy changes.

It's been almost two years since the Federal Reserve on Dec. 6, 1965, raised its discount rate from 4 to 4½ per cent, touching off a round of tight money which ended last April when the rate was returned to 4 per cent.

This is the rate the Federal Reserve charges commercial banks for short-term loans and other interest rates are pegged upward from it. The system also shifted bank reserve requirements, imposed newly authorized interest-rate ceilings on savings and urged voluntary restraint on business loans by banks in its attempts last year to stem inflation.

Conditions this year are markedly different and pose a unique dilemma for the board.

The heavy pressure last year was on banks because of heavy borrowing by corporations. This year corporations have switched to sales of bonds to raise money and bond market interest rates have soared to between 6 and 7 per cent.

Tight money breeds high interest rates but some interest rates are already higher now than they were last year. Many officials fear tight money could send the housing industry into another tailspin.

A shortage of mortgage funds last year resulted in a virtual recession in housing.

The Federal Reserve has strongly endorsed President Johnson's plea for a 10 per cent surcharge on corporate and individual income taxes to avoid a return to tight money.

But it's uncertain what the board will do should Congress adjourn this year without adopting the surcharge, as now seems probable.

Administration officials, from the President on down, have cited the possibility of tight money as a recurring argument in their fight for the surcharge.

New Concept For Fighting Crime

FBI, Justice Department Differ On 'Strike Force'

By STEPHEN M. AUG
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI and its parent agency, the Justice Department, are at odds over the department's new "strike force" concept for fighting organized crime.

As a result, the FBI has refused to join fully the new anti-crime force—practically the only civilian federal investigative agency to decline full participation.

Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark made public the new concept earlier this week in a New York speech when he announced the department will set up several "strike forces" to probe organized crime in selected areas.

The decision was based on a highly successful operation during the past year in Buffalo, N.Y., which resulted in 14 indictments affecting 31 defendants.

Under the strike force concept, seven federal investigative agencies work together on an intensive drive against organized crime in a selected area for a year or two.

Although Justice Department officials refused to discuss the disagreement, it is known they feel their job would be much easier if the FBI participated fully in the new technique.

FBI participation so far has been passive. It has not assigned agents to work on the strike forces but has made available its vast intelligence sources.

Technically, at least, the attorney general could order FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover to assign agents to the strike force, but Clark is said to be reluctant to do so. Although the FBI is part of the Justice Department it operates practically as an autonomous agency.

Insiders familiar with FBI operations say the bureau's opposition to participating fully in the plan is based on three premises:

—The FBI traditionally likes to work alone and take the credit—or the blame—alone.

—The FBI over the years has sought to keep separate the investigating and prosecuting functions of the Justice Department. The bureau does the investigating; the department does the prosecuting.

—The bureau is not convinced that the intensive work of the strike forces—spread possibly over an 18-month or two-year period—would be lasting. It feels that once a drive is completed the target area may slip back under control of the local crime syndicate branch. Department officials are known to feel, however, that the key to a successful fight against organized crime is continual surveillance.

Guard Pulls Out At Central State And All's Quiet

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (AP) —The Ohio National Guard has pulled out of Central State University and all was quiet on the campus today, three days after a student riot.

Most of the students at the predominantly Negro school left here after officials ordered the school closed Tuesday. A few, some who had transportation problems and several foreign students, remained however.

Dr. Warren C. Nelson, dean of Central State's College of Education, said a few graduate classes were being held at buildings in nearby Xenia and Springfield.

The more than 90 arrested in Monday night's bottle-throwing disturbance all appeared in Xenia Municipal Court Wednesday for arraignment on various charges stemming from violation of the state's riot act.

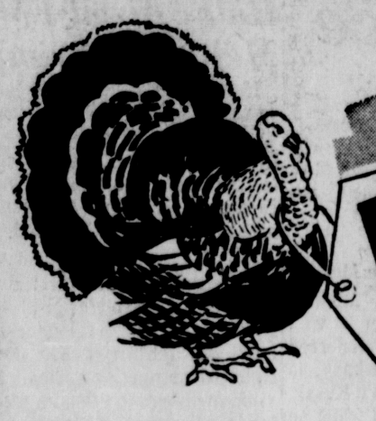

None arraigned entered pleas and their cases were continued.

All classes are expected to resume after the Thanksgiving holidays.

Cleveland Firm Cited On Fair Labor Act

CLEVELAND (AP) — Fisher Foods, Inc., operator of Fisher-Fazio-Costa Supermarkets, is accused of violating the deferal Fair Labor Standards Act in a civil action filed by the U.S. Department of Labor.

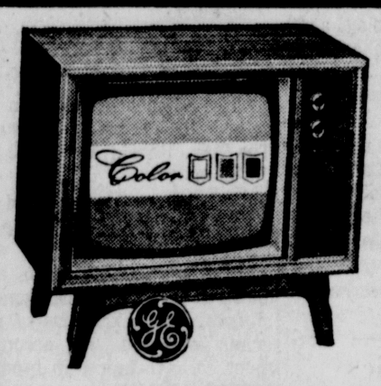

The action, filed in U.S. District Court Wednesday, alleges failure to pay minimum wages and proper overtime pay and failure to keep proper employe records for the past three years.

Pennsylvania Talks Continue

Non-Public School Aid Seen In Tax 'Package'

HARRISBURG (AP) — Rep. Martin P. Mullen said today he was confident the solution to the state's fiscal dilemma would include financial aid for parochial and private schools.

"I don't see any other way it can be worked out," Mullen, D-Philadelphia, commented.

Legislative leaders met with Gov. Shafer for 90 minutes Wednesday, on the heels of a four hour session Tuesday night, and were scheduled to get at it again at 3 p.m. this afternoon.

Shafer called the latest bargaining session "most satisfactory," and while insiting no final agreement had been reached, said a tax package could be passed as early as next week.

The hottest report to sneak out of the closely-guarded deliberations was that Shafer was agreeable to an additional penny tax on cigarettes, with proceeds earmarked solely for non public school aid. A nickel increase, to 13 cents, already has been approved this session.

Neither Shafer nor Mullen would comment specifically on the report.

"The conferees have agreed all along not to discuss specifics until we reached a final solution," Shafer said.

"I don't want to upset the applecart while the leaders and the governor are still talking," Mullen said.

That something was afoot on nonpublic school assistance became evident when Mullen abruptly called off his announced plans to drive for release of HB 1136 from the Republican-controlled House Appropriations Committee.

Shafer said he met with Mullen earlier in the day "on the total revenue picture," and that, as a result of their discussions, the Philadelphia Democrat agreed "not to press his discharge resolution."

HB1136 would set aside 25 per cent of the cigarette tax—better than 3 cents — for nonpublic school aid. Mullen estimated this would mean approximately $39 million annually.

He declined to say if he would compromise for a penny. An additional cent on the tax, it was estimated, would bring in $7 million during the remaining 7½ months of the current fiscal year and $13 million over a full year.

Other tax measures reportedly receiving priority consideration by Shafer and the legislative leaders were:

— Extension of the 5 per cent sales tax to clothing, $50 million.

— Elimination of the 50-cent sales tax exemption on restaurant meals, $8.5 million.

— Extension of the sales tax to include trade-in values on cars and other equipment, $18 million.

— An increase in the capital stock tax from 5 to 6 mills, $25 million.

— An increase in the capital stock tax from 5 to 6 mills, $25 million.

— An increase in the utility gross receipts tax from 14 to 20 mills, $16.8 million.

— Tripling the inheritance tax from 2 to 6 per cent, $15 million.

— An increase from 15 to 18 per cent in the liquor tax, $5.5 million.

The last four proposals were parts of Shafer's original $266 million tax package.

In other developments:

Conservation — The Senate sent to the House, without debate, a bill to implement the $500 million conservation and reclamation bond issue approved by the voters last May. The measure would limit the initial borrowing to $100 million.

Civil Rights — The House gave final approval to legislation that would prohibit an individual from discriminating in the sale of his private home and receded from its objections to Senate changes in a fair employment bill.

Labor — The Shafer administration labor package was released from House committee, and there was strong indication Democrats might try to liberalize the program.

Reserve Board Urges Tax Hike

Industrial Output Lags; Steel, Copper Prices Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders in the steel and copper industries plan price increases as the government reports a second straight monthly drop in the nation's industrial output.

As the price hikes were being announced Wednesday, Chairman William McChesney Martin of the Federal Reserve Board urged Congress to enact a tax hike to stem inflation. President Johnson's proposed 10 per cent income tax surcharge appears all but dead for this session of Congress.

Martin said disruptive forces already are at work on the economy.

Adding to the economy's woes were continued scattered strikes in the auto industry.

U.S. Steel announced it will hike prices of most types of wire and various materials for railroads by less than 3 per cent, effective Nov. 27. The nation's biggest steelmaker said the products involved represent about 3 per cent of its total shipments.

The increase is the latest in a series of steel industry price boosts this year. The items involved account for more than 25 per cent of industry shipments.

Phelps Dodge Copper Products Corp., said meanwhile it will increase prices of its full range of tube products about 4 cents a pound beginning Friday.

The copper industry has been hit by a strike of miners since July 15. Phelps-Dodge said its boost will "partially compensate for the cost of obtaining copper" from other sources.

The Federal Reserve Board, announcing the decline in industrial output, blamed strikes and a 6 per cent drop in oil production resulting from an improved supply from the Middle East.

The board's index of industrial production dropped five-tenths of one point in October to 156.2 per cent of the 1957-59 base period. The index slipped 1.5 points in September, largely because of strikes—the biggest at Ford Motor Co.—and the curtailed oil production.

This marked the first time since the economic slowdown last February and March that the index dropped in two straight months.

Martin, speaking before the new index was announced, said strikes have clouded the economy's basic strength.

A similar argument was made by the President's Council of aeconomic Advisers. Chairman Gardner Ackley predicted last week the index would make an unexciting showing and cited the strikes as a factor.

Last week, the government reported a 4.3 per cent unemployment rate—the highest in two years, and a 2 per cent drop in retail sales during October. The Ford strike was listed as a factor in the sales drop.

Auto Batteries Stolen In Salineville District

Two auto batteries were reported stolen Wednesday in the Salineville area, according to Constable Alvin K. Johnston.

Mrs. Georgia McGillivary of 204 E. Main St. reported a 12-volt battery was stolen from her 1957 model car while her son was hunting near Township Rd. 765 near Salineville.

The Rev. James Boggs of 815 Commerce St., Wellsville, told Johnston a battery and two battery cables were taken from his 1965 vehicle which was parked on Route 164 near Monroeville. Rev. Boggs had left his car overnight because of slippery roads, Johnston said.

Poolroom Thief Flees With Cash

A city poolroom was reported broken into late Wednesday morning and police were notified of two acts of vandalism committed yesterday.

James Duka, an employe of the American Poolroom at Market and E. 4th Sts., told authorities someone entered the establishment after closing time Tuesday by breaking a lock on the cellar door.

Duka said the thief apparently made his way upstairs where he took $20 and rifled the cigarette machine, obtaining another $40. The machine is owned by the Hune Co.

Mrs. Harold Brozka of 1312 Perry Ave. told police last night someone broke a window in her garage door, but nothing was reported taken. Glass was found on a car parked in the garage.

Nate Alpern of 1414 Pennsylvania Ave. said Wednesday someone threw a heavy object at his 1947 ton-and-a-half truck while it was parked in Ridge Alley, breaking a window.

2 Workers Injured In Airport Accident

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two workers were injured slightly Wednesday when a blast from a jet airliner blew down a warehouse office wall at Cleveland Hopkins International Airport.

Two mechanics were moving the United Airlines Boeing 727 to another part of the airport after it had been unloaded at United's freight terminal.

Freight agent Norman Bayless, 28, and a warehouseman Frank Radwan, 35, were treated at the airport clinic for cuts and bruises and then sent home.

Tension Eases On Cyprus As Greek Cypriots Leave

By ALEX EFTY
Associated Press Writer

NICOSIA, Cyrpsu (AP) — Tension eased on Cyprus today as Greek Cypriot troops withdrew at sunrise from two villages they overran in the most serious outbreak of communal fighting in nearly two years.

The government forces also released to U.N. peacekeeping troops about 250 Turkish Cypriot men who had been rounded up in a house-to-house search Wednesday after eight hours of fighting.

The U.N. troops took control of the villages and prepared to return the men home.

In Ankara, Turkey's Cabinet met through the night, its armed forces were placed on the alert and Turkey's airports were closed to civilian traffic for several hours. But the Greek Cypriot backdown appeared to ease the threat of retaliation from Turkey, 40 miles north of Cyprus, and the Turkish airports reopened.

U.N. sources in Nicosia said medical teams from the U.N. peace force found 23 Turkish Cypriot bodies in the two villages 40 miles south of Nicosia, Turkish Kophinou and Greek-Turish Ayios Theodorus.

Greek Cypriot officers on the scene told newsmen only one of their soldiers was killed.

U.N. headquarters in Nicosia said the total number of casualties had not been established, but seven wounded Turkish Cypriot civilians had been evacuated to Nicosia.

Turkish President Cevdet Sunay broke off a tour of Turkey's eastern provinces to hurry back to Ankara. Gen. Cemal Tural, chief of the Turkish general staff, met twice during the night with the Cabinet. One of the commanders told newsmen the armed forces had been put on the alert and might intervene in Cyprus "if necessary."

Turkish Premier Suleyman Demirel said the Cabinet would inform the Parliament later today about the situation on Cyprus. In answer to newsmen's queries, he did not say the crisis had lessened but noted that Greek Cypriot troops had pulled back.

A diplomat in Ankara said it was believed pressure from the Greek government in Athens played a role in the withdrawal. Turkish Ambassador Turan Tului conferred for half an hour in Athens today with Greek Foreign Undersecretary Constantine Christopoulos but there was no announcement afterward.

Turkish Cypriot leaders accused the Greek Cypriots of attacking first.

Mystery Man Held In Panama

Shabby Peddler Probed, May Be 'Gestapo Chief'

By LUIS NOLI

PANAMA (AP) — Panamanian and West German police are investigating a graying, shabby peddler arrested on suspicion that he is Heinrich Mueller, Hitler's last Gestapo chief and Adolf Eichmann's boss.

The mystery man claimed he was a 61-year-old U.S. citizen, Francis Willard Keith, born in Webb City, Mo., but Panamanian authorities said his German-accented English was barely intelligible.

His fingerprints were flown to West Berlin for comparison with those of Mueller, who was reported alive in Hitler's bunker just before the fall of the Nazis in 1945.

The chief of Panama's Department of Investigations, Hector Valdes, said there was a strong resemblance between the man arrested Tuesday and photographs of Mueller but his department had failed to connect the two.

"I don't believe he is the man," Valdes told a reporter.

West Germany's Justice Ministry said the suspect was identfied as Mueller by a Belgian informant who also said a Belgian graphologist had confirmed the suspect's handwriting was that of the former lieutenant general in Heinrich Himmler's SS Elite Guard.

Newsmen who viewed the suspect at a news conference Wednesday night saw a man apparently in his 60s with several days growth of stubble. He sat silent in the glare of television lights, wearing a light gray coat and faded brown trousers. When a reporter handed him a microphone, he gave it to Valdes who did not permit questions.

Mueller was believed dead by many Germans, but last week the West German Central Office for Nazi Crimes said it had uncovered a new "hot trail" to him. It came from Simon Wiesenthal, the Viennese Nazi hunter who directed Israeli agents to Eichmann in Argentina.

Valdes said he personally arrested the man in a Panama City restaurant and described him as a peddler of ties, honey and liquor who had lived in Panama for eight or ten years. Valdes called him "half crazy."

In London, Dr. Gerhart Riegner, secretary-general of the World Jewish Congress, said Mueller was a leading participant in the 1942 Wannsee conference which planned the annihilation of Europe's Jews.

Two employes of the Israeli Ministry of Labor were arrested on Nov. 2 in the Munich home of Mueller's wife. Their lawyer said they were seeking evidence that Mueller was still alive and were acting as private individuals, not on government orders.

Agreement At Findlay Ends Teacher Boycott

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)— Subcommittees representing the school board here and the Findlay Education Association met Wednesday and reached an agreement ending a two-day teachers boycott.

The boycott closed Findlay's one high school, three junior highs and 10 elementary schools. Some of the schools were kept open briefly Tuesday by nonparticipating teachers aided by parents.

The main issue in the boycott was recognition of the FEA as a body representing the teachers. Recognition was promised Wednesday.

Hearings Postponed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interstate Commerce Commission's hearings into the merger of the Norfolk & Western and Chesapeake & Ohio Railway systems has been postponed until next Wednesday.

Steel Union Against Blue Cross Boost

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Blue Cross of Western Pennsylvania's request for a 15.6 per cent rate increase to allegedly stave off bankruptcy has run into opposition from the United Steelworkers Union.

Blue Cross President William H. Ford told a state Insurance Commision hearing Wednesday the non-profit organization is in a dangerous financial condition, due primarily to rising hospital and medical costs.

But Bernard Greenberg, an insurance expert with the steelworkers, opposed the increase, and offered an alternative.

He said individual billings of all Blue Cross patients—2,250,000 subscribers in 29 Western Pennsylvania counties — should be abandoned.

Hospitals should be required to apply for an annual operating budget, as determined by a review committee named by the Governor, with Blue Cross required to pay a proportionate share, Greenberg said.

The rate increase also was opposed by Mayor Peter J. Page of Bethel Park, representing the Association of Mayors of the Boroughs of Pennsylvania.

He asked insurance Commissioner David O. Maxwell to postpone any decision on the request until March 1 to allow his group to investigate "complaints from all over the state" against Blue Cross.

Ford said Blue Cross has been losing money since mid-1964 and that its reserve funds have dropped to a dangerous low.

"The plan's total reserve fund dropped from $16,034,685 at the end of 1963 to $2,535,389 as of July 31, 1967. This decline of nearly $13.5 million destroyed the reserve as a general contingency fund," he said.

Blue Cross wants to increase its rates Feb. 1 to subscribers of its 21-80 and standard agreement plans. This would affect 857,500 subscribers or 40 per cent of its enrollment.

Youth Convicted In Murder Of Bus Driver, 39

CLEVELAND (AP)—A Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court jury convicted Wayne Flonnory of two counts of first-degree murder without a recommendation of mercy Wednesday night in the March 4 slaying of a bus driver.

The mandatory death sentence was deferred by Judge Thomas J. Parrino pending a psychiatric report on Flonnory.

The jury of nine men and three women deliberated six hours in finding the 19-year-old Flonnory guilty of premeditated murder and murder in the perpetration of robbery.

Flonnory burst into tears when the verdict was read.

He was charged with killing 39-year-old Willie Jackson, a Cleveland Transit System bus driver, during a $30 holdup at a deserted bus turnaround at East 105th Street and Upont Avenue.

Jackson, father of four, pleaded for his life as he was shot five times with a .38-caliber pistol, according to testimony at the trial.

Flonnory denied taking part in the holdup-slaying. He is charged with five other men in the robbery-slaying of an East Side grocer three days after Jackson was slain.

Dangerous Job

DENVER (AP) — A process server, Calvin Smith, went to a stockyards auction to serve a complaint and became an unwilling bidder for an Angus calf.

When Smith pointed his finger at the man he wanted to hand the subpoena, the auctioneer called, "I'm bid $400." But Smith didn't have to buy the calf — someone else bid $500.

Britain Prods Council On Mideast Issue

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Britain plans a determined effort to prod the U.N. Security Council into unanimous action toward a settlement to the Middle East stalemate, declaring that the "time to decide has come."

The United States urged the council Wednesday to reach an accord calling for Israeli withdrawal from captured Arab lands but also supporting Israel's insistence on "secure and recognized" boundaries.

"Only the parties themselves can make peace," added U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg.

The council did reach a decision on Portugal, condemning the Lisbon government for permitting foreign mercenaries to use Portuguese Angola for an abortive invasion of the Congo.

Portugal has denied any knowledge of mercenary operations from Angola and its U.N. delegate, Francisco Bonifacio de Miranda, called the condemnation "gratuitous and baseless." But Soviet representative Platon Morozov, said the resolution did not go far enough because it did not call on Portugal's fellow members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to respect U.N. charter provisions barring interference in the internal affairs of another state.

In the Middle East debate, Britain's Lord Caradon complained that the Security Council has been bogged down for weeks by "dreadful and damaging delays and persistent and frustrating disagreements."

The council may consider as many as four separate Arab-Israeli peace plans. A U.S. plan and an India-Mali-Nigeria proposal are formally before the council, Argentina and Brazil are ready to introduce another and Britain is reported working on a separate draft.

Warren Schools Head Warns On Defeat Of Levy

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Superintendent of Schools David L. Moberly says Warren city schools will have to close if a 19.5-mill operating levy is not approved by voters at a special election Dec. 12.

"This is not meant as a threat, but the hard, cold facts," Dr. Moberly said Wednesday.

The levy is a combination of 16.5 mills in renewal and three additional mills just to keep the schools open, the superintendent said. The additional money is needed, he added, to meet salary schedules for 1,000 staff members and an increase in operating costs.

The Board of Education also has voted to present at the special election a 1.3-mill levy to provide funds for 10 special services, including kindergarten.

The levies would run for five years.

Voters rejected a 20.8 mill levy by a 400-vote margin at the Nov. 7 election, when a majority was needed for passage. In the special election the two issues will require a 55 per cent affirmative vote.

State foundation funds also would be cut off if the millage is not approved, Moberly said.

Ex-Mayor Is Honored At Dinner In Bexley

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — William Schneider, longtime Franklin County Republican chairman, was honored in suburban Bexley Wednesday night for the 32 years he's served as the community's mayor.

Schneider, 84, did not run for re-election this year.

More than 300 persons attended a dinner at Capital University in honor of Schneider.

NEW CUMBERLAND — Mildred M. Michael, 32, of New Cumberland escaped injury Wednesday at 5:30 a.m. when her car struck a utility pole and spun around on N. Chestnut St. Damage to the car was heavy, Police Chief William Webster said.

VD SPEAKER. Fred Martich, U.S. Public Health Service aide, will speak at a public screening of a film on veneral disease tonight at 8 at Westgate School auditorium, sponsored by the East Liverpool Junior Women's Club.

Group To Aid Indian School

LISBON — The Columbiana County Extension Homemakers Council will help furnish kitchens in a homemakers school at Udipar, India. The school is sponsored by Ohio State University.

The women voted to give $25 to the project following a combined meeting with the Mahoning County Council at the Home Savings & Loan Co. in Salem. Mrs. Janice Eells of Elkton, president of the Colmbiana group, and Mrs. Vada Reel of the Mahoning unit, presided for the combined session. The groups met separately after lunch.

Ann Riedel, Columbiana extension agent for home economics, said a committee will visit high schools to promote the Minnie Price Scholarships offered by the Ohio Extension Homemakers Council to girls interested in studying home economics at OSU.

Edna Akers, extension clothing specialist from OSU, will speak for the Columbiana County Achievement Day program in late April on "Selection of Men's Clothing."

Mrs. Myron McCamon of Elkton and Mrs. Kenneth Reash of Columbiana were elected representatives to the county extension advisory committee.

Expense Report Filed By 4 More Aspirants

Four men who sought office in East Liverpool at the Nov. 7 general election have filed campaign expense statements with the County Election Board.

Ernest Lowe, incumbent Republican council president who was unsuccessful in a bid for re-election, reported a total of $86.60 spent on his campaign.

Victor Lee Smith, Republican, who failed in a bid for a council-at-large position, said he spent $108.11.

Frank Duffy, Democrat, who was returned to his Council-at-large post, listed $80.80 expenses.

U.S. Steel Boosts Price On Some Items

PITTSBURGH (AP) — U.S. Steel Corp. has ordered price increases of "less than 3 per cent" on some wire extras and various materials sold to the railroads.

Similar wire boosts were announced recently by other producers.

Price revisions on rail accessories and wrought steel wheels also were announced along with minor increases in certain special forged steel axles.

The increases, announced Wednesday, are effective Nov. 27.

Profit In Drawer

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP) — Mrs. Harold Burgess paid $28 for a used cash register at a sheriff's sale, and then couldn't get the drawer open. When a repair man opened it for her, there was $76 in currency inside. Mrs. Burgess' overall profit was $3—she had to pay $45 to have the register put in working condition.

Marcos Hold On Philippine Senate Seen

MANILA (AP) — President Ferdinand E. Marcos appeared assured today of the control of the Philippine Senate needed to provide firm ground for his 1969 re-election campaign.

With more than half the votes in Tuesday's off-year elections counted, Marcos' Nacionalista party was ahead in six of the eight Senate races. The president needed that many more seats in the 24-member Senate to assure passage of the economic programs on which he expects to campaign.

Ex-Gov. Benigno Aquino, an outspoken Liberal party critic of Marcos, led all senatorial vote-getters, however.

Mrs. Magnolia Antonio, an independent riding a wave of sympathy, also seemed certain of election. She substituted for her husband who died in a helicopter crash less than 24 hours before balloting started.

Nacionalistas also ran up substantial leads in provincial and municipal elections. In 65 governorship races, they were ahead in 41. Liberals led in 13 and independents in three.

Manila gave the Liberals their only other major victory. Mayor Antonio Villegas, a critic of Marcos with anti-American leanings, trounced the president's handpicked candidate, Pablo Ocampo, by 50,000 votes.

The traditional violence that surrounds Philippine politics brought death to 60 persons since the start of campaigning early this year, the national police reported. Despite nine election-day killings, the police called the balloting "generally peaceful." The Philippine News Service reported 107 political killings for the year and said more than 30 persons were slain on election day.

Meteor Shower To Begin Tonight In District Skies

If you see a falling star tonight, it won't necessarily be Shirley Temple — shot down in her California bid for a congressional seat.

It will be the real thing—a shower of Leonid meteors — according to the Buhl Planetarium at Pittsburgh. The shower of "shooting stars" is expected to hit its peak about 1 a. m. Friday.

A few of the meteors may be seen as soon as the sky darkens tonight, if clouds do not interfere. The Leonids, so-called because they appear to radiate from the constellation of Leo the Lion, are bluish green in color and often leave vivid trains.

At the maximum of the shower, sky - watchers may see 25 meteors an hour. Smaller numbers should be visible Friday night. Probably the most spectacular meteor shower in history was provided by the Leonids in 1833, when many thousands an hour were observed.

YOUR DOCTOR HAS HIS CHOICE at DYNAMIC DISCOUNT DRUGS

GENERICS or BRAND NAMES

It has been the policy of Discount Drugs to price prescriptions as low as possible consistant with the highest quality standards. Now, we offer your doctor a CHOICE at Dynamic Discount Drugs.

The choice of prescribing by brand name, or Generic name, is entirely up to your physician. Generic production has expanded, and Dynamic Discount Drugs HAS RESEARCHED THE MANUFACTURERS in order to offer the finest in specially made Generic drugs.

The BRAND NAME under which a pharmaceutical company manufactures and sells a certain drug usually is patented and when a Dynamic Discount Drugs pharmacist receives a prescription for a brand name, he legally is required to provide the exact product specified by your doctor. He must also price the prescription according to his cost on the Brand Name drug, which, due to promotional and distribution expense, is somewhat higher than comparable generic drugs.

The GENERIC NAME, by contrast, is the official common name of a drug. For example, certain so-called blood pressure reducing drugs known under familiar brand names also are described by the GENERIC name of "Reserpine." Generally, a Generic drug prescription will be a lot less than the price of a prescription of a brand name because of the economics of distribution and advertising.

Your doctor knows this, but he also knows when a certain illness will best be cured by the makeup of a particular brand name drug. IF HE DOES PRESCRIBE A GENERIC DRUG rely on Dynamic Drugs to fill your prescription. The highest quality generic drugs available are in stock at Dynamic Discount. This is another of the many reasons it always pays to shop and save at Dynamic Discount. When lower prices can be given, and quality assured, you'll find Dynamic Discount Drugs first to help your budget and your health.

Dynamic Discount serves you. When you're paying a lower price, you're shopping at Discount Drugs.

See your doctor - if he hands you a prescription — bring it to Dynamic Discount for the lowest price, without having to accept less than top drawer quality & service.

Hints Altering Support Of LBJ

Kennedy Puts New Drama To McCarthy 'Candidacy'

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's hint that he might alter his announced support of President Johnson in 1968 adds new drama to the potential opposition candidacy of Minnesota Democratic Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

Kennedy said Wednesday that McCarthy is likely to generate some important backing if he enters presidential primaries as an outspoken opponent to Johnson's Vietnam war policies.

Asked how a McCarthy candidacy would affect his previously announced decision to support President Johnson's expected bid for re-election despite his criticism of some of the President's Vietnam policies, the New York senator said:

"I perhaps will have something to say further if Sen. McCarthy announces."

Kennedy also said if he were Johnson he'd consider McCarthy's possible candidacy "very serious," and added: "I think he'll (McCarthy) receive some support around the country. I think from the people I've talked to, in California, New England, the Midwest, he'll have some support."

Kennedy was interviewed on the CBS Evening News.

McCarthy has said he was considering getting in to the race for the Democratic nomination because he felt Kennedy's announced intention of supporting Johnson left a vacuum in which voters had no direct way of expressing their opposition to Vietnam policies.

McCarthy wasn't immediately available for comment on Kennedy's statements. But in an earlier interview Wednesday the Minnesotan said any bid he makes for the Democratic nomination would aim at giving voters a chance to exert the kind of pressure he thinks might cause Johnson to change his course in Vietnam.

"Vietnam is an important issue and it can't be pushed aside," he said. "It is the kind of issue that should be presented squarely to the people under the established procedures of American politics.

"It has got to be presented with personal identification. It can't be dealt with as an abstract issue. If it is identified with a personality in the primaries the people can make their judgment."

McCarthy said personal political ambitions don't enter into the matter. Some Democratic colleagues suspect he is counting on antiwar sentiment to produce a respectable showing for him which—linked with national publicity—would make him a factor in the fight for the 1972 Democratic presidential nomination.

McCarthy said he hasn't even thought about 1972.

The Minnesota senator dismissed as furthest from his mind reports that he hopes by his venture to offer a future party leadership challenge to Kennedy.

But he does not deny the obvious—that Kennedy's resistance to being shoved into opposing Johnson next year contributed to his own nearing decision to take the plunge himself.

McCarthy says frankly that he would hope to revive the Adlai E. Stevenson liberal strain in the party and give the John F. Kennedy people somebody to rally around next year in view of Robert Kennedy's absence from the fray.

When he persisted in putting Stevenson's name before the 1960 Democratic convention, McCarthy won the plaudits of the party liberals. But the price he paid was a subsequent frosty, arms-length relationship with the Kennedys.

He conceivably could find one of the clan, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., standing in for the President in the Massachusetts primary. This is one of four tests McCarthy may undertake, with the others in New Hampshire, Wisconsin and California.

Meanwhile some party dissidents, organizing as a group called Concerned Democrats, said McCarthy would be the featured speaker at a national meeting Dec. 2-3 in Chicago.

Allard K. Lowenstein, the conference organizer, said the group's purpose is "to replace President Johnson with a candidate who will reverse his actions in Vietnam and their consequences at home and abroad."

State Gives OK For Vocational Education Plans

Tentative approval of some vocational education programs for East Liverpool has been given by Ohio Department of Education authorities, Assistant Supt. Carl Pelini reported today.

Pelini conferred with authorities at Columbus Wednesday. He along with Supt. Paul Blair and Harry McConville, board of education member, were en route to Columbus yesterday morning when Blair was forced off Route 30 west of Lisbon by a tractor-trailer rig.

The three men were uninjured, and returned to East Liverpool to get Pelini's car to go to the state capital. Pelini returned last night by airplane while Blair and McConville remained for the meeting of the Ohio School Boards Association.

Mrs. Nessie Dunlop, board president, also is at the OSBA meeting, traveling to Columbus Tuesday with Robert Beatty, architect for the school building program.

Ohio Youth Convicted In Slaying Of Mother

CARROLLTON, Ohio (AP)—A 17-year-old youth charged with first-degree murder in the shotgun slaying of his mother was convicted by a Carroll County Common Pleas Court jury Wednesday with a recommendation of mercy. Judge Frank P. Cope deferred sentencing Donald R. Yoss, who was tried as an adult after a psychiatric examination.

The youth, an only child, was accused of killing his mother, Mrs. Donald E. Yoss, 34, at their home near here June 30, 1966.

10 Cities Eyed As Antimissile Defense Sites

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government has announced the first 10 cities to be considered as sites for the so-called "thin" antimissile defense system now being planned.

The Pentagon listed the cities Wednesday as New York, Honolulu; Albany, Ga.; Chicago; Dallas; Grand Forks, N.D., Salt Lake City; Seattle, Wash.; Boston and Detroit.

The system is expected eventually to involve 15 to 20 batteries of Sentinel antimissiles. It's designed to shield the nation from any possible attack by Red China in the 1970s.

"The system will give protection to all U.S. cities, not only those near missile site locations," the Defense Department said.

The planned $5 billion system, featuring long-range and super-fast short-range antimissies, includes radar and computers tying the batteries into a defense umbrella.

Sen. Williams Blasts Social Security Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate Republican leading opposition to a Democratic-backed Social Security bill charges it is based more on political factors than on sound financing.

Sen. John J. Williams of Delaware, who fought in the Senate Finance Committee against the bill proposing the biggest cash benefit increases in Social Security history, told the Democrats as full Senate debate began Wednesday:

"You want to boast of all the benefits you're giving the people before the election year and then put on the taxes to pay for them after the votes are counted."

Williams referred to a provision under which total benefits would be hiked by $3.5 billion next April, and by another $5.8 billion in 1969, and financed by a hike in maximum annual payroll deductions from the current $290.40 annually to $352 next year and $422.40 in 1969.

Williams and other Republicans on the committee contend the tax increases next year — election year—would not be sufficient to cover the proposed hike in benefits.

But Chairman Russell B. Long, D-La., of the Finance Committee maintained the financing plan is conservative. He said the proposed increases in benefits and taxes would mean a $2.2 billion surplus in the Social Security fund.

Colorado Girl Wins National Grange Prize

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — April Alverson, 16, Denver, Colo. won the top prize Wednesday at the Centennial Convention of the National Grange.

Miss Alverson's entry, an original, bright, multicolored dress, won her an automobile, a mink stole and $1,000 in cash.

A top winner in the art catagory was Linda Snyder of Shelby, Ohio.

British Figure Dies

FARNHAM, England (AP) — Lord Chatfield, 94, admiral of the fleet who rammed the British navy before World War II, died Wednesday. He became first sea lord and naval chief of staff in 1933, serving five years. During the war he worked in civilian defense.

Three Hurt In Collision

Two men and a woman were injured in a two - car collision on Dewey Ave. Ext. Wednesday, one of three area mishaps investigated by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Bernice Davis, 40, of 273 Center St. was headed south when she lost control of her 1965 sedan on the icy pavement, and it went left of center, colliding with an oncoming auto operated by Paul R. Adams, 45, of 1048 Huston Ave.

Delbert Hull Jr., 43, of 843 Pennsylvania Ave., a passenger in Adams' car, was treated at City Hospital for cuts of the chin and eyebrow. Adams, his brother - in - law, suffered a cut and bruises.

The woman also was shaken and bruised, officers said. She was charged with traveling at a speed too fast for conditions. The mishap occrred at 1 p.m., about a half mile north of the city limits.

A tractor - trailer rig operated by Edward Hanks, 45, of Galax, Va., rammed into an underpass at Signal late yesterday afternoon and became lodged.

Hanks was headed west on Route 154 when the trailer of the rig hit the low underpass about 5:50 p. m., blocking the road for some time.

Albert L. Shultz, 44, of Teegarden Rd., near Leetonia, was cited for driving while intoxicated after a mishap on Route 344 at 7:20 p. m.

Police Car Damaged In Salineville Mishap

Salineville Police Chief Gordon Sweeney was too close to the scene of an accident involving a woman driver Wednesday morning in Salineville.

Non-Public School Aid Seen In Tax 'Package'

HARRISBURG (AP) — Rep. Martin P. Mullen said today he was confident the solution to the state's fiscal dilemma would include financial aid for parochial and private schools.

"I don't see any other way it can be worked out," Mullen, D-Philadelphia, commented.

Legislative leaders met with Gov. Shafer for 90 minutes Wednesday, on the heels of a four hour session Tuesday night, and were scheduled to get at it again at 3 p.m. this afternoon.

Shafer called the latest bargaining session "most satisfactory," and while insiting no final agreement had been reached, said a tax package could be passed as early as next week.

The hottest report to sneak out of the closely-guarded deliberations was that Shafer was agreeable to an additional penny tax on cigarettes, with proceeds earmarked solely for non public school aid. A nickel increase, to 13 cents, already has been approved this session.

Neither Shafer nor Mullen would comment specifically on the report.

"The conferees have agreed all along not to discuss specifics until we reached a final solution," Shafer said.

"I don't want to upset the applecart while the leaders and the governor are still talking," Mullen said.

That something was afoot on nonpublic school assistance became evident when Mullen abruptly called off his announced plans to drive for release of HB 1136 from the Republican-controlled House Appropriations Committee.

Shafer said he met with Mullen earlier in the day "on the total revenue picture," and that, as a result of their discussions, the Philadelphia Democrat agreed "not to press his discharge resolution."

HB1136 would set aside 25 per cent of the cigarette tax—better than 3 cents — for nonpublic school aid. Mullen estimated this would mean approximately $39 million annually.

He declined to say if he would compromise for a penny. An additional cent on the tax, it was estimated, would bring in $7 million during the remaining 7½ months of the current fiscal year and $13 million over a full year.

Other tax measures reportedly receiving priority consideration by Shafer and the legislative leaders were:

— Extension of the 5 per cent sales tax to clothing, $50 million.

— Elimination of the 50-cent sales tax exemption on restaurant meals, $8.5 million.

— Extension of the sales tax to include trade-in values on cars and other equipment, $18 million.

— An increase in the capital stock tax from 5 to 6 mills, $25 million.

— An increase in the capital stock tax from 5 to 6 mills, $25 million.

— An increase in the utility gross receipts tax from 14 to 20 mills, $16.8 million.

— Tripling the inheritance tax from 2 to 6 per cent, $15 million.

— An increase from 15 to 18 per cent in the liquor tax, $5.5 million.

The last four proposals were parts of Shafer's original $266 million tax package.

In other developments:

Conservation — The Senate sent to the House, without debate, a bill to implement the $500 million conservation and reclamation bond issue approved by the voters last May. The measure would limit the initial borrowing to $100 million.

Civil Rights — The House gave final approval to legislation that would prohibit an individual from discriminating in the sale of his private home and receded from its objections to Senate changes in a fair employment bill.

Labor — The Shafer administration labor package was released from House committee, and there was strong indication Democrats might try to liberalize the program.

Reserve Board Urges Tax Hike

Industrial Output Lags; Steel, Copper Prices Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders in the steel and copper industries plan price increases as the government reports a second straight monthly drop in the nation's industrial output.

As the price hikes were being announced Wednesday, Chairman William McChesney Martin of the Federal Reserve Board urged Congress to enact a tax hike to stem inflation. President Johnson's proposed 10 per cent income tax surcharge appears all but dead for this session of Congress.

Martin said disruptive forces already are at work on the economy.

Adding to the economy's woes were continued scattered strikes in the auto industry.

U.S. Steel announced it will hike prices of most types of wire and various materials for railroads by less than 3 per cent, effective Nov. 27. The nation's biggest steelmaker said the products involved represent about 3 per cent of its total shipments.

The increase is the latest in a series of steel industry price boosts this year. The items involved account for more than 25 per cent of industry shipments.

Phelps Dodge Copper Products Corp., said meanwhile it will increase prices of its full range of tube products about 4 cents a pound beginning Friday.

The copper industry has been hit by a strike of miners since July 15. Phelps-Dodge said its boost will "partially compensate for the cost of obtaining copper" from other sources.

The Federal Reserve Board, announcing the decline in industrial output, blamed strikes and a 6 per cent drop in oil production resulting from an improved supply from the Middle East.

The board's index of industrial production dropped five-tenths of one point in October to 156.2 per cent of the 1957-59 base period. The index slipped 1.5 points in September, largely because of strikes—the biggest at Ford Motor Co.—and the curtailed oil production.

This marked the first time since the economic slowdown last February and March that the index dropped in two straight months.

Martin, speaking before the new index was announced, said strikes have clouded the economy's basic strength.

A similar argument was made by the President's Council of aeconomic Advisers. Chairman Gardner Ackley predicted last week the index would make an unexciting showing and cited the strikes as a factor.

Last week, the government reported a 4.3 per cent unemployment rate—the highest in two years, and a 2 per cent drop in retail sales during October. The Ford strike was listed as a factor in the sales drop.

Auto Batteries Stolen In Salineville District

Two auto batteries were reported stolen Wednesday in the Salineville area, according to Constable Alvin K. Johnston.

Mrs. Georgia McGillivary of 204 E. Main St. reported a 12-volt battery was stolen from her 1957 model car while her son was hunting near Township Rd. 765 near Salineville.

The Rev. James Boggs of 815 Commerce St., Wellsville, told Johnston a battery and two battery cables were taken from his 1965 vehicle which was parked on Route 164 near Monroeville. Rev. Boggs had left his car overnight because of slippery roads, Johnston said.

Poolroom Thief Flees With Cash

A city poolroom was reported broken into late Wednesday morning and police were notified of two acts of vandalism committed yesterday.

James Duka, an employe of the American Poolroom at Market and E. 4th Sts., told authorities someone entered the establishment after closing time Tuesday by breaking a lock on the cellar door.

Duka said the thief apparently made his way upstairs where he took $20 and rifled the cigarette machine, obtaining another $40. The machine is owned by the Hune Co.

Mrs. Harold Brozka of 1312 Perry Ave. told police last night someone broke a window in her garage door, but nothing was reported taken. Glass was found on a car parked in the garage.

Nate Alpern of 1414 Pennsylvania Ave. said Wednesday someone threw a heavy object at his 1947 ton-and-a-half truck while it was parked in Ridge Alley, breaking a window.

2 Workers Injured In Airport Accident

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two workers were injured slightly Wednesday when a blast from a jet airliner blew down a warehouse office wall at Cleveland Hopkins International Airport.

Two mechanics were moving the United Airlines Boeing 727 to another part of the airport after it had been unloaded at United's freight terminal.

Freight agent Norman Bayless, 28, and a warehouseman Frank Radwan, 35, were treated at the airport clinic for cuts and bruises and then sent home.

And Best So, No Doubt

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) —Now and then life wears a mask of tiresome sameness.

Everyday actions become irksome by their repetition.

"I'm bored with it all," the soul exclaims inwardly in shallow self-pity.

It helps at such times to put life in perspective by drawing up a list of possible adventures that might make the world more exciting. You may never perform these postponed pleasures, but it is fun to consider them.

For example, now in the shady side of 50, I find that, for one reason or another, I have yet to—

Build a cofferdam or paint a flagpole.

Hold a ladder for a fireman while he rescues a kitten stranded in a tree.

Find a buried treasure.

Prove to my wife's satisfaction that the longest distance between two points is the shortset way home.

Catch a mouse in a trap.

Come in first in the rat race.

Inherit fame or money.

Tell a joke to a group of five people without at least three of them informing me later that they had heard it before.

Discover any kind of food that tastes better after its calories have been removed.

Reach up and find my brow is wet with honest sweat.

Get a callus on my finger from counting the cash in my wallet.

Shame the devil by telling the truth.

Con a widow out of her mite.

Win a game of stud poker aboard a Mississippi river steamboat.

Wear a police press card in my hatband, as those reporter fellows do in the movies.

Have any newspaper stop its presses and tear open the front page for any story I ever covered.

Feather a love nest.

Tattoo an eagle or a girl's name in living color on my forearm.

Wrestle a boa constrictor.

Keep a psychiatrist on the edge of his seat listening with awe to the tale of my troubles.

Dance a dithyramb, the boogaloo, or a blith strathspey.

Make a secret rendezvous with any member of a ruling European royal family.

Ghost the memoirs of Santa Claus under the title, "It Ain't the Sliding Down of Chimneys, It's the Climbing Back Up That Makes a Saint So Tired."

Bored How can any man be, when the world is so full of interesting chores still left undone.

Now that I've given you my list, it's your turn to give me yours. But are you sure that you don't have something else better to do

Republican Schweiker Seen Making Bid For U.S. Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican Richard S. Schweiker, four-term congressman from Pennsylvania's Montgomery County, is virtually certain to become a candidate for the Senate seat held by Democrat Joseph S. Clark Jr., according to sources in the Pennsylvania congressional delegation.

And, the sources said, Schweiker expects Clark to be the Democratic nominee.

Clark has not announced whether he will seek re-election next year.

Schweiker has said he will announce his plans by the first of the year.

But, sources said Tuesday, Schweiker is 99.8 per cent committed to running for the Senate.

Former Gov. William W. Scranton and John L. Tabor, state secretary for internal affairs, have also been mentioned as possible candidates for the GOP nomination.

Scranton has said repeatedly he will not seek the nomination, and the congressional sources described Schweiker as virtually certain that Scranton will not change his position.

The Schweiker camp also was said to believe that Tabor may choose to remain in state office.

Schweiker, 41, has been associated with the moderate to liberal group of Republican congressmen. He has urged a graduated reduction in the bombing of North Vietnam as a possible means of inducing the Communists to scale down the level of the ground fighting. And, he has urged steps toward placing the Army on an all-volunteer basis.

Schweiker has twice before been mentioned as a possible candidate for statewide office—for governor in 1962 and 1966.

But each time he decided instead to seek r-eelection to the House.

In 1964, he was active in the effort to secure the GOP presidential nomination for Scranton.

A report of the annual state session held at Akron was given by Brian and Cole, first vice president.

It was reported that during the local United Fund Campaign, members of the board of directors made solicitations throughout the area. Publicity included window displays, newspaper stories, radio announcements and a radio interview with Dr. Alex Fisher and Mrs. Barbara Jones.

Tentative plans were made for a Christmas party Dec. 8.

The next regular session will be held Jan. 16.

New Girl Scout Unit Established

A Senior Girl Scout Troop was organized at a meeting of a Cadet Troop Tuesday night at the First Methodist Church, according to Mrs. Thelma McKinnon, East Liverpool neighborhood chairman.

The Senior Troop will meet on Mondays from 7 to 8 p. m. at the McKinnon home at 153 Pennsylvania Ave. Membership still is open to any girl, 15 through 17. The age group of the Cadet Troop, which meets on Tuesdays in the First Methodist Church, includes seventh through ninth grades. Registration for all Girl Scouts should be in by the end of December.

Christmas caroling was discussed and all Girl Scouts will sing around the Christmas tree in the Diamond Dec. 19. All Girl Scouts will participate in the Christmas parade Nov. 24. A Christmas party for Junior, Cadet and Senior troops will be held Dec. 12.

3 Viet Cong Terrorists To Be Executed

SAIGON (AP) — Three convicted Viet Cong terrorists will be executed before dawn Friday, government sources said today.

American officials were reported unhappy about the executions, the first such in more than two years, since in the past the Communists have on two occasions executed American prisoners in reprisal.

The executions are scheduled to take place at Saigon's Chi Hoa prison.

Police sources said those who will die are Bui Van Chieu, Le Minh Chau and Truong Thanh Danh.

All were convicted by the 3rd corps Special Military Court, Chieu in May and the other two in June.

All were sentenced to be shot.

A number of times in the past the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese have threatened to execute American prisoners, both those captured in South Vietnam and pilots downed in the North, if the South Vietnamese government executed Viet Cong terrorists.

Cardinal Spellman Getting Checkup In Cleveland Clinic

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Francis Cardinal Spellman, Roman Catholic archbishop of New York is undergoing a checkup in Cleveland Clinic.

The 78-year-old prelate was admitted to the clinic Tuesday night under an assumed name, but his presence there became known to newsmen Wednesday night.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. James F. Rigney, the cardinal's secretary, said in New York, "There was no emergency, and the hospital visit had been planned in advance." He said the cardinal's visit to the clinic was for a routine five-day checkup.

"The cardinal went to Cleveland Clinic out of a wish for privacy and a desire not to worry his friends," Msgr. Rigney said.

Cardinal Spellman came here from meetings of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops in Washington, D.C., where he was seen Tuesday afternoon and appeared to be in good health.

A spokesman for the clinic said he was permitted to say only that the cardinal was here for a checkup and would remain "several days"—the usual time for such examinations. "I'm sure there is nothing critical," the clinic spokesman added.

In 1964 he underwent a prostate operation at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn.

As military vicar of the Roman Catholic Church, Cardinal Spellman has visited American troops abroad at Christmas time in World War II, the Korean War and in the Vietnam war. He flew to Vietnam last year and told troops:

"I don't think I'd be able to come back once more, and I doubt if I'll be around next year."

Overran 2 Villages

Tension Eases On Cyprus As Greek Cypriots Leave

By ALEX EFTY
Associated Press Writer

NICOSIA, Cyrpsu (AP) — Tension eased on Cyprus today as Greek Cypriot troops withdrew at sunrise from two villages they overran in the most serious outbreak of communal fighting in nearly two years.

The government forces also released to U.N. peacekeeping troops about 250 Turkish Cypriot men who had been rounded up in a house-to-house search Wednesday after eight hours of fighting.

The U.N. troops took control of the villages and prepared to return the men home.

In Ankara, Turkey's Cabinet met through the night, its armed forces were placed on the alert and Turkey's airports were closed to civilian traffic for several hours. But the Greek Cypriot backdown appeared to ease the threat of retaliation from Turkey, 40 miles north of Cyprus, and the Turkish airports reopened.

U.N. sources in Nicosia said medical teams from the U.N. peace force found 23 Turkish Cypriot bodies in the two villages 40 miles south of Nicosia, Turkish Kophinou and Greek-Turish Ayios Theodorus.

Greek Cypriot officers on the scene told newsmen only one of their soldiers was killed.

U.N. headquarters in Nicosia said the total number of casualties had not been established, but seven wounded Turkish Cypriot civilians had been evacuated to Nicosia.

Turkish President Cevdet Sunay broke off a tour of Turkey's eastern provinces to hurry back to Ankara. Gen. Cemal Tural, chief of the Turkish general staff, met twice during the night with the Cabinet. One of the commanders told newsmen the armed forces had been put on the alert and might intervene in Cyprus "if necessary."

Turkish Premier Suleyman Demirel said the Cabinet would inform the Parliament later today about the situation on Cyprus. In answer to newsmen's queries, he did not say the crisis had lessened but noted that Greek Cypriot troops had pulled back.

A diplomat in Ankara said it was believed pressure from the Greek government in Athens played a role in the withdrawal. Turkish Ambassador Turan Tului conferred for half an hour in Athens today with Greek Foreign Undersecretary Constantine Christopoulos but there was no announcement afterward.

Turkish Cypriot leaders accused the Greek Cypriots of attacking first.

Mystery Man Held In Panama

Shabby Peddler Probed, May Be 'Gestapo Chief'

By LUIS NOLI

PANAMA (AP) — Panamanian and West German police are investigating a graying, shabby peddler arrested on suspicion that he is Heinrich Mueller, Hitler's last Gestapo chief and Adolf Eichmann's boss.

The mystery man claimed he was a 61-year-old U.S. citizen, Francis Willard Keith, born in Webb City, Mo., but Panamanian authorities said his German-accented English was barely intelligible.

His fingerprints were flown to West Berlin for comparison with those of Mueller, who was reported alive in Hitler's bunker just before the fall of the Nazis in 1945.

The chief of Panama's Department of Investigations, Hector Valdes, said there was a strong resemblance between the man arrested Tuesday and photographs of Mueller but his department had failed to connect the two.

"I don't believe he is the man," Valdes told a reporter.

West Germany's Justice Ministry said the suspect was identfied as Mueller by a Belgian informant who also said a Belgian graphologist had confirmed the suspect's handwriting was that of the former lieutenant general in Heinrich Himmler's SS Elite Guard.

Newsmen who viewed the suspect at a news conference Wednesday night saw a man apparently in his 60s with several days growth of stubble. He sat silent in the glare of television lights, wearing a light gray coat and faded brown trousers. When a reporter handed him a microphone, he gave it to Valdes who did not permit questions.

Mueller was believed dead by many Germans, but last week the West German Central Office for Nazi Crimes said it had uncovered a new "hot trail" to him. It came from Simon Wiesenthal, the Viennese Nazi hunter who directed Israeli agents to Eichmann in Argentina.

Valdes said he personally arrested the man in a Panama City restaurant and described him as a peddler of ties, honey and liquor who had lived in Panama for eight or ten years. Valdes called him "half crazy."

In London, Dr. Gerhart Riegner, secretary-general of the World Jewish Congress, said Mueller was a leading participant in the 1942 Wannsee conference which planned the annihilation of Europe's Jews.

Two employes of the Israeli Ministry of Labor were arrested on Nov. 2 in the Munich home of Mueller's wife. Their lawyer said they were seeking evidence that Mueller was still alive and were acting as private individuals, not on government orders.

Agreement At Findlay Ends Teacher Boycott

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)— Subcommittees representing the school board here and the Findlay Education Association met Wednesday and reached an agreement ending a two-day teachers boycott.

The boycott closed Findlay's one high school, three junior highs and 10 elementary schools. Some of the schools were kept open briefly Tuesday by nonparticipating teachers aided by parents.

The main issue in the boycott was recognition of the FEA as a body representing the teachers. Recognition was promised Wednesday.

Steel Union Against Blue Cross Boost

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Blue Cross of Western Pennsylvania's request for a 15.6 per cent rate increase to allegedly stave off bankruptcy has run into opposition from the United Steelworkers Union.

Blue Cross President William H. Ford told a state Insurance Commision hearing Wednesday the non-profit organization is in a dangerous financial condition, due primarily to rising hospital and medical costs.

But Bernard Greenberg, an insurance expert with the steelworkers, opposed the increase, and offered an alternative.

He said individual billings of all Blue Cross patients—2,250,000 subscribers in 29 Western Pennsylvania counties — should be abandoned.

Hospitals should be required to apply for an annual operating budget, as determined by a review committee named by the Governor, with Blue Cross required to pay a proportionate share, Greenberg said.

The rate increase also was opposed by Mayor Peter J. Page of Bethel Park, representing the Association of Mayors of the Boroughs of Pennsylvania.

He asked insurance Commissioner David O. Maxwell to postpone any decision on the request until March 1 to allow his group to investigate "complaints from all over the state" against Blue Cross.

Ford said Blue Cross has been losing money since mid-1964 and that its reserve funds have dropped to a dangerous low.

"The plan's total reserve fund dropped from $16,034,685 at the end of 1963 to $2,535,389 as of July 31, 1967. This decline of nearly $13.5 million destroyed the reserve as a general contingency fund," he said.

Blue Cross wants to increase its rates Feb. 1 to subscribers of its 21-90 and standard agreement plans. This would affect 857,500 subscribers or 40 per cent of its enrollment.

Youth Convicted In Murder Of Bus Driver, 39

CLEVELAND (AP)—A Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court jury convicted Wayne Flonnory of two counts of first-degree murder without a recommendation of mercy Wednesday night in the March 4 slaying of a bus driver.

The mandatory death sentence was deferred by Judge Thomas J. Parrino pending a psychiatric report on Flonnory.

The jury of nine men and three women deliberated six hours in finding the 19-year-old Flonnory guilty of premeditated murder and murder in the perpetration of robbery.

Flonnory burst into tears when the verdict was read.

He was charged with killing 39-year-old Willie Jackson, a Cleveland Transit System bus driver, during a $30 holdup at a deserted bus turnaround at East 105th Street and Upont Avenue.

Jackson, father of four, pleaded for his life as he was shot five times with a .38-caliber pistol, according to testimony at the trial.

Flonnory denied taking part in the holdup-slaying. He is charged with five other men in the robbery-slaying of an East Side grocer three days after Jackson was slain.

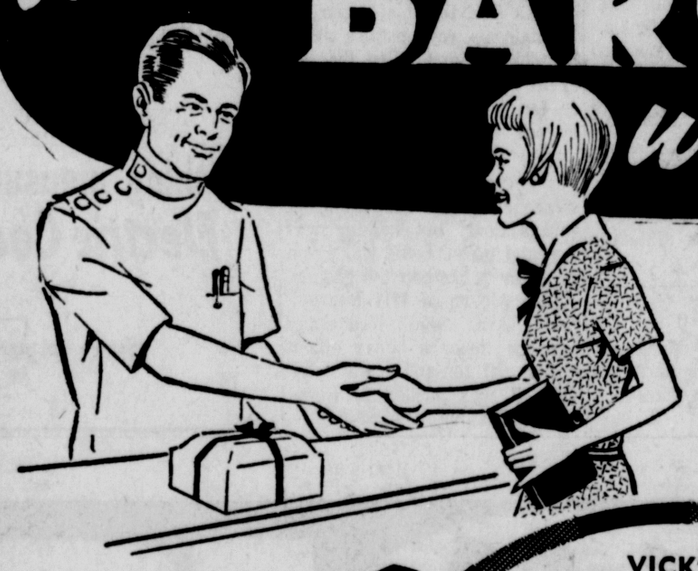

Dangerous Job

DENVER (AP) — A process server, Calvin Smith, went to a stockyards auction to serve a complaint and became an unwilling bidder for an Angus calf.

When Smith pointed his finger at the man he wanted to hand the subpoena, the auctioneer called, "I'm bid $400." But Smith didn't have to buy the calf — someone else bid $500.

Home Operation Costs Shown In Examiner's Data

LISBON — Operating costs of the Kyes Memorial Children's Receiving Home in East Palestine were $12,330 in 1964 and $12,691 in 1965, according to an audit by State Examiner Robert L. Hookey.

The examiner's report covers a three-year period — March 10, 1963 through March 31, 1966 —and is available for public inspection at the Courthouse. The prosecuting attorney and county auditor have copies.

A breakdown of the 1965 operating costs shows $6,060 for salaries of superintendent and matron, $4,079 for maintenance and supplies, $936 for utilities and $1,462 for other expenses.

Hookey extended the audit to July 5, 1967, relative to an emergency fund established March 9, 1963, in the amount of $100 for use in emergencies in connection with operation of the home.

A cash count of this fund July 5 revealed $25. Hookey said Supt. Homer Beglin reported he received only $20 at the time he became superintendent Aug. 5, 1963, and has operated the emergency fund with that amount plus a subsequent donation of $5.

Hookey said he made no finding "inasmuch as neither of the two individuals associated with the original establishment and early expenditures of this fund are available for comment, and since in the opinion of Donald Hepp, welfare director, the sum of $80 was probably spent in connection with operation of the Children's Home."

Abel Facing Tough Fight On 2 'Fronts'

WASHINGTON (AP) — I. W. Abel, craggy-faced president of the United Steel Workers Union, is under considerable fire in trying to steer his big union past the twin shoals of a major strike or mass layoffs next year.

The center of the controversy is a no-strike plan being discussed with the steel industry at a time when labor militancy and strikes across the nation are at a 15-year high.

"There is a big element of steel union leadership that believes it is nonsensical to give up the right to strike," said one labor source outside Abel's union.

Steel Workers Union aides say Abel is angry at being accused of cozying up to the steel industry—the main issue on which Abel ousted David J. McDonald from the union presidency in a 1965 election.

Abel, who guided the Steel Workers to major contract gains without a strike later the same year, is reportedly undergoing his first major internal union struggle over the no-strike discussions.

The plan, which would submit major contract issues to voluntary but binding arbitration in the event of a bargaining deadlock, is far from approved and the curent debate could kill it.

Steel buyers usually build up large inventories before labor negotiatios and the result often has been mass layoffs even when there is no strike.

Abel's dilemma, sources say, is trying to balance off the potential losses from a strike against the effects of later layoffs on about 450,000 basic steel workers.

Hints Altering Support Of LBJ

Kennedy Puts New Drama To McCarthy 'Candidacy'

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's hint that he might alter his announced support of President Johnson in 1968 adds new drama to the potential opposition candidacy of Minnesota Democratic Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

Kennedy said Wednesday that McCarthy is likely to generate some important backing if he enters presidential primaries as an outspoken opponent to Johnson's Vietnam war policies.

Asked how a McCarthy candidacy would affect his previously announced decision to support President Johnson's expected bid for re-election despite his criticism of some of the President's Vietnam policies, the New York senator said:

"I perhaps will have something to say further if Sen. McCarthy announces."

Kennedy also said if he were Johnson he'd consider McCarthy's possible candidacy "very serious," and added: "I think he'll (McCarthy) receive some support around the country. I think from the people I've talked to, in California, New England, the Midwest, he'll have some support."

Kennedy was interviewed on the CBS Evening News.

McCarthy has said he was considering getting in to the race for the Democratic nomination because he felt Kennedy's announced intention of supporting Johnson left a vacuum in which voters had no direct way of expressing their opposition to Vietnam policies.

McCarthy wasn't immediately available for comment on Kennedy's statements. But in an earlier interview Wednesday the Minnesotan said any bid he makes for the Democratic nomination would aim at giving voters a chance to exert the kind of pressure he thinks might cause Johnson to change his course in Vietnam.

"Vietnam is an important issue and it can't be pushed aside," he said. "It is the kind of issue that should be presented squarely to the people under the established procedures of American politics.

"It has got to be presented with personal identification. It can't be dealt with as an abstract issue. If it is identified with a personality in the primaries the people can make their judgment."

McCarthy said personal political ambitions don't enter into the matter. Some Democratic colleagues suspect he is counting on antiwar sentiment to produce a respectable showing for him which—linked with national publicity—would make him a factor in the fight for the 1972 Democratic presidential nomination.

McCarthy said he hasn't even thought about 1972.

The Minnesota senator dismissed as furthest from his mind reports that he hopes by his venture to offer a future party leadership challenge to Kennedy.

But he does not deny the obvious—that Kennedy's resistance to being shoved into opposing Johnson next year contributed to his own nearing decision to take the plunge himself.

McCarthy says frankly that he would hope to revive the Adlai E. Stevenson liberal strain in the party and give the John F. Kennedy people somebody to rally around next year in view of Robert Kennedy's absence from the fray.

When he persisted in putting Stevenson's name before the 1960 Democratic convention, McCarthy won the plaudits of the party liberals. But the price he paid was a subsequent frosty, arms-length relationship with the Kennedys.

He conceivably could find one of the clan, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., standing in for the President in the Massachusetts primary. This is one of four tests McCarthy may undertake, with the others in New Hampshire, Wisconsin and California.

Meanwhile some party dissidents, organizing as a group called Concerned Democrats, said McCarthy would be the featured speaker at a national meeting Dec. 2-3 in Chicago.

Allard K. Lowenstein, the conference organizer, said the group's purpose is "to replace President Johnson with a candidate who will reverse his actions in Vietnam and their consequences at home and abroad."

State Gives OK For Vocational Education Plans

Tentative approval of some vocational education programs for East Liverpool has been given by Ohio Department of Education authorities, Assistant Supt. Carl Pelini reported today.

Pelini conferred with authorities at Columbus Wednesday. He along with Supt. Paul Blair and Harry McConville, board of education member, were en route to Columbus yesterday morning when Blair was forced off Route 30 west of Lisbon by a tractor-trailer rig.

The three men were uninjured, and returned to East Liverpool to get Pelini's car to go to the state capital. Pelini returned last night by airplane while Blair and McConville remained for the meeting of the Ohio School Boards Association.

Mrs. Nessie Dunlop, board president, also is at the OSBA meeting, traveling to Columbus Tuesday with Robert Beatty, architect for the school building program.

Ohio Youth Convicted In Slaying Of Mother

CARROLLTON, Ohio (AP)—A 17-year-old youth charged with first-degree murder in the shotgun slaying of his mother was convicted by a Carroll County Common Pleas Court jury Wednesday with a recommendation of mercy. Judge Frank P. Cope deferred sentencing Donald R. Yoss, who was tried as an adult after a psychiatric examination.

The youth, an only child, was accused of killing his mother, Mrs. Donald E. Yoss, 34, at their home near here June 30, 1966.

10 Cities Eyed As Antimissile Defense Sites

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government has announced the first 10 cities to be considered as sites for the so-called "thin" antimissile defense system now being planned.

The Pentagon listed the cities Wednesday as New York, Honolulu; Albany, Ga.; Chicago; Dallas; Grand Forks, N.D., Salt Lake City; Seattle, Wash.; Boston and Detroit.

The system is expected eventually to involve 15 to 20 batteries of Sentinel antimissiles. It's designed to shield the nation from any possible attack by Red China in the 1970s.

"The system will give protection to all U.S. cities, not only those near missile site locations," the Defense Department said.

The planned $5 billion system, featuring long-range and superfast short-range antimissies, includes radar and computers tying the batteries into a defense umbrella.

Sen. Williams Blasts Social Security Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate Republican leading opposition to a Democratic-backed Social Security bill charges it is based more on political factors than on sound financing.

Sen. John J. Williams of Delaware, who fought in the Senate Finance Committee against the bill proposing the biggest cash benefit increases in Social Security history, told the Democrats as full Senate debate began Wednesday:

"You want to boast of all the benefits you're giving the people before the election year and then put on the taxes to pay for them after the votes are counted."

Williams referred to a provision under which total benefits would be hiked by $3.5 billion next April, and by another $5.8 billion in 1969, and financed by a hike in maximum annual payroll deductions from the current $290.40 annually to $352 next year and $422.40 in 1969.

Williams and other Republicans on the committee contend the tax increases next year — election year—would not be sufficient to cover the proposed hike in benefits.

But Chairman Russell B. Long, D-La., of the Finance Committee maintained the financing plan is conservative. He said the proposed increases in benefits and taxes would mean a $2.2 billion surplus in the Social Security fund.

Three Hurt In Collision

Two men and a woman were injured in a two - car collision on Dewey Ave. Ext. Wednesday, one of three area mishaps investigated by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Bernice Davis, 40, of 273 Center St. was headed south when she lost control of her 1965 sedan on the icy pavement, and it went left of center, colliding with an oncoming auto operated by Paul R. Adams, 45, of 1048 Huston Ave.

Delbert Hull Jr., 43, of 843 Pennsylvania Ave., a passenger in Adams' car, was treated at City Hospital for cuts of the chin and eyebrow. Adams, his brother - in - law, suffered a cut and bruises.

The woman also was shaken and bruised, officers said. She was charged with traveling at a speed too fast for conditions. The mishap occrred at 1 p.m., about a half mile north of the city limits.

A tractor - trailer rig operated by Edward Hanks, 45, of Galax, Va., rammed into an underpass at Signal late yesterday afternoon and became lodged.

Hanks was headed west on Route 154 when the trailer of the rig hit the low underpass about 5:50 p. m., blocking the road for some time.

Albert L. Shultz, 44, of Teegarden Rd., near Leetonia, was cited for driving while intoxicated after a mishap on Route 344 at 7:20 p. m.

Police Car Damaged In Salineville Mishap

Salineville Police Chief Gordon Sweeney was too close to the scene of an accident involving a woman driver Wednesday morning in Salineville.

The cruiser was parked on Water St. when the Johnson vehicle went left of center on a curve and struck the cruiser. Considerable damage resulted to the cruiser, with only minor damage to the woman's car.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Every weekday morning I drive 22 miles to work. I have four female passengers who live in my neighborhood (I'm a male). One of the passengers always has her newspaper in her hand when I pick her up. The first thing this girl does is open the paper to your column and read it aloud. Then they all discuss advice, argue about it and sometimes a heated dicussion gets going.

I don't mind the letters about cheap boy friends or nosey neighbors, but I do get very uncomfortable when you print problems about sex. The letter from the 70-year-old woman who had an affair with the yard man nearly put us in a ditch.

So please, Ann, keep in mind that your column could be a hazard on the highway. Cool it, will you? — NOT KIDDING.

Dear Not: Last week I received a letter from a man who asked me to keep my Sunday columns serious because he reads them during church and when he laughs out loud everyone gives him dirty looks.

I'll tell you what I told him. When I put a column together I try to select letters that are practical, educational, interesting and a reflection of life as a great many people live it.

This means there'll be letters about every conceivable aspect of life and of course sex is included. Where folks choose to read the column is up to them.

A Family Affair

Dear Ann: I'm beside myself with worry. Our neighbors have two sons, 15 and 10 years of age. We have a daughter, and often these neighbors have told us how lucky we are. They always wanted a girl but never had one.

Several months ago they learned of a very attractive 14-year-old girl who needed a home because of a pathetic family situation (alcoholic father and promiscuous mother). They could not adopt her but they arranged to take her in as a foster child.

Our son who is a pal of the 10-year-old told us last night that this girl and the older boy get together in the bedroom and lock the door every chance they get. The parents go out about four evenings a week and I'm sure they have no idea what is going on.

Should I tell the mother about this or not? I'm afraid the girl might get pregnant and then I would blame myself for not speaking up. Please advise. me.—NO NAME PLEASE.

Dear No Name: That 14-year-old girl and that 15-year-old boy know what causes babies, so don't feel it is your responsibility to educate them. Since the parents are obviously blind as bats, let's hope that the 10-year-old brother opens their eyes and soon. As for you, stay out of it.

Awkward Age

DEAR Ann: I felt sorry for the 14-year-old boy whose voice was changing and whenever he answered the phone the caller would mistake him for his mother and say, "How are you, Doris?"

Our son had the same trouble and he finally hit on the solution himself. Instead of saying "Hello" he said, "Hello, this is Robby talking"

Please print this suggestion if you think it has merit. — ROBBY'S MOM.

Dear Mom: I do and I will. Thank you.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Court Continues Man's Probation After Violation

LISBON — One of five young men placed on probation Dec. 30, 1964, in Common Pleas Court for burning a barn was cited into court Wednesday for violating probation terms.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard, after a hearing, continued probation for Ray Eugene Davis Jr., 23, of North Benton RD 1, on condition he pays the entire amount of the delinquent restitution payments and turns over to his mother his pay checks as they are received.

At the time of granting probation, Judge Buzzard said the youths were to pay damages totaling $16,330 at $70 per month. Davis was $280 behind, but paid up after the hearing. Each defendant had to obtain surety for one-fifth the loss.

The youths were arrested almost one year after burning the barn of Edward Kibler in Knox Township on July 22, 1963. Kibler has been paid in full, according to probation Officer Richard Rose, who was designated to receive and disburse restitution payments. The balance of the restitution goes to the Sandy & Beaver Insurance Co.

U.S. Promises To Return Bonin Islands To Japan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prime Minister Eisaku Sato of Japan departs Washington bearing a promise the United States will return the Bonin Islands, including the World War II battleground of Iwo Jima, to Japan within a year.

But the 66-year-old Japanese leader was unable to win a timetable promise from President Johnson for a similar return of strategic Okinawa to Japanese control. The key American defense base is only 350 miles from the Chinese mainland.

Sato flies to New York today for meetings with U.N. Secretary General U Thant after two days of hard bargaining sessions with Johnson over Okinawa, a politically explosive issue in Japan.

Expectations have been building up in Japan for months that the United States would yield control of Okinawa while maintaining American use of military bases there for the security of Japan and the non-Communist countries of east Asia.

Instead, Johnson and Sato worked out an agreement to establish an advisory committee to the U.S. military high commissioner of the Ryukyu Islands. The committee composed of high-level American, Japanese and Okinawan officials will meet with Lt. Gen. Ferdinand Unger, the high commissioner.

Their job will be to lessen the economic and social differences between the 950,000 Okinawans and the 100 million Japanese. A communique issued by the President and prime minister following their two-day meeting said the United States would retain military facilities in the Bonin Islands.

A Polaris nuclear submarine base reportedly is maintained at Chichi Jima, largest of the Bonins.

Japan also agreed to gradually take over responsibility for defense of the Bonins, some 750 miles south-southeast of Tokyo.

Ex-Cellmate Of Cosa Nostra Boss Missing Since Oct. 19

FORT LEE, N.J. (AP) — Ralph Wagner, the 34-year-old ex-cellmate of Joseph Valachi and reputed Cosa Nostra boss Vito Genovese has been missing since Oct. 19, police report.

According to federal authorities, it was Wagner who tipped off Valachi that Genovese planned to have him killed, when the three shared a cell in a federal penitentiary in Atlanta, Ga.

It was this tip, authorities said, that resulted in Valachi's bludgeoning to death a fellow inmate—the wrong man—in an attempt to save his own life, and to Valachi's subsequent appearance before a Senate committee in 1963.

During the hearings, Valachi told senators that he had received word he had been marked for death by Genovese, who did not like the way he had been acting.

Wagner, who had served a total of 15 years in prison on narcotics, assault and robbery convictions, was believed to have been a muscleman and enforcer for Valachi in the 1950s.

When Valachi started telling the Senate committee about the Cosa Nostra crime syndicate, Wagner was taken from the cell he had shared with Genovese and Valachi and placed in isolation from other inmates.

To members of the organized crime syndicate—unhappy at their sudden and unwelcome attraction of public attention through Valachi's disclosures—the implication was that Wagner tipped off Valachi.

Authorities said however that he subsequently appeared to have gotten back in with the mob.

Shortly after he was released from the penitentiary and returned to his father's home, here, they said, he began to wear flashy clothing and drive big cars—without a known source of income.

He was reported missing by his father on Oct. 29.

Shafer Thinking Of Visiting GIs Of State In Viet

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Shafer, himself a veteran (PT-Boat skipper in World War II), says he is thinking of paying a visit to Pennsylvania servicemen in Vietnam.

Shafer said Wednesday he thought a trip, suggested by the state'a American Legion, was "a good idea."

Shafer and his wife, Jane, earlier had inspected a host of Christmas gifts donated by state employes to be airlifted to Vietnam.

The gifts were stacked around a Christmas tree erected in the rotunda specifically for the pick-up.

The governor contribued a windproof cigarette lighter, and Mrs. Shafer donated a combination wallet-identification card case, the aid said.

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) —Now and then life wears a mask of tiresome sameness.

Everyday actions become irksome by their repetition.

"I'm bored with it all," the soul exclaims inwardly in shallow self-pity.

It helps at such times to put life in perspective by drawing up a list of possible adventures that might make the world more exciting. You may never perform these postponed pleasures, but it is fun to consider them.

For example, now in the shady side of 50, I find that, for one reason or another, I have yet to—

Build a cofferdam or paint a flagpole.

Hold a ladder for a fireman while he rescues a kitten stranded in a tree.

Find a buried treasure.

Prove to my wife's satisfaction that the longest distance between two points is the shortset way home.

Catch a mouse in a trap.

Come in first in the rat race.

Inherit fame or money.

Tell a joke to a group of five people without at least three of them informing me later that they had heard it before.

Discover any kind of food that tastes better after its calories have been removed.

Reach up and find my brow is wet with honest sweat.

Get a callus on my finger from counting the cash in my wallet.

Shame the devil by telling the truth.

Con a widow out of her mite.

Win a game of stud poker aboard a Mississippi river steamboat.

Wear a police press card in my hatband, as those reporter fellows do in the movies.

Have any newspaper stop its presses and tear open the front page for any story I ever covered.

Feather a love nest.

Tattoo an eagle or a girl's name in living color on my forearm.

Wrestle a boa constrictor.

Keep a psychiatrist on the edge of his seat listening with awe to the tale of my troubles.

Dance a dithyramb, the boogaloo, or a blith strathspey.

Make a secret rendezvous with any member of a ruling European royal family.

Ghost the memoirs of Santa Claus under the title, "It Ain't the Sliding Down of Chimneys, It's the Climbing Back Up That Makes a Saint So Tired."

Bored How can any man be, when the world is so full of interesting chores still left undone.

Now that I've given you my list, it's your turn to give me yours. But are you sure that you don't have something else better to do

Republican Schweiker Seen Making Bid For U.S. Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican Richard S. Schweiker, four-term congressman from Pennsylvania's Mont gomery County, is virtually certain to become a candidate for the Senate seat held by Democrat Joseph S. Clark Jr., according to sources in the Pennsylvania congressional delegation.

And, the sources said, Schweiker expects Clark to be the Democratic nominee.

Clark has not announced whether he will seek re-election next year.

Schweiker has said he will announce his plans by the first of the year.

But, sources said Tuesday, Schweiker is 99.8 per cent committed to running for the Senate.

Former Gov. William W. Scranton and John L. Tabor, state secretary for internal affairs, have also been mentioned as possible candidates for the GOP nomination.

Scranton has said repeatedly he will not seek the nomination, and the congressional sources described Schweiker as virtually certain that Scranton will not change his position.

The Schweiker camp also was said to believe that Tabor may choose to remain in state office.

Schweiker, 41, has been associated with the moderate to liberal group of Republican congressmen. He has urged a graduated reduction in the bombing of North Vietnam as a possible means of inducing the Communists to scale down the level of the ground fighting. And, he has urged steps toward placing the Army on an all-volunteer basis.

Schweiker has twice before been mentioned as a possible candidate for statewide office—for governor in 1962 and 1966.

But each time he decided instead to seek r-eelection to the House.

In 1964, he was active in the effort to secure the GOP presidential nomination for Scranton.

It was reported that during the local United Fund Campaign, members of the board of directors made solicitations throughout the area. Publicity included window displays, newspaper stories, radio announcements and a radio interview with Dr. Alex Fisher and Mrs. Barbara Jones.

Tentative plans were made for a Christmas party Dec. 8.

The next regular session will be held Jan. 16.

A Senior Girl Scout Troop was organized at a meeting of a Cadet Troop Tuesday night at the First Methodist Church, according to Mrs. Thelma McKinnon, East Liverpool neighborhood chairman.

The Senior Troop will meet on Mondays from 7 to 8 p. m. at the McKinnon home at 153 Pennsylvania Ave. Membership still is open to any girl, 15 through 17. The age group of the Cadet Troop, which meets on Tuesdays in the First Methodist Church, includes seventh through ninth grades. Registration for all Girl Scouts should be in by the end of December.

Christmas caroling was discussed and all Girl Scouts will sing around the Christmas tree in the Diamond Dec. 19. All Girl Scouts will participate in the Christmas parade Nov. 24. A Christmas party for Junior, Cadet and Senior troops will be held Dec. 12.

3 Viet Cong Terrorists To Be Executed

SAIGON (AP) — Three convicted Viet Cong terrorists will be executed before dawn Friday, government sources said today

American officials were reported unhappy about the executions, the first such in more than two years, since in the past the Communists have on two occasions executed American prisoners in reprisal.

The executions are scheduled to take place at Saigon's Chi Hoa prison.

Police sources said those who will die are Bui Van Chieu, Le Minh Chau and Truong Thanh Danh.

All were convicted by the 3rd corps Special Military Court, Chieu in May and the other two in June.

All were sentenced to be shot.

A number of times in the past the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese have threatened to execute American prisoners, both those captured in South Vietnam and pilots downed in the North, if the South Vietnamese government executed Viet Cong terrorists.

Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska are the six states in the "corn belt" of the United States.

Cardinal Spellman Getting Checkup In Cleveland Clinic

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Francis Cardinal Spellman, Roman Catholic archbishop of New York is undergoing a checkup in Cleveland Clinic.

The 78-year-old prelate was admitted to the clinic Tuesday night under an assumed name, but his presence there became known to newsmen Wednesday night.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. James F. Rigney, the cardinal's secretary, said in New York, "There was no emergency, and the hospital visit had been planned in advance." He said the cardinal's visit to the clinic was for a routine five-day checkup.

"The cardinal went to Cleveland Clinic out of a wish for privacy and a desire not to worry his friends," Msgr. Rigney said.

Cardinal Spellman came here from meetings of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops in Washington, D.C., where he was seen Tuesday afternoon and appeared to be in good health.

A spokesman for the clinic said he was permitted to say only that the cardinal was here for a checkup and would remain "several days"—the usual time for such examinations. "I'm sure there is nothing critical," the clinic spokesman added.

In 1964 he underwent a prostate operation at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn.

As military vicar of the Roman Catholic Church, Cardinal Spellman has visited American troops abroad at Christmas time in World War II, the Korean War and in the Vietnam war. He flew to Vietnam last year and told troops:

"I don't think I'd be able to come back once more, and I doubt if I'll be around next year."

Abel Facing Tough Fight On 2 'Fronts'

WASHINGTON (AP) — I. W. Abel, craggy-faced president of the United Steel Workers Union, is under considerable fire in trying to steer his big union past the twin shoals of a major strike or mass layoffs next year.

The center of the controversy is a no-strike plan being discussed with the steel industry at a time when labor militancy and strikes across the nation are at a 15-year high.

"There is a big element of steel union leadership that believes it is nonsensical to give up the right to strike," said one labor source outside Abel's union.

Steel Workers Union aides say Abel is angry at being accused of cozying up to the steel industry—the main issue on which Abel ousted David J. McDonald from the union presidency in a 1965 election.

Abel, who guided the Steel Workers to major contract gains without a strike later the same year, is reportedly undergoing his first major internal union struggle over the no-strike discussions.

The plan, which would submit major contract issues to voluntary but binding arbitration in the event of a bargaining deadlock, is far from approved and the curent debate could kill it.

Steel buyers usually build up large inventories before labor negotiatios and the result often has been mass layoffs even when there is no strike.

Home Operation Costs Shown In Examiner's Data

LISBON — Operating costs of the Kyes Memorial Children's Receiving Home in East Palestine were $12,330 in 1964 and $12,691 in 1965, according to an audit by State Examiner Robert L. Hookey.

The examiner's report covers a three-year period — March 10, 1963 through March 31, 1966 —and is available for public inspection at the Courthouse. The prosecuting attorney and county auditor have copies.

A breakdown of the 1965 operating costs shows $6,060 for salaries of superintendent and matron, $4,079 for maintenance and supplies, $936 for utilities and $1,462 for other expenses.

Hookey extended the audit to July 5, 1967, relative to an emergency fund established March 9, 1963, in the amount of $100 for use in emergencies in connection with operation of the home.

A cash count of this fund July 5 revealed $25. Hookey said Supt. Homer Beglin reported he received only $20 at the time he became superintendent Aug. 5, 1963, and has operated the emergency fund with that amount plus a subsequent donation of $5.

Hookey said he made no finding "inasmuch as neither of the two individuals associated with the original establishment and early expenditures of this fund are available for comment, and since in the opinion of Donald Hepp, welfare director, the sum of $80 was probably spent in connection with operation of the Children's Home."

Hearing Set For Steubenville-Massillon Tape Hassle

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

After disagreeing almost all year long, the final AP and UPI polls for the top teams in Ohio scholastic football were quite similar.

Both proclaimed Upper Arlington state champs, although the coaches made Cincinnati Roger Bacon a strong second while it was placed third by the writers. Eight teams were in both top 10's. East Liverpool ranked ninth in the final UPI voting, 12th in the AP balloting. Last year the Potters were 10th in the AP vote and not in the top 20 UPI teams.

Lima Senior jumped from 15th to sixth in the coaches' voting the final week, despite a season record of 7-2. It ended 13th in the AP tally. The AP put Dover fifth, while it was only 11th by UPI, and Circleville ranked eighth in the AP and 16th in UPI.

Unbeaten Struthers was 11th by AP, 12th by UPI. Warren Western Reserve was 13th by UPI, 17th by AP. Cleveland St. Joseph's 33rd by UPI, 34th by AP. Youngstown Ursuline was 46th by AP, 48th by UPI.

DICK CONLEY of Ohio U., who was named Mid-American Conference back of the week for his fine game against Bowling Green last week, has jumped up to ninth in the country in rushing. Other top rushers from Ohio schools are Don FitzGerald of Kent State, 11th; Bill Mayo of Dayton, 13th; Al Moore of Miami, 19th; Bill Waller of Xavier, 21st and Roland Moss of Toledo, 24th.

John Schneider of the Rockets remains sixth in passing but has dropped to seventh in total offense. Cleve Bryant of Ohio U. is 12th in total offense and Tom Sherman of Penn State 16th. The Bobcats and Nittany Lions clash this week.

Dale Livingston of Western Michigan is fifth in punting and teammate Marty Barski is 13th in pass-receiving. Wil Perry of Kent State is 17th in pass-receiving. Moss is tied for fifth in scoring with 66 points and Don Abbey of Penn State is tied for 16th. In scoring by kicking, Ken Juskowich of West Virginia is 4th, Livingston 20th and Ken Crots of Toledo tied for 21st.

Another Mountaineer, John Mallory, is eighth in punt returns, one place ahead of Bob Zimpfer of Bowling Green. Mickey Depp of Pittsburgh is eighth in kickoff returns. In interception returns, Steve Bailey of Xavier is third and Ted Provost of Ohio State, 10th.

In team statistics, Dayton is 11th in rushing. In total defense, West Virginia is eighth and Toledo 10th and in pass defense Toledo is third, Miami seventh and Dayton 10th. Western Michigan is seventh in punting and Toledo seventh in defense against scoring.

PENN STATE LISTS 15 alumni playing professional football, 11 in the NFL, two in the AFL and one each in Canada and the CFL. Pete Liske, quarterback for the Calgary Stampeders, was recently named the MVP of the Canadian League. Other well-known pros are Dave Robinson of Green Bay, Lenny Moore of Baltimore, Milt Plum of Detroit, Dick Hoak and Bill Saul of Pittsburgh and Rosey Grier of Los Angeles.

Saturday Confab Slated By State

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Steubenville's charge that Massillon used electronic equipment illegally in its 26-16 football victory over the Big Red two weeks ago will be aired Saturday.

The Ohio High School Athletic Association's officers and the state Board of Control will hear representatives from both schools in the closed hearing.

OHSAA Commissioner Paul Landis had said an investigation of the charge would result if the association felt there was enough evidence to warrant one.

After representatives from Steubenville personally delivered the "evidence" to the association office last Thursday, Massillon wrote a reply to the accusations.

Specifically, Steubenville contends that Massillon used a video tape recording device which provides for instant replays, a violation of association rules.

Such equipment may be used only at halftime or at the conclusion of the game. The penalty is forfeiture of the game.

Steubenville's protest contained the names of seven witnesses who claim Massillon used the electronic device for instant replays.

Massillon has denied the charge.

"We want to clear the air and find out what happened," said Associate Commissioner Harold Meyer.

The Board of Control, which holds its regular meeting here on Friday, will stay over for the closed hearing.

Scholastic sidelights:

Coach Bron Bacevich's hot Cincinnati Roger Bacon team set a school record rolling up 373 points in its perfect 10-0 season. The third-ranked Spartans allowed only 19 in recording seven shutouts. Bacon also copped its fifth Greater Cincinnati League title in the last seven years.

Eddie Williams closed out a brilliant career at Sandusky Friday when the Blue Streaks thumped Mansfield 44 - 12. He ran for 177 yards to break the all-time school record held by his brother Stew, a former Bowling Green great.

Eddie also scored three touchdowns to tie the school mark of 47. Two other Williams brothers, George and Walt, also starred for Sandusky. Walt was killed in action recently in Vietnam.

How's this for turnabout. Class A Lisbon, 1-9 last year, finished a 9-1 campaign as co-champions of the Tri - county League with Minerva. Most of the credit goes to Coach Edwin (Bud) Bucher, who was forced out of action the last two years because of injuries suffered in an auto accident.

Class A Newark Catholic set two school records by scoring 465 points and limiting its opposition to 60. Halfback Mike McKee led the club with 1,572 yards rushing and 142 points while fullback Denny Welsh added 1,084 and 88 points before suffering a shoulder dislocation in the seventh game.

Don Young, senior halfback at Wintersville (10 - 1), scored two touchdowns against Martins Ferry and finished with 148 points.

Class A Warren Consolidated of Tiltonsville (9-0) went undefeated for the fourth time in the last seven years.

Brad Fearn, quarterback of Fredericktown's unbeaten but once-tied team, accounted for 1,290 yards, 677 of them via the airlanes. He passed for 10 touchdowns and ran for four more.

Unbeaten Cleveland Collinwood (9-0) will battle Cleveland St. Ignatius (8-1) for the Cleveland city crown on Thanksgiving Day.

Youngstown Cardinal Mooney won the Youngstown city title when Ursuline and East battled to an 8 - 8 tie Mooney shared the crown last year with Chaney.

Struthers, with a perfect 10-0 log, won the Steel Valley Conference title by beating Campbell 12-6. It was Struthers' first unbeaten season since 1930.

Larry Williams scored all 28 points in Dayton Dunbar's 28-24 victory over Dayton Roth last weekend. He also rushed for 140 of his team's 142 yards.

Warren Western Reserve in completing a fine 9-1 season, knocked off East Liverpool, Kent Roosevelt and Cuyahoga Falls. All were unbeaten when they faced the Raiders.

Onkotz Lineman Of Week

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Linebacker Dennis Onkotz has made 102 tackles for Penn State this season but the first 100 meant little compared to the last two.

They were the ones which first preserved and then completed Penn State's 13-8 victory over previously-undefeated North Carolina State last Saturday—a victory achieved largely because earlier in the game Onkotz returned an intercepted pass 67 yards for a touchdown.

Onkotz made 22 tackles in that game—12 of them unassisted—and also helped the Nittany Lions recover a Wolfpack fumble, achievements which earned him The Associated Press' nod as college football Lineman of the Week.

A sophomore—like five of Penn State's other defensive regulars—Onkotz has been making big plays all year and when North Carolina State, trailing 13-6, lined up for a fourth down play at the Penn State one-yard line with 33 seconds to go, he knew just what to do.

"They had run the play before and they liked to dive over the pile," Onkotz said. "We were ready for it and I anticipated where he'd go."

Tackle Mike McBath and linebacker Jim Kates grabbed Settle Dockery low and when he tried to dive into the end zone, Onkotz rushed over to shove him back.

Penn State ran three quarterback sneaks and then gave up an intentional safety to kick out of danger. The Wolfpack had time for one more play but it came to a halt when Onkotz wrapped up Tony Barchuk in the open field at the Lions' 35.

Saturday's interception was the fourth for Onkotz this season and the second he ran back for a touchdown.

Len Chappell of Wake Forest outscored Cazzie Russell of Michigan by one point during their respective college basketball careers.

BABE BENCHED. Vito (Babe) Parilli, (left) quarterback for the Boston Patriots who has started every game for the last four years, will be benched in favor of Don Trull, right, according to Patriot coach Mike Holovak. (UPI Telephoto)

Celts Win Without Russell; 76ers Lose To Bing, Pistons

By The Associated Press

The Boston Celtics had just taken over first place in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division, but Player-Coach Bill Russell had a problem.

He didn't know where his car was.

Following the Celtics' 113-110 victory over San Francisco in snow-clogged Boston Wednesday night, Russell stood in his club's dressing room and said:

"The first thing I want to do is find my car. I don't know where it is."

But during most of the game, the second of a doubleheader at Boston Garden, Russell knew where his car was. He was in it, and it was in a mammoth traffic snarl caused by the storm.

He finally abandoned it, caught a ride with a policeman and arrived at the Garden with just a few minutes remaining in the game. He didn't bother changing into his uniform.

In Russell's absence, General Manager Red Auerbach, who guided the Celtics to eight straight NBA titles and earned 1,037 victories before turning the coaching job over to the star center last season, stepped into the breach.

Detroit beat Philadelphia 123-120, San Diego topped New York 122-108 in the first game at Boston before only 2,645 fans and Los Angeles turned back Chicago 124-115.

In the American Basketball Association, Anaheim beat Dallas 116-105, New Jersey edged New Orleans 123-114 in overtime, and Indiana downed Oakland 119-110.

Bailey Howell's 27 points led Boston, which boosted its record to 11-2 compared to Philadelphia's 11-3.

Detroit fell behind by 18 points in the second quarter but then, led by the shooting of Dave Bing, roared back to overtake Philadelphia and end a 16-game losing streak against the 76ers.

Bing poured through 40 points, including 16 in the final period.

Dave Gambee scored 15 points in the final quarter when San Diego outscored New Zork San Diego outscored New York up their third victory in 17 games.

Gambee finished with 24, high for the game. Dick Barnett was high for the Knickerbockers with 17.

Jerry West made his first start of the season for Los Angeles after being sidelined with a leg injury and helped spark the Lakers to their victory over Chicago. West scored 17 points and contributed eight assists.

Flynn Robinson of the Bulls topped the scorers with 34 points, a career high. Archie Clark led the Lakers, who had seven players in double figures, with 24.

Grid Yogis Can't Agree On Final Week's Choices

In the last week of picking for the Review Grid Yogis there were no unanimous choices.

Turk Pierce, Rose Nuzzo and Bob Shaffer, the three contenders for the championship, had enough different choices to ensure that they all have a chance for the title. Bob Duffy and Tom Futhey, farther down the ladder, picked enough different games so that they have an outside chance to move up.

The only 3-3 split in the contests was the game of the week and maybe the year in college circles, UCLA-USC. Nuzo, Futhey and Duffy took the top-ranked UCLAns, while Pierce, Shaffer and Bob Poole go with the Trojans.

In 5-1 splits, Duffy is alone in three cases. He likes Ohio U. over Penn State, UT, El Paso over Wyoming and the Vikings over the Browns. Futhey is the only prophet to pick Kansas over Oklahoma and Shaffer stands alone with the Chargers over the Chiefs.

Pierce and Poole stick with the Steelers against the Giants, Nuzzo and Poole go with Minnesota over Indiana, Futhey and Duffy take Auburn over Georgia and Pierce and Duffy like Yale over Princeton.

Cleveland's Dowling Stars For Powerful Yale Team

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Yale quarterback Brian Dowling has faced only four Ivy League football teams, but he's received most of the "Blue Power" squad's individual glory because in those four games Yale scored 162 points.

The Yale season had begun in shaky fashion, despite hard-charging offensive and defensive lines and a sextet of powerful runners. Not until the addition of Dowling to the line-up did the Bulldogs of Yale begin to chew up come highly rated teams.

Now Yale has a league-leading 5-0 Ivy record for a 6-1 over-all mark. In sight is the school's best record since a 9-0 mark in 1960, when the Ivy football title last went to Yale.

Dowling, a 6-foot-2, 195-pound junior from Cleveland Heights, Ohio, was besieged by recruiters of some 100 colleges after brilliant football years at St. Ignatius High School in Cleveland.

"Ohio State loss to Yale" was the headline in a Cleveland newspaper when Dowling's choice was made known.

But his promising football career at Yale, until last month, was twice interrupted by crippling injuries.

He sat out most of his sophomore season with a knee injury. And he suffered a broken bone in his right wrist during a Yale practice 10 days before the 1967 season began.

His passing, hampered by the wrist injury, has improved in each game. Dowling's 31 completions in 60 throws have been good for 412 yards and five touchdowns.

His running has been just as important to the team as he's carried 29 times for a 6.1 yard average. He turned the ends for key yardage on several early touchdown drives as Yale whipped Cornell 41-7 and destroyed previously unbeaten Dartmouth 56-15.

The key plays against Penn, in Yale's 44-22 victory, were Dowling's two touchdown passes.

But the opposition is getting rougher. Once-beaten Princeton waits at Palmer Stadium, Princeton, N.J., for Yale's invasion on Saturday.

Purdue basketball coach George King scored 2,166 points in his last three years as a player at Morris Harvey (W.Va.)

Coaches Boycott Meeting

East Liverpool Blanked On All-County Grid Team

No players from East Liverpool were named on the Columbiana County all-star team, chosen at a meeting of the coaches at Salem last night.

No one representing East Liverpool attended the meeting. Coach Bob McNea said that the East Liverpool coaches had not seen the other teams in the county play this season and the other coaches had not seen East Liverpool play. "The other teams all play each other and they know the good players on those teams and will vote for them", McNea stated. "Two years ago we had a boy, Clarence Crable, who made all-state, but wasn't on the all - county team," McNea went on. "We have plenty of players good enough for all-county, but they only give us token recognition. So after talking it over with the other coaches and members of the school board, I decided not to attend this year. Instead of giving one kid all-county recognition, we consider all of our kids all-county", he concluded.

Columbiana led county schools with five players on the 23-man team. Lisbon and Salem had four each, Beaver Local three, Leetonia, United and Crestview two each and East Palestine one. Southern Local, which did not send a representative, was ignored.

Columbiana's honorees were guard George Lynn, 5-10, 185; halfback Bill Ward, 5-8, 175; defensive end Don Reash, 5-10, 180; tackle Bill Cyrus, 6-0, 225; and safety Dave Morris, 5-11, 170. Lisbon's selections were guard Jim Morgan, 6-2, 220; center Bill Hartman, 5-9, 169; safety Gary Toot, 5-8, 170; and linebacker Charles Pastore, 5-7, 155. Beaver Local was represented by quarterback Dennis Klembara, 6-0, 180; tackle Dave Humphrey, 6-0, 200, and middle guard Jim Burcham, 5-11, 195.

Salem had alternate quarterback Scott Cody, 5-8, 160; defensive end Dana Barnes, 6-3, 218; defensive tackle Terry Hite, 6-3, 256; and safety Ken Kenst, 5-10, 180. Leetonia's representatives were end Jim DeJane, 5-8, 138 and fullback Danny Bell, 6-1, 195. United had halfback Tom Wood, 5-10, 180 and linebacker George Bowman, 5-8, 150. Crestview's players were linebacker Randy McBride, 6-1, 215 and defensive tackle Chuck Lancendorfer, 6-1, 207. Jim Taucher of East Palestine, 6-2, 175, was named at end. Pastore, Barnes, and Cody are juniors, the rest seniors.

Honorable mentions, two from each school regardless of position, were Beaver Local, Sam Hall and Rex Campbell; Columbiana, Rick Noel and Joe Scott; Crestview, Tom Grossen and Chuck Hamilton; East Palestine, John Zalick and Joe Thompson; Leetonia, Terry Kornbau and Dave Coleman; Lisbon, Roger Crowell and Bill Farmer; Salem, Gary Shuster and Robbie Richards, and United, Bill Kibler and Les Syx.

Elijah Pitts To Be Out For Season

NEW YORK (AP) — Elijah Pitts, Green Bay halfback, is out for the season, having been placed on the "reserved as injured" list of the National Football League.

If the Packers should try to reactivate Pitts prior to the end of the season, including postseason play, Pitts could be claimed by any other NFL club on non-recallable waivers.

However, Vince Lombardi of the Packers, fully conversant with the rules, would not be likely to risk such a valuable property.

Pitts suffered a torn achilles tendon in a Nov. 5 game with Baltimore. His place has been taken by Donny Anderson, the bonus sophomore from Texas Tech who scored four touchdowns last Sunday against Cleveland.

Earl Monroe, who completed his college career at Winston-Salem last season, is sixth on the all-time college basketball scoring list.

Penguins Win 5-0

Hull Continues Hot Pace As Black Hawks Win 4-1

By The Associated Press

"I'm just glad," Glenn Hall once said, commenting on Bobby Hull's powerful shots, "that I only have to face them in practice."

But that was before the National Hockey League expanded. Now goalie Hall, a longtime Chicago teammate of Hull's, is just anothar target for the Golden Jet.

Hull fired his 15th goal of the season Wednesday night helping the Hawks beat St. Louis and Hall for the second time this week, 4-1.

Elsewhere in the NHL Wednesday, Mike Walton's three-goal hat trick powered Toronto to a 4-2 victory over Boston and moved the Maple Leafs into undisputed possession of first place in the East Division. Pittsburgh blanked Philadelphia 5-0, Montreal dropped Minnesota 5-1 and Oakland whipped Los Angeles 4-1.

Hall yielded a first-period goal to Stan Mikita and then held off the Hawks until midway through the third period when Hull blazed a 20-footer past him.

Bobby's younger brother, Dennis, and Eric Nesterenko then added wrapup goals for the Hawks.

Walton, playing in place of the injured Dave Keon, scored two goals in the first period, one of them just 36 seconds after leaving the penalty box, and completed his hat trick in the middle session.

The three goals gave the 22-year-old center seven for the season in 15 games matching his total for 31 games with Toronto last year.

Montreal ended a five-game winless streak as Dick Duff and Henri Richard did the heavy work against Minnesota.

Duff had a goal and three assists and Richard scored once and set up two others for the Canadiens. Yvan Cournoyer, who notched his eighth goal, Ralph Backstrom and Ted Tarris were Montreal's other scorers. Wayne Connelly hit for the North Stars.

Hank Bassen, playing his first game in 2½ weeks, blanked Philadelphia, ending a four-game Flyer winning streak.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Every weekday morning I drive 22 miles to work. I have four female passengers who live in my neighborhood (I'm a male). One of the passengers always has her newspaper in her hand when I pick her up. The first thing this girl does is open the paper to your column and read it aloud. Then they all discuss advice, argue about it and sometimes a heated dicussion gets going.

I don't mind the letters about cheap boy friends or nosey neighbors, but I do get very uncomfortable when you print problems about sex. The letter from the 70-year-old woman who had an affair with the yard man nearly put us in a ditch.

So please, Ann, keep in mind that your column could be a hazard on the highway. Cool it, will you? — NOT KIDDING.

Dear Not: Last week I received a letter from a man who asked me to keep my Sunday columns serious because he reads them during church and when he laughs out loud everyone gives him dirty looks.

I'll tell you what I told him. When I put a column together I try to select letters that are practical, educational, interesting and a reflection of life as a great many people live it.

This means there'll be letters about every conceivable aspect of life and of course sex is included. Where folks choose to read the column is up to them.

A Family Affair

Dear Ann: I'm beside myself with worry. Our neighbors have two sons, 15 and 10 years of age. We have a daughter, and often these neighbors have told us how lucky we are. They always wanted a girl but never had one.

Several months ago they learned of a very attractive 14-year-old girl who needed a home because of a pathetic family situation (alcoholic father and promiscuous mother). They could not adopt her but they arranged to take her in as a foster child.

Our son who is a pal of the 10-year-old told us last night that this girl and the older boy get together in the bedroom and lock the door every chance they get. The parents go out about four evenings a week and I'm sure they have no idea what is going on.

Should I tell the mother about this or not? I'm afraid the girl might get pregnant and then I would blame myself for not speaking up. Please advise. me.—NO NAME PLEASE.

Dear No Name: That 14-year-old girl and that 15-year-old boy know what causes babies, so don't feel it is your responsibility to educate them. Since the parents are obviously blind as bats, let's hope that the 10-year-old brother opens their eyes and soon. As for you, stay out of it.

Awkward Age

DEAR Ann: I felt sorry for the 14-year-old boy whose voice was changing and whenever he answered the phone the caller would mistake him for his mother and say, "How are you, Doris?"

Our son had the same trouble and he finally hit on the solution himself. Instead of saying "Hello" he said, "Hello, this is Robby talking."

Please print this suggestion if you think it has merit. — ROBBY'S MOM.

Dear Mom: I do and I will. Thank you.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Court Continues Man's Probation After Violation

LISBON — One of five young men placed on probation Dec. 30, 1964, in Common Pleas Court for burning a barn was cited into court Wednesday for violating probation terms.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard, after a hearing, continued probation for Ray Eugene Davis Jr., 23, of North Benton RD 1, on condition he pays the entire amount of the delinquent restitution payments and turns over to his mother his pay checks as they are received.

At the time of granting probation, Judge Buzzard said the youths were to pay damages totaling $16,330 at $70 per month. Davis was $280 behind, but paid up after the hearing. Each defendant had to obtain surety for one-fifth the loss.

The youths were arrested almost one year after burning the barn of Edward Kibler in Knox Township on July 22, 1963. Kibler has been paid in full, according to probation Officer Richard Rose, who was designated to receive and disburse restitution payments. The balance of the restitution goes to the Sandy & Beaver Insurance Co.

Would Include Iwo Jima

U.S. Promises To Return Bonin Islands To Japan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prime Minister Eisaku Sato of Japan departs Washington bearing a promise the United States will return the Bonin Islands, including the World War II battleground of Iwo Jima, to Japan within a year.

But the 66-year-old Japanese leader was unable to win a timetable promise from President Johnson for a similar return of strategic Okinawa to Japanese control. The key American defense base is only 350 miles from the Chinese mainland.

Sato flies to New York today for meetings with U.N. Secretary General U Thant after two days of hard bargaining sessions with Johnson over Okinawa, a politically explosive issue in Japan.

Expectations have been building up in Japan for months that the United States would yield control of Okinawa while maintaining American use of military bases there for the security of Japan and the non-Communist countries of east Asia.

Instead, Johnson and Sato worked out an agreement to establish an advisory committee to the U.S. military high commissioner of the Ryukyu Islands. The committee composed of high-level American, Japanese and Okinawan officials will meet with Lt. Gen. Ferdinand Unger, the high commissioner.

Their job will be to lessen the economic and social differences between the 950,000 Okinawans and the 100 million Japanese. A communique issued by the President and prime minister following their two-day meeting said the United States would retain military facilities in the Bonin Islands.

A Polaris nuclear submarine base reportedly is maintained at Chichi Jima, largest of the Bonins.

Japan also agreed to gradually take over responsibility for defense of the Bonins, some 750 miles south-southeast of Tokyo.

Ex-Cellmate Of Cosa Nostra Boss Missing Since Oct. 19

FORT LEE, N.J. (AP) — Ralph Wagner, the 34-year-old ex-cellmate of Joseph Valachi and reputed Cosa Nostra boss Vito Genovese has been missing since Oct. 19, police report.

According to federal authorities, it was Wagner who tipped off Valachi that Genovese planned to have him killed, when the three shared a cell in a federal penitentiary in Atlanta, Ga.

It was this tip, authorities said, that resulted in Valachi's bludgeoning to death a fellow inmate—the wrong man—in an attempt to save his own life, and to Valachi's subsequent appearance before a Senate committee in 1963.

During the hearings, Valachi told senators that he had received word he had been marked for death by Genovese, who did not like the way he had been acting.

Wagner, who had served a total of 15 years in prison on narcotics, assault and robbery convictions, was believed to have been a muscleman and enforcer for Valachi in the 1950s.

When Valachi started telling the Senate committee about the Cosa Nostra crime syndicate, Wagner was taken from the cell he had shared with Genovese and Valachi and placed in isolation from other inmates.

To members of the organized crime syndicate—unhappy at their sudden and unwelcome attraction of public attention through Valachi's disclosures—the implication was that Wagner tipped off Valachi.

Authorities said however that he subsequently appeared to have gotten back in with the mob.

Shortly after he was released from the penitentiary and returned to his father's home, here, they said, he began to wear flashy clothing and drive big cars—without a known source of income.

He was reported missing by his father on Oct. 29.

Shafer Thinking Of Visiting GIs Of State In Viet

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Shafer, himself a veteran (PT-Boat skipper in World War II), says he is thinking of paying a visit to Pennsylvania servicemen in Vietnam.

Shafer said Wednesday he thought a trip, suggested by the state'a American Legion, was "a good idea."

Shafer and his wife, Jane, earlier had inspected a host of Christmas gifts donated by state employes to be airlifted to Vietnam.

The gifts were stacked around a Christmas tree erected in the rotunda specifically for the pick-up.

The governor conrtibued a windproof cigarette lighter, and Mrs. Shafer donated a combination wallet-identification card case, the aid said.

Mel Nowell's 30-Footer Ties Game

By The Associated Press

It wasn't as long as Jerry Harkness' record 92-foot heave Monday night, but the New Jersey Americans found Mel Nowell's 30-foot jump shot every bit as satisfying.

Nowell's jumper, which counted for three points, came with six seconds left and gave the Americans a 108-108 tie in regulation time with the New Orleans Buccaneers in their American Basketball Association game at Teaneck, N.J., Wednesday night. The Americans went on to whip the Western Division leaders 123-114 in overtime.

Harkness' record shot came as the final buzzer sounded in Dallas and gave the Indiana Pacers a one-point victory over the Charparrals. The Pacers, the Eastern Division leaders, made it two straight by whipping the Oakland Oaks Wednesday at Indianapolis 119-110.

Dallas, playing at home, lost to the Anaheim Amigos 116-105 in the other ABA game scheduled Wednesday.

Nowell's heave climaxed a last quarter rally by the Americans in which they erased a 14-point deficit. A layup by John Austin and two free throws by Tony Jackson broke a 112-112 tie in the extra period and put the Americans ahead for good.

Lavern Tart, unable to play at Pittsburgh Tuesday because of a Pennsylvania common pleas court injunction, was back in action for Oakland Wednesday, but his 25 points wasn't enough to pull the Oaks through against Indiana.

A last-quarter rally, led by Les Selvage, gave Anaheim its victory over Dallas. Selvage, the league leader in three-point goals, hit three of them in the winning rally and finished high for the Amigos with 24 points. John Beasley topped Dallas with 26.

In the National Basketball Association, San Diego beat New York 122-108, Boston edged San Francisco 113-110, Detroit surprised Philadelphia 123-120 and Los Angeles downed Chicago 124-115.

Waynesburg Retains 5th Poll Spot

By The Associated Press

It's a matter of producing for San Diego State, the nation's No. 1 small college football team, while for North Dakota State it's a matter of waiting and hoping.

San Diego State, 8-0 this season and winner of 24 straight, plays home games against Montana State next Saturday and Utah State, Nov. 25.

North Dakota State, ranked second, finished its regular season Nov. 4 with a 9-0 record.

A national panel of sports writers and sportscasters gave San Diego State, 30-21 winner over San Fernando Valley State last Saturday, five first place votes and a total of 116 points this week. North Dakota State received two first place votes and 96 points.

Eastern Kentucky is third with two first place votes and 65 points, followed by New Mexico Highlands with one first place vote and 58 points.

Military Puts Army Out Of Bowl

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Sugar Bowl has been quietly informed that "powerful people in high places" don't think Army's football team should play in a postseason game because of the Vietnam war.

This new development changes fluid situation for the Sugar Bowl once again with North Carolina State, Penn State, Louisiana State, Auburn, Mississippi, Miami, Fla., and Wyoming all somewhere in the picture.

"As of this moment, I would say we would probably have either North Carolina State or Penn State vs. either Auburn or Miami," said one Sugar Bowl official privately. "But a great deal depends on the outcome of this Saturday's games."

He quickly added: "The situation could change again within the next hour or two. After all, it's been changing like a newborn baby's diapers all week."

Army's football players were informed Wednesday that there would be no bowl game, the Sugar Bowl has learned.

It was also learned here that unless Rep. F. Edward Hebert, D-Lam, the ranking majority member of the House Armed Services Committee, is able to change some minds in Washington quickly, there will be an official announcement from West Point, N.Y., sometime today about Army's no bowl policy this year.

"The idea of appearing in a bowl met with military approval all the way up to the Pentagon," another Sugar Bowler confided. "But something apparently happened."

Em Thomas Defensive AFL Player

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Emmitt Thomas didn't let one miss discourage him. And it didn't take him long to make up for his lapse.

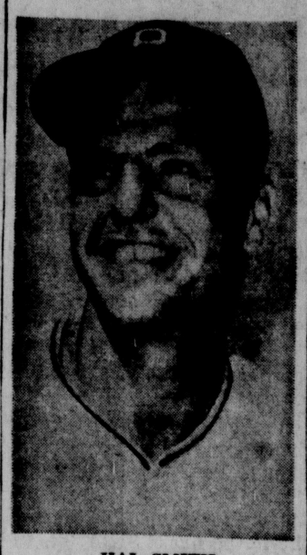

Thomas, filling in at defensive cornerback for the injured Willie Mitchell, intercepted two passes, returning one 57 yards for a touchdown, recovered a fumble and broke up six other passes, helping Kansas City to a 33-10 victory over Boston last Sunday.

His performance made Thomas The Associated Press' choice as American Football League Defensive Player of the Week.

"It was," said the second-year pro from little Bishop College, "the most satisfying football game I ever played."

The satisfaction came partly from reversing a blunder and scoring his TD. It happened in the second period with Kansas City leading 17-10.

Hal Smith To Coach For Reds

CINCINNATI (AP) — Hal Smith, who twice made the National League All-Star team as a catcher, was named a coach for the Cincinnati Reds today.

Smith, 36, has been a coach for the St. Louis Cardinals and a manager in the Cardinals' farm system since his retirement in 1961 because of a heart condition. He played for the Cardinals from 1956 to 1960 and was named to the 1957 and 1959 all-star teams.

"Having been an outstanding defensive receiver, Hal should be a definite asset to our entire catching corps," said Reds Manager Dave Bristol.

The Reds also announced that Dan McGinn, a lefthanded pitcher who was their top draft choice in January, 1966, has been assigned outright to Buffalo of the International League. McGinn posted a 6-13 record at Knoxville last season.

Mountaineer Stakes Set Saturday

Four of the thoroughbreds which will compete in the $10,000 added Mountaineer Stakes at Waterford Park Saturday have combined earnings in excess of $100,000 for 1967.

The four big money thoroughbreds include More Of Mort, Black Fleet, Confessor and Foldin Green. More of Mort, a Canadian-bred now racing at Aqueduct in New York, has won $30,064. Black Fleet, coming from Garden State Park in New Jersey, has compiled earnings of $35,733. Confessor, which raced this summer at Arlington Park in Chicago and at Detroit race tracks, has put $17,080 into the pockets of his owner.

The exact earnings of the four, which will probably be the favorites for the $10,000 event, is $104,251.

More Of Mort earned his 1967 salary by going to the post 19 times, winning twice, including the Quebec Derby at Montreal, a feature of Expo '67. He finished in the money on five other occasions. He was second to Miracle Hill in the 1967 West Virginia Derby.

Black Fleet worked harder for his money, winning six of his 24 starts and being in the money on six other occasions.

Confessor also has been an active campaigner with 27 trips to the starting gate, three of which resulted in wins. He was in the money in five of the other tries.

Foldin Green, in winning the prep for the Mountaineer last Saturday, registered his fifth win in 20 starts. Six other times he was in the money.

The Mountaineer Stakes, second big money event to be run during the Waterford Fall and Winter program, is for three-year-olds and is at a mile and one eighth. One more added money event remains on the Waterford fall program, the Audley handicap at six furlongs for older horses. It has an added value of $7,500.

Yankees Top Road Draw

BOSTON (AP) — Win or lose, the New York Yankees still are the top drawing card on the road in the American League.

Despite a ninth-place finish this season, the Yankees drew 1,364,783 fans away from home, helping the league to a record attendance of 11,336,923.

A league spokesman said Wednesday that according to records available the Yankees topped the circuit in road attendance for the 18th straight year.

Six other clubs topped the one million mark, also setting a league mark for the most teams surpassing that mark in road attendance.

Minnesota drew 1,325,806 to rank No. 2. The Chicago White Sox were a better drawing card away from home, attracting 1,277,404 fans on the road compared with just 985,364 at home.

The Boston Red Sox showed the biggest gain in road attendance as they leaped from a ninth-place finish in 1966 to the pennant. The Red Sox drew 1,171,688 fans on the road, 383,153 more than last year.

Baltimore's 1966 champions attracted 1,145,275 fans on the road, and Detroit 1,139,121. The Washington Senators passed the million mark on the road for the first time, helping to attract 1,077,131.

Other road figures were Cleveland 995,665; California 971,836 and Kansas City 938,214.

Dual Purpose Kickers Becoming Rare Breed

NEW YORK (AP) — The old style all purpose kicker who handled the punting, field goal work and kickoffs has all but disappeared from the scene in pro football.

Sam Baker of the Philadelphia Eagles and Danny Villanueva of the Dallas Cowboys are the only men who do the triple job. In fact, they are the only players who handle both the punting and field goal work regularly.

Villanueva lost his job during the training season while he was recuperating from an operation but he now has taken over again. Harold Deters, the rookie field goal specialist, was placed on the taxi squad. Baker normally shares some of the punting with King Hill but the No. 2 quarterback was injured early.

Don Chandler may be back in double duty harness again now that Donny Anderson has taken over at running back for the injured Elijah Pitts, out for the season. Chandler punted once in the Baltimore game but Anderson handled whatever punting was necessary last week in the rout of Cleveland.

Five rookie punters are doing the job in the National Football League with Jim Elliott at Pittsburgh, Chuck Latourette at St. Louis, Steve Spurrier at San Francisco, last year's Heisman winner, Tom McNeill at New Orleans and Lem Barney at Detroit since Pat Studstill has been out. The American Football League's rookie punters are Larry Seiple of Miami and Terry Swanson of Boston.

Despite the problems the field goal men have been having this season most of them are veterans. The Chicago Bears' Mac Percival and the New Orleans Saints' Charley Durkee are the new boys in the NFL. Rookie place kickers in the AFL include Jan Stenerud of Kansas City and Bob Humphreys of Denver. Miami's latest is Booth Lusteg who has been bouncing from club to club while Washington picked up Gene Mingo, an ex-AFL kicker, to fill in when Charlie Gogolak's injury proved serious.

Chandler seems to be helped by the lighter work load. Last year he made 12 of 28 field goals, missed two extra points and hasn't missed on 28 converting. Relieved of the punting, he has made 11 of 17 field goals and hasn't missed o 28 conversions.

TV Commercial, Ycaza Garden State Favorites

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (AP)— How much does a jockey mean to a horse? Maybe the rich Garden State Stakes Saturday will prove something in this vein when TV Commercial and Manny Ycaza team in a bid for a possible $195,321 first money.

Everett Clay, who has been a press agent for jockeys and horses the last 23 years, described the combination as fitting, "one a rebel, the other named in rebellion."

Clay meant the description as complimentary, noting that Ycaza has been set down for rough riding more than anv jockey in modern racing. He described the jockey as a product of a rigidly disciplined early childhood and his racing tactics rebellion against such rule and authority.

As for the colt being named in rebellion, owner Millard Waldheim took out his feeling about certain television commercials, especially those on bad breath. "I get awfully annoyed at them," says the owner of the Bwmazon Farm. "I decided to name a horse in protest."

Since T.V. Commercial's sire was T.V. Lark, the name was almost a natural for the colt.

What brings up the value of a rider to a horse is the fact that Ycaza rode T.V. Commercial in the Breeders Futurity at Keenland Oct. 21, and won by 1½ lengths over Family Fun, one of the probable starters at Garden State Park Saturday.

A few weeks later, T.V. Commercial ran in the Pimlico Futurity and was beaten three lengths by Vitriolic, pretender to the 2-year-old championship. Ycaza was not aboard, sitting out one of those suspensions he is so prone to picking up.

Trainer Tony Basile and Waldheim feel that with Ycaza in the saddle for the Garden State, T.V. Commercial will score handily and stake a claim to the juvenile title.

Vitriolic is sidelined with an injury, but most of the other standout colts in training will shoot for the big money in the Garden State, which with 14 expected starters will gross $325,535. Second money of $65,107, and third place dough of $32,553 aren't exactly chicken feed.

Other probable starters and their riders in the 1 1-16 mile race around two turns for 2-year-olds are Subpet, Ray Broussard; Irish Chief, Bobby Ussery; Bugged, Eddie Belmonte; Family Fun, Howard Grant; Broad Shadows, Walter Blum; Strate Stuff, Bill Fleming; Skookum, Ismael Valenzuela; Francie's Hat, Hedley Woodhouse; Wellpoised, Jorge Valesquez; Fairway Prince, Lester Piggot; Draft Card, Johnny Rotz, and Pappa Steve, Bill Boland. A rider for Iron Ruler has yet to be named since Laffit Pincay, who was to have been aboard, is serving a suspension.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: this will really surprise you. It did me, too, when I found out about it from my grandmother recently.

She never throws away the thick peeling from an orange when she eats or juices it. She saves them and lets them dry. When it comes time to put up her preserves, she uses this peeling to give a better flavor.

Now isn't that tricky?

MRS. DALPHEEN SMITH.

That's not only tricky, but terrific. And for years all of us have thought you had to grate peeling first. We still can, you know, but still it's so much trouble.

And think how those dried orange and lemon peels would taste in a hot apple pie! (The next time you buy a frozen apple or fruit pie at the store, try slitting the top crust open with a knife and inserting some fresh tangy slivers. It's absolutely delish!)

I also learned they were great when cooking dried apricots or apples for breakfast.

Can any of you think of any other tasty way to use citrus peelings? If so, do let us know. Your letters don't have to be signed, but I really wish you would so that you can get full credit for those hints you think are small and feel that everybody "knows" . . . but they don't.

Now go give grandma a great big hug for me, Dalpheen, and take the time to give her another kiss, too.

And did you know these dried peels ae great when thrown on a barbecue grill or in a fireplace? Try that sometime!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: My kitchen floor was getting a dark circle under the step-on trash can. So I browsed around the dime store and found just the solution.

I bought one of those 12-inch, round rubber mats and it fits under the can nicely. It was inexpensive and sure protects my floor.

BESSIE SWEENEY.

It's also easy to clean if someone missed the can . . . and have you ever tried one of those plastic, lace doilies?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When getting ready for bed at night, try folding that extra blanket at the foot of your bed in accordion folds like a fan, with the last fold facing toward the head of the bed.

Then with just a twitch in the night, you can bring the blanket right up where you want it.

GRANNY.

DEAR HELOISE: It really is easy to tighten the spring on a window shade and give it zip and bounce again without resorting to forks and pliers, and what have you.

First, pull the shade all the way down. Then remove it from its brackets. Roll the shade up by hand, as you would anything around a tube or stick, being careful to keep the edges of the shade even. Replace in brackets.

If it isn't zingy enough yet, repeat the operation until you have the desired tension.

CATHERINE CAMPBELL.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: The only answer I have found is a quotation I coined myself which is: "If you want it done, do it yourself, Agnes" . . . .

I am the mother of five kids and one is six-foot-four! And my name isn't Agnes either, Heloise.

"AGNES".

DEAR HELOISE: My nylon quilted robe was worn so I figured out a way to get a little more wear out of it.

I turned it wrongside out, removed the pockets and buttons and placed them on the wrong side. Seams were already finished, so it worked fine.

NEDRA A. SHAW.

HELOISE.

Reservists' Unit To Meet Tonight

Sgt. 1C John B. Scales will speak on the 20th U. S. Army Corps Commander's Rifle and Pistol Matches when Co. A, 7th Battalion, 68th Armor, meets tonight at 7:30 in the Council caucus room at City Hall.

Scales recently attended Stages I and II of the matches at Ft. Knox, Ky., and won "Expert" rating with the .22 and .45 caliber pistols.

Preliminary plans will be made concerning the elimination of the National Rifle and Pistol Matches at Camp Perry by the Department of Defense. Hearing Set For Steubenville-Massillon Tape Hassle

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

After disagreeing almost all year long, the final AP and UPI polls for the top teams in Ohio scholastic football were quite similar.

Both proclaimed Upper Arlington state champs, although the coaches made Cincinnati Roger Bacon a strong second while it was placed third by the writers. Eight teams were in both top 10's. East Liverpool ranked ninth in the final UPI voting, 12th in the AP balloting. Last year the Potters were 10th in the AP vote and not in the top 20 UPI teams.

Lima Senior jumped from 15th to sixth in the coaches' voting the final week, despite a season record of 7-2. It ended 13th in the AP tally. The AP put Dover fifth, while it was only 11th by UPI, and Circleville ranked eighth in the AP and 16th in UPI.

Unbeaten Struthers was 11th by AP, 12th by UPI. Warren Western Reserve was 13th by UPI, 17th by AP. Cleveland St. Joseph's 33rd by UPI, 34th by AP. Youngstown Ursuline was 46th by AP, 48th by UPI.

DICK CONLEY of Ohio U., who was named Mid-American Conference back of the week for his fine game against Bowling Green last week, has jumped up to ninth in the country in rushing. Other top rushers from Ohio schools are Don Fitz-Gerald of Kent State, 11th; Bill Mayo of Dayton, 13th; Al Moore of Miami, 19th; Bill Waller of Xavier, 21st and Roland Moss of Toledo, 24th.

John Schneider of the Rockets remains sixth in passing but has dropped to seventh in total offense. Cleve Bryant of Ohio U. is 12th in total offense and Tom Sherman of Penn State 16th. The Bobcats and Nittany Lions clash this week.

Dale Livingston of Western Michigan is fifth in punting and teammate Marty Barski is 13th in pass-receiving. Wil Perry of Kent State is 17th in pass-receiving. Moss is tied for fifth in scoring with 66 points and Don Abbey of Penn State is tied for 16th. In scoring by kicking, Ken Juskowich of West Virginia is 4th, Livingston 20th and Ken Crots of Toledo tied for 21st.

Another Mountaineer, John Mallory, is eighth in punt returns, one place ahead of Bob Zimpfer of Bowling Green. Mickey Depp of Pittsburgh is eighth in kickoff returns. In interception returns, Steve Bailey of Xavier is third and Ted Provost of Ohio State, 10th.

In team statistics, Dayton is 11th in rushing. In total defense, West Virginia is eighth and Toledo 10th and in pass defense Toledo is third, Miami seventh and Dayton 10th. Western Michigan is seventh in punting and Toledo seventh in defense against scoring.

PENN STATE LISTS 15 alumni playing professional football, 11 in the NFL, two in the AFL and one each in Canada and the CFL. Pete Liske, quarterback for the Calgary Stampeders, was recently named the MVP of the Canadian League. Other well-known pros are Dave Robinson of Green Bay, Lenny Moore of Baltimore, Milt Plum of Detroit, Dick Hoak and Bill Saul of Pittsburgh and Rosey Grier of Los Angeles.

Saturday Confab Slated By State

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Steubenville's charge that Massillon used electronic equipment illegally in its 26-16 football victory over the Big Red two weeks ago will be aired Saturday.

The Ohio High School Athletic Association's officers and the state Board of Control will hear representatives from both schools in the closed hearing.

OHSAA Commissioner Paul Landis had said an investigation of the charge would result if the association felt there was enough evidence to warrant one.

After representatives from Steubenville personally delivered the "evidence" to the association office last Thursday, Massillon wrote a reply to the accusations.

Specifically, Steubenville contends that Massillon used a video tape recording device which provides for instant replays, a violation of association rules.

Such equipment may be used only at halftime or at the conclusion of the game. The penalty is forfeiture of the game.

Steubenville's protest contained the names of seven witnesses who claim Massillon used the electronic device for instant replays.

Massillon has denied the charge.

"We want to clear the air and find out what happened," said Associate Commissioner Harold Meyer.

The Board of Control, which holds its regular meeting here on Friday, will stay over for the closed hearing.

Scholastic sidelights:

Coach Bron Bacevich's hot Cincinnati Roger Bacon team set a school record rolling up 373 points in its perfect 10-0 season. The third-ranked Spartans allowed only 19 in recording seven shutouts. Bacon also copped its fifth Greater Cincinnati League title in the last seven years.

Eddie Williams closed out a brilliant career at Sandusky Friday when the Blue Streaks thumped Mansfield 44 - 12. He ran for 177 yards to break the all-time school record held by his brother Stew, a former Bowling Green great.

Eddie also scored three touchdowns to tie the school mark of 47. Two other Williams brothers, George and Walt, also starred for Sandusky. Walt was killed in action recently in Vietnam.

How's this for turnabout. Class A Lisbon, 1-9 last year, finished a 9-1 campaign as co-champions of the Tri - county League with Minerva. Most of the credit goes to Coach Edwin (Bud) Bucher, who was forced out of action the last two years because of injuries suffered in an auto accident.

Class A Newark Catholic set two school records by scoring 465 points and limiting its opposition to 60. Halfback Mike McKee led the club with 1,572 yards rushing and 142 points while fullback Denny Welsh added 1,084 and 89 points before suffering a shoulder dislocation in the seventh game.

Don Young, senior halfback at Wintersville (10 - 1), scored two touchdowns against Martins Ferry and finished with 148 points.

Class A Warren Consolidated of Tiltonsville (9-0) went undefeated for the fourth time in the last seven years.

Brad Fearn, quarterback of Fredericktown's unbeaten but once-tied team, accounted for 1,290 yards, 677 of them via the airlanes. He passed for 10 touchdowns and ran for four more.

Unbeaten Cleveland Collinwood (9-0) will battle Cleveland St. Ignatius (8-1) for the Cleveland city crown on Thanksgiving Day.

Youngstown Cardinal Mooney won the Youngstown city title when Ursuline and East battled to an 8 - 8 tie Mooney shared the crown last year with Chaney.

Struthers, with a perfect 10-0 log, won the Steel Valley Conference title by beating Campbell 12-6. It was Struthers' first unbeaten season since 1930.

Larry Williams scored all 28 points in Dayton Dunbar's 28-24 victory over Dayton Roth last weekend. He also rushed for 140 of his team's 142 yards.

Warren Western Reserve in completing a fine 9-1 season, knocked off East Liverpool, Kent Roosevelt and Cuyahoga Falls. All were unbeaten when they faced the Raiders.

Onkotz Lineman Of Week

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Linebacker Dennis Onkotz has made 102 tackles for Penn State this season but the first 100 meant little compared to the last two.

They were the ones which first preserved and then completed Penn State's 13-8 victory over previously-undefeated North Carolina State last Saturday—a victory achieved largely because earlier in the game Onkotz returned an intercepted pass 67 yards for a touchdown.

Onkotz made 22 tackles in that game—12 of them unassisted—and also helped the Nittany Lions recover a Wolfpack fumble, achievements which earned him The Associated Press' nod as college football Lineman of the Week.

A sophomore—like five of Penn State's other defensive regulars—Onkotz has been making big plays all year and when North Carolina State, trailing 13-6, lined up for a fourth down play at the Penn State one-yard line with 33 seconds to go, he knew just what to do.

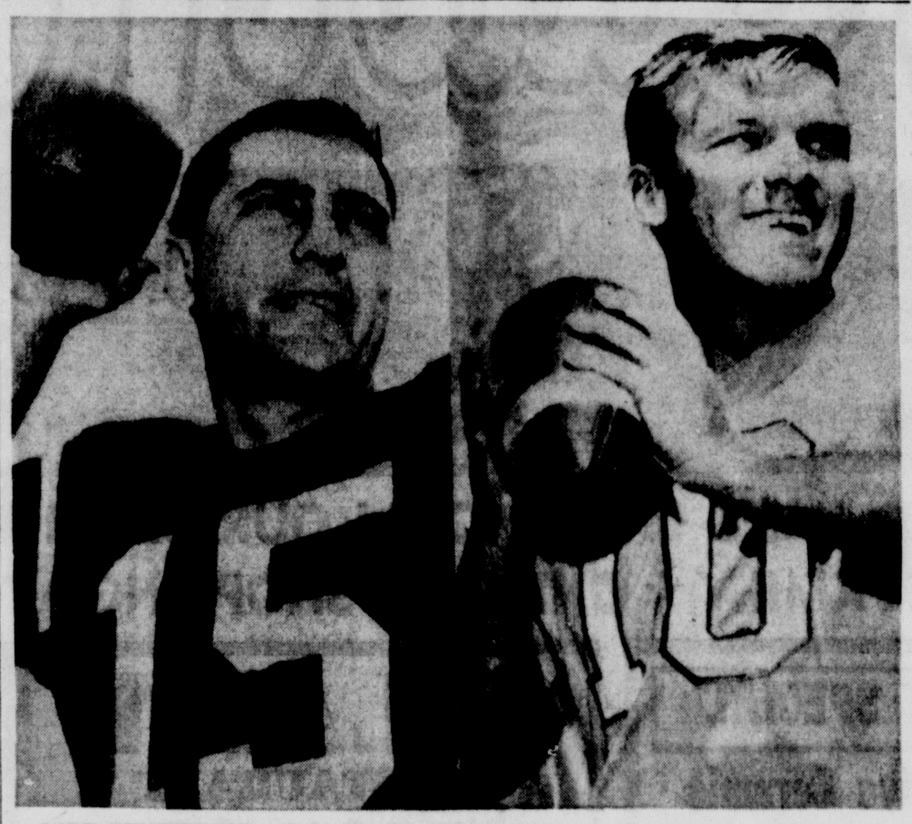

"They had run the play before and they liked to dive over the pile," Onkotz said. "We were ready for it and I anticipated where he'd go."

Tackle Mike McBath and linebacker Jim Kates grabbed Settle Dockery low and when he tried to dive into the end zone, Onkotz rushed over to shove him back.

Penn State ran three quarterback sneaks and then gave up an intentional safety to kick out of danger. The Wolfpack had time for one more play but it came to a halt when Onkotz wrapped up Tony Barchuk in the open field at the Lions' 35.

Saturday's interception was the fourth for Onkotz this season and the second he ran back for a touchdown.

Len Chappell of Wake Forest outscored Cazzie Russell of Michigan by one point during their respective college basketball careers.

Celts Win Without Russell; 76ers Lose To Bing, Pistons

By The Associated Press

The Boston Celtics had just taken over first place in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division, but Player-Coach Bill Russell had a problem.

He didn't know where his car was.

Following the Celtics' 113-110 victory over San Francisco in snow-clogged Boston Wednesday night, Russell stood in his club's dressing room and said:

"The first thing I want to do is find my car. I don't know where it is."

But during most of the game, the second of a doubleheader at Boston Garden, Russell knew where his car was. He was in it, and it was in a mammoth traffic snarl caused by the storm.

He finally abandoned it, caught a ride with a policeman and arrived at the Garden with just a few minutes remaining in the game. He didn't bother changing into his uniform.

In Russell's absence, General Manager Red Auerbach, who guided the Celtics to eight straight NBA titles and earned 1,037 victories before turning the coaching job over to the star center last season, stepped into the breach.

Detroit beat Philadelphia 123-120, San Diego topped New York 122-108 in the first game at Boston before only 2,645 fans and Los Angeles turned back Chicago 124-115.

In the American Basketball Association, Anaheim beat Dallas 116-105, New Jersey edged New Orleans 123-114 in overtime, and Indiana downed Oakland 119-110.

Bailey Howell's 27 points led Boston, which boosted its record to 11-2 compared to Philadelphia's 11-3.

Detroit fell behind by 18 points in the second quarter but then, led by the shooting of Dave Bing, roared back to overtake Philadelphia and end a 16-game losing streak against the 76ers.

Bing poured through 40 points, including 16 in the final period.

Dave Gambee scored 15 points in the final quarter when San Diego outscored New Zork San Diego outscored New York up their third victory in 17 games.

Gambee finished with 24, high for the game. Dick Barnett was high for the Knickerbockers with 17.

Jerry West made his first start of the season for Los Angeles after being sidelined with a leg injury and helped spark the Lakers to their victory over Chicago. West scored 17 points and contributed eight assists.

Flynn Robinson of the Bulls topped the scorers with 34 points, a career high. Archie Clark led the Lakers, who had seven players in double figures, with 24.

Grid Yogis Can't Agree On Final Week's Choices

In the last week of picking for the Review Grid Yogis there were no unanimous choices.

Turk Pierce, Rose Nuzzo and Bob Shaffer, the three contenders for the championship, had enough different choices to ensure that they all have a chance for the title. Bob Duffy and Tom Futhey, farther down the ladder, picked enough different games so that they have an outside chance to move up.

The only 3-3 split in the contests was the game of the week and maybe the year in college circles, UCLA-USC. Nuzo, Futhey and Duffy took the top-ranked UCLAns, while Pierce, Shaffer and Bob Poole go with the Trojans.

In 5-1 splits, Duffy is alone in three cases. He likes Ohio U. over Penn State, UT, El Paso over Wyoming and the Vikings over the Browns. Futhey is the only prophet to pick Kansas over Oklahoma and Shaffer stands alone with the Chargers over the Chiefs.

Pierce and Poole stick with the Steelers against the Giants, Nuzzo and Poole go with Minnesota over Indiana, Futhey and Duffy take Auburn over Georgia and Pierce and Duffy like Yale over Princeton.

Cleveland's Dowling Stars For Powerful Yale Team

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Yale quarterback Brian Dowling has faced only four Ivy League football teams, but he's received most of the "Blue Power" squad's individual glory because in those four games Yale scored 162 points.

The Yale season had begun in shaky fashion, despite hard-charging offensive and defensive lines and a sextet of powerful runners. Not until the addition of Dowling to the line-up did the Bulldogs of Yale begin to chew up come highly rated teams.

Now Yale has a league-leading 5-0 Ivy record for a 6-1 over-all mark. In sight is the school's best record since a 9-0 mark in 1960, when the Ivy football title last went to Yale.

Dowling, a 6-foot-2, 195-pound junior from Cleveland Heights, Ohio, was besieged by recruiters of some 100 colleges after brilliant football years at St. Ignatius High School in Cleveland.

"Ohio State loss to Yale" was the headline in a Cleveland newspaper when Dowling's choice was made known.

But his promising football career at Yale, until last month, was twice interrupted by crippling injuries.

He sat out most of his sophomore season with a knee injury. And he suffered a broken bone in his right wrist during a Yale practice 10 days before the 1967 season began.

His passing, hampered by the wrist injury, has improved in each game. Dowling's 31 completions in 60 throws have been good for 412 yards and five touchdowns.

His running has been just as important to the team as he's carried 29 times for a 6.1 yard average. He turned the ends for key yardage on several early touchdown drives as Yale whipped Cornell 41-7 and destroyed previously unbeaten Dartmouth 56-15.

The key plays against Penn, in Yale's 44-22 victory, were Dowling's two touchdown passes.

But the opposition is getting rougher. Once-beaten Princeton waits at Palmer Stadium, Princeton, N.J., for Yale's invasion on Saturday.

Purdue basketball coach George King scored 2,166 points in his last three years as a player at Morris Harvey (W.Va.)

Coaches Boycott Meeting

East Liverpool Blanked On All-County Grid Team

No players from East Liverpool were named on the Columbiana County all-star team, chosen at a meeting of the coaches at Salem last night.

No one representing East Liverpool attended the meeting. Coach Bob McNea said that the East Liverpool coaches had not seen the other teams in the county play this season and the other coaches had not seen East Liverpool play. "The other teams all play each other and they know the good players on those teams and will vote for them", McNea stated. "Two years ago we had a boy, Clarence Crable, who made all-state, but wasn't on the all-county team," McNea went on. "We have plenty of players good enough for all-county, but they only give us token recognition. So after talking it over with the other coaches and members of the school board, I decided not to attend this year. Instead of giving one kid all-county recognition, we consider all of our kids all-county", he concluded.

Columbiana led county schools with five players on the 23-man team. Lisbon and Salem had four each, Beaver Local three, Leetonia, United and Crestview two each and East Palestine one. Southern Local, which did not send a representative, was ignored.

Columbiana's honorees were guard George Lynn, 5-10, 185; halfback Bill Ward, 5-8, 175; defensive end Don Reash, 5-10, 180; tackle Bill Cyrus, 6-0, 225; and safety Dave Morris, 5-11, 170. Elijah Pitts To Be Out For Season

NEW YORK (AP) — Elijah Pitts, Green Bay halfback, is out for the season, having been placed on the "reserved as injured" list of the National Football League.

If the Packers should try to reactivate Pitts prior to the end of the season, including postseason play, Pitts could be claimed by any other NFL club on non-recallable waivers.

However, Vince Lombardi of the Packers, fully conversant with the rules, would not be likely to risk such a valuable property.

Pitts suffered a torn achilles tendon in a Nov. 5 game with Baltimore. His place has been taken by Donny Anderson, the bonus sophomore from Texas Tech who scored four touchdowns last Sunday against Cleveland.

Earl Monroe, who completed his college career at Winston-Salem last season, is sixth on the all-time college basketball scoring list.

Hull Continues Hot Pace As Black Hawks Win 4-1

By The Associated Press

"I'm just glad," Glenn Hall once said, commenting on Bobby Hull's powerful shots, "that I only have to face them in practice."

But that was before the National Hockey League expanded. Now goalie Hall, a longtime Chicago teammate of Hull's, is just anothar target for the Golden Jet.

Hull fired his 15th goal of the season Wednesday night helping the Hawks beat St. Louis and Hall for the second time this week, 4-1.

Elsewhere in the NHL Wednesday, Mike Walton's three-goal hat trick powered Toronto to a 4-2 victory over Boston and moved the Maple Leafs into undisputed possession of first place in the East Division. Pittsburgh blanked Philadelphia 5-0, Montreal dropped Minnesota 5-1 and Oakland whipped Los Angeles 4-1.

Hall yielded a first-period goal to Stan Mikita and then held off the Hawks until midway through the third period when Hull blazed a 20-footer past him.

Bobby's younger brother, Dennis, and Eric Nesterenko then added wrapup goals for the Hawks.

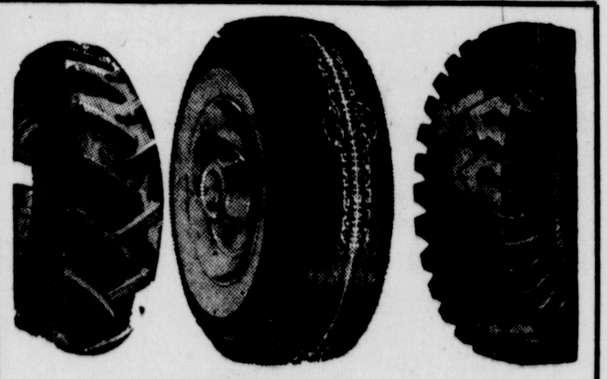

Walton, playing in place of the injured Dave Keon, scored two goals in the first period, one of them just 36 seconds after leaving the penalty box, and completed his hat trick in the middle session.

The three goals gave the 22-year-old center seven for the season in 15 games matching his total for 31 games with Toronto last year.

Montreal ended a five-game winless streak as Dick Duff and Henri Richard did the heavy work against Minnesota.

Duff had a goal and three assists and Richard scored once and set up two others for the Canadiens. Yvan Cournoyer, who notched his eighth goal, Ralph Backstrom and Ted Tarris were Montreal's other scorers. Wayne Connelly hit for the North Stars.

Hank Bassen, playing his first game in 2½ weeks, blanked Philadelphia, ending a four-game Flyer winning streak.

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says the atmosphere for universal peace can be created through such efforts as the "People-to-People" exchange program.

He blamed nations which seek to dominate the world for obstructing peace through "deceit and distortion of the truth." He cited no specific country.

Eisenhower spoke Wednesday at a "People-to-People" board of trustees meeting where he announced the election of former U.S. Ambassador George V. Allen as chairman of the program.

Allen, a veteran of 30 years foreign service, is presently director of the Foreign Service Institute in Washington. He and Eisenhower are close friends and neighbors in Gettysburg.

Court Approves Statewide Rules In Traffic Cases

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The State Supreme Court announced Wednesday approval of a set of statewide rules for disposition of traffic cases in minor courts, effective Jan. 1.

The uniform rules apply to municipal, county and mayors' courts ranked below common pleas courts.

The announcement said the rules would be published in the Ohio Bar Magazine and distributed generally in brochure form in about two weeks.

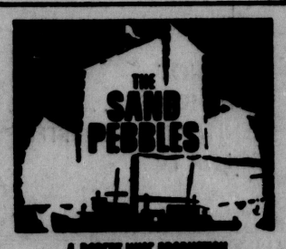

The legislature authorized the court in 1960 to draft the rules. Hearings and disagreements among interested parties delayed the final draft but the court announcement said "the objections heretofore asserted have been overcome."

The court noted that since last Jan. 1 the Highway Patrol has been using a uniform traffic ticket, included in the new rules.

Drafting committee members included Patrol Supt. Robert M. Chiaramonte and a dozen judges and attorneys.

Wallace Asks Name Put On Ohio's Ballot

CINCINNATI (AP)— Former Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama closed his six-city speaking tour of Ohio with another appeal for help to get his name on next year's presidential ballot in the Buckeye State.

Even though he repeatedly referred to "our movement" and the 1968 presidential campaign, Wallace declined to say flatly he would be a candidate.

"I'm not going to be a candidate if one of the major parties gives us an emphatic choice in 1968," he declared near the end of his 45-minute speech to about a thousand people. He was careful to say he would not be a candidate if either major party adopted a platform calling for the return of power over schools and housing to local governments.

The speech— like Wallace's other appearances in Ohio — was accompanied by heckling and arrests. Police escorted a dozen Negroes from the balcony of Emery Auditorium soon after Wallace started speaking. One of the Negroes, Leonard Ball, 40, program chairman of the Cincinnati branch of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, was charged with disorderly conduct.

Most of Wallace's largely middle-aged listeners applauded him repeatedly. The loudest applause came when he denounced the "pseudo-intellectuals in this country who write guidelines for the average man and the police" and when he called for a crackdown on students who "run" military recruiters off the campus.

"Civil disorders are blamed on environment, education, (lack of) job opportunities — but it's caused by a very small minority of agitators, revolutionaries, anarchists and Communists," he declared at another point.

Governor Urges Ports Of Export On Lake, River

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Back from a South American trade mission, Gov. James A. Rhodes called today for action to develop ports of export on Lake Erie and the Ohio River.

"It is becoming more and more evident that Ohio needs a trade center to help generate foreign trade," the governor added.

Rhodes was enthusiastic at a news conference about business generated by a two-week tour of South American countries in search of export business to stimulate Ohio industry.

"We will not be able to determine the exact amount of business this mission generated for some time," the governor said.

"However, the trade mission members assure me that they feel this trip was as highly successful as previous trips. They are looking forward to subsequent trade missions."

Previous missions were to Europe and the Far East.

Dinner To Mark Conclusion Of Beaver United Fund Drive

The first $1 million drive of the Beaver County United Fund will close officially Monday with a dinner at the Brodhead Hotel in Beaver Falls.

More than 200 key campaign volunteers will be guests of the officers and directors of the Beaver County Manufacturers Association.

With all eight local area United Funds already exceeding their quotas during area reporting a week ago, the countywide drive already has exceeded its $1,000,643 goal. Nevertheless, the final countywide total will not be known until Monday evening.

Charles D. Henderson, county chairman, said "Thanks to the outstanding effort by our community, we have made our first $1 million goal. This is a history - making event that each of us can be proud of."

Guy F. McCracken, vice president of Crucible Steel Co., and A. J. Hendry, general manager of Westinghouse Electric Corp., are co - chairmen of the countywide UF effort.

Monday's testimonial dinner also will pay honor to firms and employes which are not part of the local area campaigns. Included in this group are Beaver County government, United Steelworkers of America — District 20, Pennsylvania Air National Guard, Bureau of Employment Security, Department of Welfare, Department of Highways, State Police, Beaver Valley Motor Coach, Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Railroad, United Airlines, Bell Telephone Co., Duquesne Light Co., Columbia Gas Co., and Peoples Natural Gas Co.

Special recognition also will be given to countywide campaign committees.

Final 1967-68 campaign reports will be received from each of the eight local area United Funds. Their 1967-68 goals were: Aliquippa, $331,-906; Ambridge, $131,422; Beaver, $84,975; Central Beaver Valley, $24,544; Midland, $74,-116; Monaca, $97,393; Rochester, $39,034; Upper Beaver Valley, $217,253.

UF President Harold F. Reed Jr., will preside at the meeting. The Rev. Charles Goodin, pastor of the College Hill Methodist Church, will give the invocation.

The funds raised in this year's drive will support more than 40 voluntary agencies and services in 1968. These agencies are expected to serve more than 55,000 citizens during the year.

LSD 'Trip' Makes Patient Warm Towards Fellow Man

ST. LOUIS (AP) — LSD, the potentially dangerous drug, may have accidentally uncovered a cause of considerable mental illness—the inability to express warmth toward one's fellow man—a Mayo Clinic psychiatrist says.

Dr. M. Robert Wilson Jr. said studies of a group of emotionally-ill adolescents who were given the drug during treatment had revealed a common underlying emotional effect.

He told a seminar for science writers Tuesday that the common theme was expressed by one of the patients who said that during his LSD "trip" he suddenly "felt free to be compassionate and warm towards my fellow man."

Evidence from the study, he said, indicates that at least some emotionally-disturbed persons need "freedom to be warm or close" to another person, or perhaps even to express suppressed warmth for an experience they are undergoing, such as attending college.

"I therefore think," said Wilson, "that the inability to express one's warm feelings probably underlies many psychiatric situations."

He said that some of the patients in the study had been drop-outs from college, but that after their LSD experience they returned.

Wilson spoke at a seminar cosponsored by the Council for the Advancement of Science Writing and by Washington University.

The doctor stressed that LSD has potential psychological and physiological hazards, and he made clear he was not condoning its use by anyone, except under controlled medical observation.

But he said that supplies of the drug for medical experimentation are now virtually exhausted because of "moral pressures" exerted on the federal government. He said these pressures have led to the withdrawal of the drug, by its American manufacturer, from researchers experimenting with it to explore possible beneficial effects, such as in the treatment of chronic alcoholism."

National Sets Dividend

DETROIT — National Steel Corp. at a meeting of its Board of Directors Wednesday, declared a dividend of 62½ cents per share for the fourth quarter of 1967. The dividend will be payable Dec. 13, 1967 to stockholders of record Nov. 30. The meeting was held at National Steel's Great Lakes Steel Division.

Teachers Set 'Study Day' Over Dispute

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—Failing to reach agreement with the Board of Education on pay raises and other issues, public school teachers here planned to stay away from classes today.

The teachers vetoed 417 to 90 Wednesday to hold a "professional study day" today instead of attending classes. However, school Supt. Joe F. Calta said prior to the voting that the school doors will be open.

The city school system has 17,122 pupils and 630 teachers.

Jack C. Looney, president of the Lorain Education Association, said it had not been decided whether the teachers' professional day would be continued Friday.

Looney said no negotiating sessions have been scheduled, adding that three issues remain unresolved after several meetings with the board.

The teachers are asking for a salary of $5,950 a year for beginning teachers, effective Jan. 1. The board has offered $5,850 next year. $5,900 in $969 and $6,000 in 1970.

The board has rejected the teachers' demand for a day of personal leave annually. It also insists that all demands must depend on a proposed levy to be submitted at a special election in December.

Officers Seated By Ruritan Club

Roland McIntosh has been installed as president of the Liverpool - Calcutta Ruritan Club, succeeding Harold Ginder.

Other new officers are William Poe, vice president; Lloyd Cunningham, secretary; Hal Emerson, treasurer, and Mike McFarland, director. The ceremony was held at a meeting Monday night at the Glenmoor fire hall.

Bows made at the Retarded Children's School in Elkton were distributed to the members to sell as a benefit for the school. Final plans were made for Santa visitations during the holidays. The club arranges the visits at private homes for a small fee.

Plans also were made for a dinner for needy children in cooperation with the Salvation Army. Dick Brian, county chairman, gave Ginder a certificate of appreciation for the club's help in the annual March of Dimes drive.

The club also received an "outstanding attendance" award from the Ohio District of Ruritan National. H. R. Howard, a member, screened slides of Alaskan scenes.

Mel Nowell's 30-Footer Ties Game

By The Associated Press

It wasn't as long as Jerry Harkness' record 92-foot heave Monday night, but the New Jersey Americans found Mel Nowell's 30-foot jump shot every bit as satisfying.

Nowell's jumper, which counted for three points, came with six seconds left and gave the Americans a 108-108 tie in regulation time with the New Orleans Buccaneers in their American Basketball Association game at Teaneck, N.J., Wednesday night. The Americans went on to whip the Western Division leaders 123-115 in overtime.

Harkness' record shot came as the final buzzer sounded in Dallas and gave the Indiana Pacers a one-point victory over the Charparrals. The Pacers, the Eastern Division leaders, made it two straight by whipping the Oakland Oaks Wednesday at Indianapolis 119-110.

Dallas, playing at home, lost to the Anaheim Amigos 116-105 in the other ABA game scheduled Wednesday.

Nowell's heave climaxed a last quarter rally by the Americans in which they erased a 14-point deficit. A layup by John Austin and two free throws by Tony Jackson broke a 112-112 tie in the extra period and put the Americans ahead for good.

Lavern Tart, unable to play at Pittsburgh Tuesday because of a Pennsylvania common pleas court injunction, was back in action for Oakland Wednesday, but his 25 points wasn't enough to pull the Oaks through against Indiana.

A last-quarter rally, led by Les Selvage, gave Anaheim its victory over Dallas. Selvage, the league leader in three-point goals, hit three of them in the winning rally and finished high for the Amigos with 24 points. John Beasley topped Dallas with 26.

In the National Basketball Association, San Diego beat New York 122-108, Boston edged San Francisco 113-110, Detroit surprised Philadelphia 123-120 and Los Angeles downed Chicago 124-115.

Waynesburg Retains 5th Poll Spot

By The Associated Press

It's a matter of producing for San Diego State, the nation's No. 1 small college football team, while for North Dakota State it's a matter of waiting and hoping.

San Diego State, 8-0 this season and winner of 24 straight, plays home games against Montana State next Saturday and Utah State, Nov. 25.

North Dakota State, ranked second, finished its regular season Nov. 4 with a 9-0 record.

A national panel of sports writers and sportscasters gave San Diego State, 30-21 winner over San Fernando Valley State last Saturday, five first place votes and a total of 116 points this week. North Dakota State received two first place votes and 96 points.

Eastern Kentucky is third with two first place votes and 65 points, followed by New Mexico Highlands with one first place vote and 58 points.

Rounding out the Top Ten are Waynesburg, Texas-Arlington, Northern Michigan, Texas A&I with a first place vote, Southwest Texas State and Morgan State.

The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses and total points on a 10-9-8-etc. basis:

Military Puts Army Out Of Bowl

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Sugar Bowl has been quietly informed that "powerful people in high places" don't think Army's football team should play in a postseason game because of the Vietnam war.

This new development changes fluid situation for the Sugar Bowl once again with North Carolina State, Penn State, Louisiana State, Auburn, Mississippi, Miami, Fla., and Wyoming all somewhere in the picture.

"As of this moment, I would say we would probably have either North Carolina State or Penn State vs. either Auburn or Miami," said one Sugar Bowl official privately. "But a great deal depends on the outcome of this Saturday's games."

He quickly added: "The situation could change again within the next hour or two. After all, it's been changing like a newborn baby's diapers all week."

Army's football players were informed Wednesday that there would be no bowl game, the Sugar Bowl has learned.

It was also learned here that unless Rep. F. Edward Hebert, D-Lam, the ranking majority member of the House Armed Services Committee, is able to change some minds in Washington quickly, there will be an official announcement from West Point, N.Y., sometime today about Army's no bowl policy this year.

"The idea of appearing in a bowl met with military approval all the way up to the Pentagon," another Sugar Bowler confided. "But something apparently happened."

Em Thomas Defensive AFL Player

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Emmitt Thomas didn't let one miss discourage him. And it didn't take him long to make up for his lapse.

Thomas, filling in at defensive cornerback for the injured Willie Mitchell, intercepted two passes, returning one 57 yards for a touchdown, recovered a fumble and broke up six other passes, helping Kansas City to a 33-10 victory over Boston last Sunday.

His performance made Thomas The Associated Press' choice as American Football League Defensive Player of the Week.

"It was," said the second-year pro from little Bishop College, "the most satisfying football game I ever played."

The satisfaction came partly from reversing a blunder and scoring his TD. It happened in the second period with Kansas City leading 17-10.

HAL SMITH

Hal Smith To Coach For Reds

CINCINNATI (AP) — Hal Smith, who twice made the National League All-Star team as a catcher, was named a coach for the Cincinnati Reds today.

Smith, 36, has been a coach for the St. Louis Cardinals and a manager in the Cardinals' farm system since his retirement in 1961 because of a heart condition. He played for the Cardinals from 1956 to 1960 and was named to the 1957 and 1959 all-star teams.

"Having been an outstanding defensive receiver, Hal should be a definite asset to our entire catching corps," said Reds Manager Dave Bristol.

The Reds also announced that Dan McGinn, a lefthanded pitcher who was their top draft choice in January, 1966, has been assigned outright to Buffalo of the International League. McGinn posted a 6-13 record at Knoxville last season.

Mountaineer Stakes Set Saturday

Four of the thoroughbreds which will compete in the $10,000 added Mountaineer Stakes at Waterford Park Saturday have combined earnings in excess of $100,000 for 1967.

The four big money thoroughbreds include More Of Mort, Black Fleet, Confessor and Foldin Green. More of Mort, a Canadian-bred now racing at Aqueduct in New York, has won $30,064. Black Fleet, coming from Garden State Park in New Jersey, has compiled earnings of $35,733. Confessor, which raced this summer at Arlington Park in Chicago and at Detroit race tracks, has put $17,080 into the pockets of his owner.

The exact earnings of the four, which will probably be the favorites for the $10,000 event, is $104,251.

More Of Mort earned his 1967 salary by going to the post 19 times, winning twice, including the Quebec Derby at Montreal, a feature of Expo '67. He finished in the money on five other occasions. He was second to Miracle Hill in the 1967 West Virginia Derby.

Black Fleet worked harder for his money, winning six of his 24 starts and being in the money on six other occasions.

Confessor also has been an active campaigner with 27 trips to the starting gate, three of which resulted in wins. He was in the money in five of the other tries.

Foldin Green, in winning the prep for the Mountaineer last Saturday, registered his fifth win in 20 starts. Six other times he was in the money.

The Mountaineer Stakes, second big money event to be run during the Waterford Fall and Winter program, is for three-year-olds and is at a mile and one eighth. One more added money event remains on the Waterford fall program, the Audley handicap at six furlongs for older horses. It has an added value of $7,500.

Yankees Top Road Draw

BOSTON (AP) — Win or lose, the New York Yankees still are the top drawing card on the road in the American League.

Despite a ninth-place finish this season, the Yankees drew 1,364,783 fans away from home, helping the league to a record attendance of 11,336,923.

A league spokesman said Wednesday that according to records available the Yankees topped the circuit in road attendance for the 18th straight year.

Six other clubs topped the one million mark, also setting a league mark for the most teams surpassing that mark in road attendance.

Minnesota drew 1,325,806 to rank No. 2. The Chicago White Sox were a better drawing card away from home, attracting 1,277,404 fans on the road compared with just 985,364 at home.

The Boston Red Sox showed the biggest gain in road attendance as they leaped from a ninth-place finish in 1966 to the pennant. The Red Sox drew 1,171,688 fans on the road, 383,153 more than last year.

Baltimore's 1966 champions attracted 1,145,275 fans on the road, and Detroit 1,139,121. The Washington Senators passed the million mark on the road for the first time, helping to attract 1,077,131.

Other road figures were Cleveland 995,665; California 971,836 and Kansas City 938,214.

Dual Purpose Kickers Becoming Rare Breed

NEW YORK (AP) — The old style all purpose kicker who handled the punting, field goal work and kickoffs has all but disappeared from the scene in pro football.

Sam Baker of the Philadelphia Eagles and Danny Villanueva of the Dallas Cowboys are the only men who do the triple job. In fact, they are the only players who handle both the punting and field goal work regularly.

Villanueva lost his job during the training season while he was recuperating from an operation but he now has taken over again. Harold Deters, the rookie field goal specialist, was placed on the taxi squad. Baker normally shares some of the punting with King Hill but the No. 2 quarterback was injured early.

Don Chandler may be back in double duty harness again now that Donny Anderson has taken over at running back for the injured Elijah Pitts, out for the season. Chandler punted once in the Baltimore game but Anderson handled whatever punting was necessary last week in the rout of Cleveland.

Five rookie punters are doing the job in the National Football League with Jim Elliott at Pittsburgh, Chuck Latourette at St. Louis, Steve Spurrier at San Francisco, last year's Heisman winner, Tom McNeill at New Orleans and Lem Barney at Detroit since Pat Studstill has been out. The American Football League's rookie punters are Larry Seiple of Miami and Terry Swanson of Boston.

Despite the problems the field goal men have been having this season most of them are veterans. The Chicago Bears' Mac Percival and the New Orleans Saints' Charley Durkee are the new boys in the NFL. Rookie place kickers in the AFL include Jan Stenerud of Kansas City and Bob Humphreys of Denver. Miami's latest is Booth Lusteg who has been bouncing from club to club while Washington picked up Gene Mingo, an ex-AFL kicker, to fill in when Charlie Gogolak's injury proved serious.

Chandler seems to be helped by the lighter work load. Last year he made 12 of 28 field goals, missed two extra points and hasn't missed on 28 converting. Relieved of the punting, he has made 11 of 17 field goals and hasn't missed o 26 conversions.

TV Commercial, Ycaza Garden State Favorites

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (AP)—How much does a jockey mean to a horse? Maybe the rich Garden State Stakes Saturday will prove something in this vein when TV Commercial and Manny Ycaza team in a bid for a possible $195,321 first money.

Everett Clay, who has been a press agent for jockeys and horses the last 23 years, described the combination as fitting, "one a rebel, the other named in rebellion."

Clay meant the description as complimentary, noting that Ycaza has been set down for rough riding more than anv jockey in modern racing. He described the jockey as a product of a rigidly disciplined early childhood and his racing tactics rebellion against such rule and authority.

As for the colt being named in rebellion, owner Millard Waldheim took out his feeling about certain television commercials, especially those on bad breath. "I get awfully annoyed at them," says the owner of the Bwmazon Farm. "I decided to name a horse in protest."

Since T.V. Commercial's sire was T.V. Lark, the name was almost a natural for the colt.

What brings up the value of a rider to a horse is the fact that Ycaza rode T.V. Commercial in the Breeders Futurity at Keenland Oct. 21, and won by 1½ lengths over Family Fun, one of the probable starters at Garden State Park Saturday.

A few weeks later, T.V. Commercial ran in the Pimlico Futurity and was beaten three lengths by Vitriolic, pretender to the 2-year-old championship. Ycaza was not aboard, sitting out one of those suspensions he is so prone to picking up.

Trainer Tony Basile and Waldheim feel that with Ycaza in the saddle for the Garden State, T.V. Commercial will score handily and stake a claim to the juvenile title.

Vitriolic is sidelined with an injury, but most of the other standout colts in training will shoot for the big money in the Garden State, which with 14 expected starters will gross $325,535. Second money of $65,107, and third place dough of $32,553 aren't exactly chicken feed.

Other probable starters and their riders in the 1 1-16 mile race around two turns for 2-year-olds are Subpet, Ray Broussard; Irish Chief, Bobby Ussery; Bugged, Eddie Belmonte; Family Fun, Howard Grant; Broad Shadows, Walter Blum; Strate Stuff, Bill Fleming; Skookum, Ismael Valenzuela; Francie's Hat, Hedley Woodhouse; Wellpoised, Jorge Valesquez; Fairway Prince, Lester Piggot; Draft Card, Johnny Rotz, and Pappa Steve, Bill Boland. A rider for Iron Ruler has yet to be named since Laffit Pincay, who was to have been aboard, is serving a suspension.

YOUR CAR

By Al Green

FIRST COMMERCIAL CAR WASH BUSINESS? Most believe it was in Portland, Oregon back in 1912! Nothing really new, I guess!

NOW IN THE WORKS AN AUTOMATIC car warning system. Sensors are situated at various points on an auto such as transmission, cooling, braking and electrical systems. The car analyzes the reports coming from sensors and warns the driver before serious failure occurs.

ONE FILLING STATION CHAIN IN Houston, Tex. will offer motorists pure nitrogen instead of ambient air for tires. Tire life is much better with nitrogen, which allows no oxidation of tire materials.

IT'S A PLEASANT DREAM, A SPLURGE of sensuality, the feeling of being just a little pampered - - that's how you'll feel with a brand new, 1968 Dodge in your Garage! Stop by and see them at M & A DODGE NEW CAR CENTER, 570 Broadway in East Liverpool. You'll like the new Dodge, see them today!

A TRAFFIC OFFICER ASKED A DRIVER why he didn't stop when the officer whistled. "I'm a little deaf," the violator admitted. "Don't worry, you'll get your hearing in the morning," the policeman said.

MOTHERS! DON'T LET YOUR SMALL child stand on the front seat beside you as you drive! Don't let one sit on top the front seat either. Belt them in! A sudden stop at 20 mph with an unbelted child on the front seat could kill the child! Think! Belt them in!

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: this will really surprise you. It did me, too, when I found out about it from my grandmother recently.

She never throws away the thick peeling from an orange when she eats or juices it. She saves them and lets them dry. When it comes time to put up her preserves, she uses this peeling to give a better flavor.

Now isn't that tricky?

MRS. DALPHEEN SMITH.

That's not only tricky, but terrific. And for years all of us have thought you had to grate peeling first. We still can, you know, but still it's so much trouble.

And think how those dried orange and lemon peels would taste in a hot apple pie! (The next time you buy a frozen apple or fruit pie at the store, try slitting the top crust open with a knife and inserting some fresh tangy slivers. It's absolutely delish!)

I also learned they were great when cooking dried apricots or apples for breakfast.

Can any of you think of any other tasty way to use citrus peelings? If so, do let us know. Your letters don't have to be signed, but I really wish you would so that you can get full credit for those hints you think are small and feel that everybody "knows" . . . but they don't.

Now go give grandma a great big hug for me, Dalpheen, and take the time to give her another kiss, too.

And did you know these dried peels ae great when thrown on a barbecue grill or in a fireplace? Try that sometime!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: My kitchen floor was getting a dark circle under the step-on trash can. So I browsed around the dime store and found just the solution.

I bought one of those 12-inch, round rubber mats and it fits under the can nicely. It was inexpensive and sure protects my floor.

BESSIE SWEENEY.

It's also easy to clean if someone missed the can . . . and have you ever tried one of those plastic, lace doilies?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When getting ready for bed at night, try folding that extra blanket at the foot of your bed in accordion folds like a fan, with the last fold facing toward the head of the bed.

Then with just a twitch in the night, you can bring the blanket right up where you want it.

GRANNY.

DEAR HELOISE: It really is easy to tighten the spring on a window shade and give it zip and bounce again without resorting to forks and pliers, and what have you.

First, pull the shade all the way down. Then remove it from its brackets. Roll the shade up by hand, as you would anything around a tube or stick, being careful to keep the edges of the shade even. Replace in brackets.

If it isn't zingy enough yet, repeat the operation until you have the desired tension.

CATHERINE CAMPBELL.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: The only answer I have found is a quotation I coined myself which is: "If you want it done, do it yourself, Agnes" . . . .

I am the mother of five kids and one is six-foot-four! And my name isn't Agnes either, Heloise.

"AGNES".

DEAR HELOISE: My nylon quilted robe was worn so I figured out a way to get a little more wear out of it.

I turned it wrongside out, removed the pockets and buttons and placed them on the wrong side. Seams were already finished, so it worked fine.

NEDRA A. SHAW.

HELOISE.

Reservists' Unit To Meet Tonight

Sgt. 1C John B. Scales will speak on the 20th U. S. Army Corps Commander's Rifle and Pistol Matches when Co. A, 7th Battalion, 68th Armor, meets tonight at 7:30 in the Council caucus room at City Hall.

Scales recently attended Stages I and II of the matches at Ft. Knox, Ky., and won "Expert" rating with the .22 and .45 caliber pistols.

Preliminary plans will be made concerning the elimination of the National Rifle and Pistol Matches at Camp Perry by the Department of Defense. USAR personnel from the tri-state area supported the National Matches the past two summers for their annual summer field training. With the loss of Camp Perry as a training site, local reservists will have to find other situations for summer training.

James A. Garfield was the only man to be elected to the presidency while a member of the U.S. House of Representatives.

Chester Kiwanis Club Inspects New Market

Seventeen toured Russ Davis' new IGA Foodliner Tuesday night after the Chester Kiwanis Club met at the City Hall.

Davis opened the store Wednesday on the site of the former Chester Lumber Co.

A preliminary report by John Boyd on the pancake supper held at City Hall last Wednesday and Thursday showed between 500 and 600 attended.

Eugene Boyce is a patient at City Hospital while Harold Staley was reported ill at home. Thomas Ridge is recuperating at home after a stay in a Pittsburgh hospital.

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says the atmosphere for universal peace can be created through such efforts as the "People-to-People" exchange program.

He blamed nations which seek to dominate the world for obstructing peace through "deceit and distortion of the truth." He cited no specific country.

Eisenhower spoke Wednesday at a "People-to-People" board of trustees meeting where he announced the election of former U.S. Ambassador George V. Allen as chairman of the program.

Allen, a veteran of 30 years foreign service, is presently director of the Foreign Service Institute in Washington. He and Eisenhower are close friends and neighbors in Gettysburg.

Court Approves Statewide Rules In Traffic Cases

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The State Supreme Court announced Wednesday approval of a set of statewide rules for disposition of traffic cases in minor courts, effective Jan. 1.

The uniform rules apply to municipal, county and mayors' courts ranked below common pleas courts.

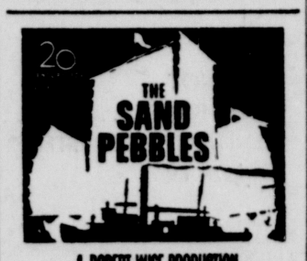

The announcement said the rules would be published in the Ohio Bar Magazine and distributed generally in brochure form in about two weeks.

The legislature authorized the court in 1960 to draft the rules. Hearings and disagreements among interested parties delayed the final draft but the court announcement said "the objections heretofore asserted have been overcome."

The court noted that since last Jan. 1 the Highway Patrol has been using a uniform traffic ticket, included in the new rules.

Drafting committee members included Patrol Supt. Robert M. Chiaramonte and a dozen judges and attorneys.

Wallace Asks Name Put On Ohio's Ballot

CINCINNATI (AP)— Former Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama closed his six-city speaking tour of Ohio with another appeal for help to get his name on next year's presidential ballot in the Buckeye State.

Even though he repeatedly referred to "our movement" and the 1968 presidential campaign, Wallace declined to say flatly he would be a candidate.

"I'm not going to be a candidate if one of the major parties gives us an emphatic choice in 1968," he declared near the end of his 45-minute speech to about a thousand people. He was careful to say he would not be a candidate if either major party adopted a platform calling for the return of power over schools and housing to local governments.

The speech— like Wallace's other appearances in Ohio — was accompanied by heckling and arrests. Police escorted a dozen Negroes from the balcony of Emery Auditorium soon after Wallace started speaking. One of the Negroes, Leonard Ball, 40, program chairman of the Cincinnati branch of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, was charged with disorderly conduct.

Most of Wallace's largely middle-aged listeners applauded him repeatedly. The loudest applause came when he denounced the "pseudo-intellectuals in this country who write guidelines for the average man and the police" and when he called for a crackdown on students who "run" military recruiters off the campus.

"Civil disorders are blamed on environment, education, (lack of) job opportunities — but it's caused by a very small minority of agitators, revolutionaries, anarchists and Communists," he declared at another point.

Governor Urges Ports Of Export On Lake, River

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Back from a South American trade mission, Gov. James A. Rhodes called today for action to develop ports of export on Lake Erie and the Ohio River.

"It is becoming more and more evident that Ohio needs a trade center to help generate foreign trade," the governor added.

Rhodes was enthusiastic at a news conference about business generated by a two-week tour of South American countries in search of export business to stimulate Ohio industry.

"We will not be able to determine the exact amount of business this mission generated for some time," the governor said.

"However, the trade mission members assure me that they feel this trip was as highly successful as previous trips. They are looking forward to subsequent trade missions."

Previous missions were to Europe and the Far East.

Dinner To Mark Conclusion Of Beaver United Fund Drive

The first $1 million drive of the Beaver County United Fund will close officially Monday with a dinner at the Brodhead Hotel in Beaver Falls.

More than 200 key campaign volunteers will be guests of the officers and directors of the Beaver County Manufacturers Association.

With all eight local area United Funds already exceeding their quotas during area reporting a week ago, the countywide drive already has exceeded its $1,000,643 goal. Nevertheless, the final countywide total will not be known until Monday evening.

Charles D. Henderson, county chairman, said "Thanks to the outstanding effort by our community, we have made our first $1 million goal. This is a history - making event that each of us can be proud of."

Guy F. McCracken, vice president of Crucible Steel Co., and A. J. Hendry, general manager of Westinghouse Electric Corp., are co - chairmen of the countywide UF effort.

Monday's testimonial dinner also will pay honor to firms and employes which are not part of the local area campaigns. Included in this group are Beaver County government, United Steelworkers of America — District 20, Pennsylvania Air National Guard, Bureau of Employment Security, Department of Welfare, Department of Highways, State Police, Beaver Valley Motor Coach, Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Railroad, United Airlines, Bell Telephone Co., Duquesne Light Co., Columbia Gas Co., and Peoples Natural Gas Co.

Special recognition also will be given to countywide campaign committees.

Final 1967-68 campaign reports will be received from each of the eight local area United Funds. Their 1967-68 goals were: Aliquippa, $331,906; Ambridge, $131,422; Beaver, $84,975; Central Beaver Valley, $24,544; Midland, $74,116; Monaca, $97,393; Rochester, $39,034; Upper Beaver Valley, $217,253.

UF President Harold F. Reed Jr., will preside at the meeting. The Rev. Charles Goodin, pastor of the College Hill Methodist Church, will give the invocation.

The funds raised in this year's drive will support more than 40 voluntary agencies and services in 1968. These agencies are expected to serve more than 55,000 citizens during the year.

LSD 'Trip' Makes Patient Warm Towards Fellow Man

ST. LOUIS (AP) — LSD, the potentially dangerous drug, may have accidentally uncovered a cause of considerable mental illness—the inability to express warmth toward one's fellow man—a Mayo Clinic psychiatrist says.

Dr. M. Robert Wilson Jr. said studies of a group of emotionally-ill adolescents who were given the drug during treatment had revealed a common underlying emotional effect.

He told a seminar for science writers Tuesday that the common theme was expressed by one of the patients who said that during his LSD "trip" he suddenly "felt free to be compassionate and warm towards my fellow man."

Evidence from the study, he said, indicates that at least some emotionally-disturbed persons need "freedom to be warm or close" to another person, or perhaps even to express suppressed warmth for an experience they are undergoing, such as attending college.

"I therefore think," said Wilson, "that the inability to express one's warm feelings probably underlies many psychiatric situations."

He said that some of the patients in the study had been drop-outs from college, but that after their LSD experience they returned.

Wilson spoke at a seminar cosponsored by the Council for the Advancement of Science Writing and by Washington University.

The doctor stressed that LSD has potential psychological and physiological hazards, and he made clear he was not condoning its use by anyone, except under controlled medical observation.

But he said that supplies of the drug for medical experimentation are now virtually exhausted because of "moral pressures" exerted on the federal government. He said these pressures have led to the withdrawal of the drug, by its American manufacturer, from researchers experimenting with it to explore possible beneficial effects, such as in the treatment of chronic alcoholism."

National Sets Dividend

DETROIT — National Steel Corp. at a meeting of its Board of Directors Wednesday, declared a dividend of 62½ cents per share for the fourth quarter of 1967. The dividend will be payable Dec. 13, 1967 to stockholders of record Nov. 30. The meeting was held at National Steel's Great Lakes Steel Division.

Teachers Set 'Study Day' Over Dispute

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—Failing to reach agreement with the Board of Education on pay raises and other issues, public school teachers here planned to stay away from classes today.

The teachers vetoed 417 to 90 Wednesday to hold a "professional study day" today instead of attending classes. However, school Supt. Joe F. Calta said prior to the voting that the school doors will be open.

The city school system has 17,122 pupils and 630 teachers.

Jack C. Looney, president of the Lorain Education Association, said it had not been decided whether the teachers' professional day would be continued Friday.

Looney said no negotiating sessions have been scheduled, adding that three issues remain unresolved after several meetings with the board.

The teachers are asking for a salary of $5,950 a year for beginning teachers, effective Jan. 1. The board has offered $5,850 next year, $5,900 in $969 and $6,000 in 1970.

The board has rejected the teachers' demand for a day of personal leave annually. It also insists that all demands must depend on a proposed levy to be submitted at a special election in December.

Officers Seated By Ruritan Club

Roland McIntosh has been installed as president of the Liverpool - Calcutta Ruritan Club, succeeding Harold Ginder.

Other new officers are William Poe, vice president; Lloyd Cunningham, secretary; Hal Emerson, treasurer, and Mike McFarland, director. The ceremony was held at a meeting Monday night at the Glenmoor fire hall.

Bows made at the Retarded Children's School in Elkton were distributed to the members to sell as a benefit for the school. Final plans were made for Santa visitations during the holidays. The club arranges the visits at private homes for a small fee.

Plans also were made for a dinner for needy children in cooperation with the Salvation Army. Dick Brian, county chairman, gave Ginder a certificate of appreciation for the club's help in the annual March of Dimes drive.

The club also received an "outstanding attendance" award from the Ohio District of Ruritan National. H. R. Howard, a member, screened slides of Alaskan scenes.

Junior Editors Quiz on MEMORIALS

QUESTION: Who designed the Lincoln Memorial in Washington?

ANSWER: As early as 1867, people began talking about the need for a national memorial to Abraham Lincoln. In 1911, Congress created a commission to work out plans for one. The commission chose the site and accepted a design by the architect Henry Bacon. For simplicity, for dignity, for impressiveness, the Lincoln Memorial would be hard to equal. A large building of gleaming white marble is surrounded by 36 columns, patterned after the Greek Doric design. These represent the 36 states comprising the Union at the time Lincoln was President. The memorial was dedicated May 30, 1922. At this time the Union had increased to 48 states, and 48 state seals are displayed on the building. Inside, an enormous statue, carved by Daniel Chester French, shows a seated Lincoln, brooding and thoughful, gazing out across America. The statue is flanked by sections containing tablets engraved with the Gettysburgh Address and the Second Inaugural Address.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Thursday, Nov. 16, the 320th day of 1967. There are 45 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1869, the Suez Canal was opened.

On this date:

In 1776, the British captured Ft. Washington in what now is New York's Upper Manhattan.

In 1864, Henry Clay work wrote the song, "Marching Through Georgia," to commemorate Gen. William T. Sherman's march to the sea.

In 1908, Arturo Toscanini made his U.S. debut — conducting "Aida" at New York's Metropolitan Opera House.

In 1933, the United States and the Soviet Union established diplomatic relations.

In 1944, during World War II, six Allied armies began a big offensive drive in France, Germany and the Netherlands.

Ten years ago: The Democratic Advisory Council asserted that hte United States, under President Dwight D. Eisenhower, had fallen behind in developing the weapons of tomorrow.

Five years ago: The United States said it would continue surveillance flights over Cuba until the Castro government agreed to better means of guarding against an offensive military buildup.

One year ago: It was announced that President Johnsor was in good condition after throat and abdomen operations.

Junior Editors Quiz on MEMORIALS

QUESTION: Who designed the Lincoln Memorial in Washington?

ANSWER: As early as 1867, people began talking about the need for a national memorial to Abraham Lincoln. In 1911, Congress created a commission to work out plans for one. The commission chose the site and accepted a design by the architect Henry Bacon. For simplicity, for dignity, for impressiveness, the Lincoln Memorial would be hard to equal. A large building of gleaming white marble is surrounded by 36 columns, patterned after the Greek Doric design. These represent the 36 states comprising the Union at the time Lincoln was President. The memorial was dedicated May 30, 1922. At this time the Union had increased to 48 states, and 48 state seals are displayed on the building. Inside, an enormous statue, carved by Daniel Chester French, shows a seated Lincoln, brooding and thoughful, gazing out across America. The statue is flanked by sections containing tablets engraved with the Gettysburgh Address and the Second Inaugural Address.
